Prologue

Under the sky and heaven, there was nothing that couldn't be achieved. There was nothing that was impossible. Humans only needed time before they could conquer everything: killing demons, trampling gods, and leading the three realms – god's realm, demon's realm, and human's realm.

– In an unknown time and space –

An old man with deep wrinkles in all over his face was laughing hysterically. His eyes shone brightly as a spectacular display of millions of colorful lights danced in front of him. His tears brimmed over and fell on his cheek. “After a hundred years of sweat and blood! I finally achieved what I lived for.”

“I am right,” he murmured softly. “All living things are controlled by karma. Every one of them is tied by karma and will be its slave even after their death!”

Years ago, using millions of modern machines coupled with his unusually great intelligence, he succeeded in capturing his thread of karma. He also succeeded in following his thread to the highest dimension – the dimension of karma. It was where the fates of gods, demons, humans and all living things were being controlled.

The old man suddenly felt to his knees and choked up some blood. He was already so old. His body started to tremble. His body couldn't follow his will anymore. A drop of tear rolled down his face. "Ye Xiu... I did it... I will find you soon..."

My body, please be under my command for a little longer, I will let you sleep as much as you want later. Please, just a little longer...

Squashing all his might and endure the pain of his old bone, somehow he managed to raise himself to his feet. His eyes shone at the dancing light. He had spent all of his lifetime on these experiments, only for one purpose:

To steal the Book of Karma that records everything under the heavens.

In his spacious laboratory, millions of machines were processing in a paralleled fashion. The uncontrollable light and energy ran amok, causing sparks to fly everywhere. In the core of the violent energy was an illusion of one book. The Illusionary book shook violently, trying to break through the shield energy wrapping around it tightly. The book was trapped inside for a few minutes before it started to solidify.

The old man forced himself to hurry after the book then he grabbed it tightly. His hands were trembling hard. At the same time, the sky changed rapidly outside the laboratory's building. In a radius of 50 kilometers from the laboratory, gigantic dark clouds emerged, followed by thousands of lightning bolts flashing brutally from cloud to cloud. All of them were racing towards one direction – the sky immediately above the laboratory's building. Then, thousands of lightning bolts suddenly combined into one of the largest bolt ever existed. Its color transformed in to a rainbow color before shooting at the Book of Karma with a deafening roar.

Heaven would never allow something like that to be born.

The old man knew it. He rushed to open the Book of Karma and shouted at the same time, “Take me to YE XIU!!!”

The gigantic lightning blasted the laboratory’s roof away in a millisecond, destroying everything on its path to the old man and the book. In the space of milliseconds, the opened Book of Karma dazzled with a bright light and sucked the old man into its pages which were like a space rift.

The old man felt himself flying into the wormhole of dimensions at bullet speed and hit multilayers of a very bright light. He flashed through billions of stars floating in a warm voided space. Suddenly, the lights, the stars, the movement and everything froze.

“Human! You broke the law! You are worthy of death of a thousand times. Since I am benevolent, I will spare you this time. But... Ehmm...” The voice was heard ringing around the voided space awesomely.

“Human! You must conquer all of the three realms! Conquer the human’s realm, god’s [Deva / Deity] realm, and demon’s [Asura] realm in 100 years! THEN, will I grant you your wish!” The voice was heard from all directions. “If you fail, your spirit will die and you won’t ever get reincarnated again. Even the soul of Ye Xiu will die with you forever...”

“Who are you!” The old man suddenly became angry. “If you dare touch Ye Xiu, I will kill you!!!”

“Hahahaha.... kill me.... hahaha very funny. I am Alpha and Omega!!! I am Your Creator, Your One and Only God!”

The old man was perplexed by the response and doubtfully asked, “God?”

“Human! Do you know the Ten Commands?”

“No, what is it?”

“Listen to these commands and put them in your heart. First command, ‘I am your God! Listen to Me and never doubt Me!’” said the voice ringing awesomely to all directions on the space.

The old man’s brows furrowed. That didn’t answer his doubt at all. “And what about the second command?”

“Second command; If you ever doubt God, please look at the First command!”

The old man felt something was amiss here and doubtfully asked again, “And the third one?”

“Third command; If you ever doubt, and doubt again about God please refer to second command!”

“ ... ”

“Forth command; If you ever doubt, doubt and doubt again about God please refer to third...”

“Alright I got it! The next command till the last command will be more ‘doubt’ and ‘refer to’, right?”

“Wrong! You arrogant guy! The tenth command is different!”

“So, what is it?”

“The tenth command: No matter how much you are doubting God and keep doubting over and over again, even if you have no faith in God, God will never stop believing you and loving you!”

The old man was dumbfounded and doubtfully asked again. “Do YOU love me? God...?”

“Yes, but since you doubted me again, you must be punished! Your mission will be made harder! In 100 years you have to conquer one thousand beauties.”

“In the countries far far away... there are a lot of deserted lands and forests... and in the middle of these deserted places, there are a lot of lonely dungeons.”

“Do you know the toughest dungeon that God ever created?”

“What is it God?”

“A woman’s heart!”

“...”

“Some of them may be easy to conquer but some stubbornly locked their hearts in cold and god-killing dungeons. It is your job to conquer their heart’s dungeon, open their locked hearts, make them feel your warmth. Let them know the greatest things about love. Make them feel the joy of life in happiness and above all, make them love ME and have faith in ME!”

“Okay I got it: make them love me and have faith in me...”

A long silence before a thundering roar was heard. “Not you! But in Me...”

“I got it, God. Make 1000 beauties open their heart to me, not You but me!”

“You! Ignorant human, I have enough of you! If you can’t finish these two missions in 100 years, hmmm... never think about meeting Ye Xiu again!”

“You dare...”

Suddenly darkness came and engulfed everything.

Chapter 1: Jaime

Cold...

Drops of water fell onto his face, waking him from his deep slumber. He opened his eyes, but couldn't see anything except darkness.

Where am I?

He felt really tired; his body cold and involuntary: as he tried to move, he was trapped by some kind of slimy things. He gave a little push, trying to sweep away those slimy objects that sucked him in. At last he managed to force himself to stand up. Immediately everything looked clear: there was sunlight beaming through the gaps of the many murky clouds. However, he shivered as he was stunned to find himself standing on a mountain of dead bodies.

Suddenly, the vision around made him wanted to vomit. There were no dead bodies in complete condition. Seem like they were all torn up by wild animals and left behind. He could smell blood and rotten meat from his around. His first instinct was get out from his place. His body was covered in sticky dripping blood. Rain was falling heavily as it tried to wash the dark blood from his body.

He dragged his fatigued body away from the mountain of dead bodies and looked around to find himself in the middle of a wrecked village. Houses broken beyond repair. Dead bodies lying down like sand in a beach scattered along the streets. The blood and the rain were being drained away, combining to form a river of red.

“What had happened to this village?” An old man suddenly appeared from behind. Jaime was shocked and almost fell. He thought some dead body come alive.

He looked at the old man with white robe and the other people behind him. Hundreds of people were flying in the sky, either standing on their flying swords or flying beasts. One by one slowly descended next to the old man, looking confused.

“Elder Meng, we were too late.”

Elder Meng frowned and deep wrinkle appeared in his forehead. He sighed heavily and ordered, “Search for survivors around the village and check the forest, maybe some survivors are hiding there.”

“Acknowledged.” Hundreds of people cupped their hand to answer and dispersed quickly. Not long after, some of them started cursing.

“Demon Sect! They are animals!”

“They killed everything alive. Even chickens and dogs were not left behind.”

Elder Meng sighed sadly as his eyes fell onto the only survivor of the village’s massacre. He doesn’t know how this weak and frail kid could survive the massacre. “What is your name, kid?”

“Kid!!! I am older than you! You wouldn’t believe me if I told you my age! It is one hundred and...”

Suddenly Jaime became aware that Elder Meng appeared taller than him. His vision only leveled the shoulders of Elder Meng. He checked his own hands and found they were smaller than usual. He was confused and silent for a long time.

“Maybe he is still shocked by the bloody massacre of the villagers.” Another old man emerged from the crowd behind Elder Meng. “From thousands of villagers here, only he got luck to stay alive. Have you identified him? This skinny boy?”

“Who am I?”

Pondering, a dim light suddenly appeared in front of his eyes. The light created a transparent screen with a lot of words inside it. He secretly sent a gaze at Elder Meng and his gang to confirm he was the only one able to see the message.

He tried to read the words:

[Name: Jaime (14 years old), Health Point 35/100, Mental Point 50/100, Level: 5 (normal villager)]

“He is just a kid without any skills. A normal village kid.” Elder Meng locked his eyes on Jaime. “He was really lucky to have avoided this massacre.”

“Elder Meng, I will go back to report this case to other elders. They don’t need to send all their disciples here anymore since it is already over.”

“Then, I will trouble Elder Fan for delivering the report.”

“What should we do with him?” Elder Fan turned to Jaime. Elder Fan’s body was smaller than Elder Meng. But his eyes appeared more dangerous than Elder Meng’s. Jaime sure that cunning old rogue is up to something.

“His body is weak, his bones are small and he almost has no muscles. Definitely not suited for cultivation, but I will take him to the Double Moon Sect.”

“You want to take him in as a disciple?” Elder Meng questioned with a tint of shock. In fact, this Elder Fan is known for his stinginess for taking disciples. He leads the sixth division of Double Moon Sect and he has only less than thirty disciples. Other divisions have at least hundreds of their own.

“Disciple? He isn’t worthy.” Elder Fan grabbed Jaime’s hand. “But he will earn his worth if he is doing chores for my disciples. Cooking and washing, so my disciples will have more time to cultivate.”

“Why don’t you use the outer disciples or eighth division’s disciple?” Elder Meng suggested. He showed a hint of disagreement.

Elder Fan sneered and wave his hand to refuse, “Too much of a hassle. My disciples had killed a few of them and it is giving me a headache! I don’t want to cause any trouble to the disciplinary committee anymore. Taking an outsider is safer. My disciples can kill them without causing problems to the sect, if they have to.”

Elder Meng didn’t like the way of Elder Fan doing things, but didn’t want to mingle on others problem. “Just try to treat him nice, you can send him to me or outer disciple if he is useless to you.”

“We will see.” Elder Fan hit a small pouch tied to his waist and a sword flew out from the pouch. After a spin, the flying sword laid still in the air and Elder Fan stepped forward to ascend. Taking Jaime with him, in no time Jaime felt his body dragged soaring in the blue sky with Elder Fan like a bullet.

Uarrgghhhhh!

Three people also flew with their swords, following Elder Fan, leaving the village altogether.

Jaime found himself about forty meters from the ground and flying in the air.

“Is this real?! Humans can fly?! Am I still dreaming?!”

After a nearly two-hours flight, Jaime saw what looked like a colossal mountain range ahead. Eleven mountains’ peaks lined up and chained around the biggest mountain's peak. Twelve mountains simply joined to become one majestic mountain. Coming nearer to the mountains, he saw thousands of buildings spread from the surface of the valleys to the peak of the mountains.

At least, there are tens of thousands of people staying in this place.

“Ba Zai, take this slave to Bamboo's Peak!” yelled Elder Fan loudly. He grabbed and threw Jaime's body up into the empty air. Jaime felt his heart was going to stop anytime because three people on behind passed him without bothering to catch him at all. Suddenly, he realized he started free-falling quicker and quicker, while Eldest Fan and his followers had already flown far away. They just let him free fall.

“Fk! I am going to die!” Jaime's body would be hitting the tallest tree in no time. He was totally powerless in doing anything.

Immediately one person standing near the gate jumped five meters from the ground and caught Jaime. This person was around 30 years old and had a big body.

“Fk that stingy elder, making me work for free again!” He cursed while roughly putting Jaime on his shoulder. He leapt quickly across the road and went up to one of the peaks of the mountains. Before Jaime could understand what had just happened, he again felt his body flying in the air. The guy had thrown him high in the air, over a four-meter gate, while shouting, “Ba Zai has delivered the item that Elder Fan asked for. Disciples of Bamboo Peak please accept him while he is alive. I think he is your new slave.”

Instead, Jaime took his time to look at the sky and be fascinated.

“Ahh, I never realized how blue and beautiful the sky was. It is a pale translucent blue... Ahh... look at those white slender clouds...”

Then his body started to free fall again.

“Fk! if I live I will hit those two guys hard!”

Immediately he saw someone on the ground and was sure that the nice guy on blue robe would catch him. Unfortunately, that nice guy kept standing there and shouted, “You are so dirty, I won’t catch you. Please take care yourself!”

Jaime flew into the bamboo’s trees. He hit dozens of them causing them to bend like a bow before snapping and breaking them all. It was a painful landing but luckily he had passed out before he felt any of it.

Not knowing how many hours or seconds had passed, Jaime woke up when someone splashed water on his face and body.

“Get up you lazy bum! Or I’ll kill you!”

An arrogant guy kicked Jaime in the face. Jaime avoided the possibly fatal kick as he forced himself to sit up. The guy sneered. “New slave, you will serve 28 inner disciples of Bamboo’s Peak.” He pointed at a hill. From the hill to the peak of mountain, there were some caves spreading from the bottom to the peak. “Understood?”

Understand what? Can't you see I am in agony right now? All of the bones in my body are splitting!

“Starting from tomorrow, you will have to put fresh food in front of each cave. No matter if they eat it or not, you have to keep serving fresh food! And then, fill water into each clay barrel in front of every cave. Take their dirty clothes and wash them. And remember to pick weeds and bushes around the caves too.” The guy slowly walked to one of the caves and shouted, “If I find nothing tomorrow, I will take your dog-shit head!”, and he disappeared in the cave.

Jaime took a deep breath and checked his status: his health point had only 1 point left. Any random chicken kick could cause his death.

Shit!

With a lot of difficulties Jaime tried to stand on his feet around the fallen bamboo trees. “Where am I? Why are people here like shit and barbarians! They never asked my name, yet they have made me their slave!”

Inside Jaime's mental realm, a book hanging in the middle of the darkness opened immediately.

“Book of Karma!” Jaime knew it by instinct. The book opened and a tiny bit of information poured into his brain:

[You are inside Double Moon Sect on Double Moon Mountain in

Dragon and Phoenix Continent...]

At the same time, some of his mental energies rushed into the book. “Equal exchange!” He understood: under the law of karma, offering something as an equal exchange to get something in return. His mental energy exchanged with the information from Book of Karma to yield his location.

“So, I am in Double Moon Sect, one of six biggest sects on the Dragon and Phoenix Continent. This sect occupies the land and the mountain peaks around the colossal Double Moon mountain range.” He stopped as the information kept flowing to his mind. “People who live around the mountain are outer disciples of the Double Moon Sect. Inner disciples stay inside the mountain, occupying every mountain peak. Inside this sect, there are eight divisions of inner disciples. Every division is under one Elder’s command. I am in Bamboo Peak, the sixth division, whose leader is Elder Fan.”

And luckily for Jaime, there was some more information from that almighty book for him:

[Jaime has been made into a slave in Bamboo Peak. If he failed to serve food and satisfy the inner disciples of Bamboo Peak, he will die without intact body in no time.]

Day 1 of the 100 years’ time to conquer three realms has begun.]

He was shocked. “Is this for real? Conquer the three realms? Human’s realm which has more than one continents and I don’t even know how many universes outside there! Demon’s realm and God’s realm too? Who do you think I am? Am I someone like King of Vali, Ravana and some other legends that can conquer the three realms?”

Jaime again felt completely powerless against such a condition. Too many things he didn't understand and he even didn't know where he is. He felt thirsty and drag himself to the nearest bamboo house. Forced himself to enter a decrepit old house.

“Kuaahhh!!” Jaime was horror-struck as he saw a body without a head laying inside the bamboo house and he ran out quickly. His stomach was throwing up. “Who is that dead boy?”

The Book of Karma processed the request and gave him an answer while taking 2 point of his mental energies.

[Dead body, believed to be Hu Hai, a brave warrior who picked up by Elder Fan while strolling outside Double Moon Sect. He was forced to become a slave for Bamboo Peak's inner disciples for a week before being killed by Zhou Wei—the nephew of Elder Fan—because his cooking couldn't satisfy Zhou Wei.]

“I am a dead man! The killing is not a joke!” He was alarmed at the prospect of being dead in that place. Jaime gazed outside and found the way he came into the Sect earlier. That was supposed to be the only way out. Without hesitation, he raced towards the gate as if he was never going to survive again. Just before he reached the Bamboo Peak's gate, suddenly Jaime felt a drop of cold sweat on the back. He was alarmed by a voice, which seemed to have casted a spell to rooting his running feet to the ground.

Fear creeping to every corner of his body. At the moment he only thought one thing, death.

“If you think you can run away from this place alive, you can try.” The voice filled with an intent to kill. Jaime was petrified.

“I... I... am going to collect food.” He tried to reason. Protecting his own life.

“Hmm, go to the west, you will find a forest and a river there. One step out from this gate, you will have to pay with your head.” The voice said coldly.

“Acknowledged.” Jaime turned his body to the west and moved to the deep forest. His hands trembled and sweat broke out all over his body. He was infuriated. “I need my f*cking lawyers! I paid them monthly and never used them once in my life and when the time I need them most, they aren’t here. Oh, I need cops too! I paid my tax every month for them. Believe in my country, believe in human’s right and in Democracy? When I need them most, no one is here to help! Fk slavery!”

After moving through the about half hour and kept grumbling. Suddenly, Jaime seemed to realize something important. He turned around tiredly to make his return way..

Damn! I forgot to bring any tools with me. What can my two hands do without them?

Half an hour later, He came back to the bamboo house. He grabbed anything useful he could get from the house and from the dead body.

A dead man needs nothing.

As for the dead body, he dragged it out from the bamboo house and threw it into the nearest valley. Not even family or a friend, he wouldn't waste his time and effort to dig a grave for him.

He laid his eyes to the valley. "Hu Hai brother, don't get me wrong. We are brothers who share this same miserable fate, so please don't rest in peace. Be resentful and bring all your ancestors to haunt the disciples of Bamboo Peak. Make them pay for what they had done to you. Make them sleepless, sick and take them with you to hell."

Jaime looked at the forest and let out a deep breath. He continued, "If I can't feed those 28 pigs, I will follow your path most certainly. Please book my place in advance and have two or three beauties to accompany me later."

Chapter 2: Meat and Desire

Jaime proceeded through the forest and found a wide river.

“Conquer three realms, be the king of all living things and open one thousand beauties heart! Even Tong Sam Chong who took a journey to the west, walking thousands of miles, had to start with a single step, devotion! As for my single step, it will be... taking a bath in the river!” Jaime looked at his body that was packed with dry blood and mud. He removed all of his clothes, jumped into the river and enjoyed its cold water.

After a few minutes, he began to calm down. He looked around at this place that was far away from his original world. This place was much better than his original world. The air was much fresher. He didn't know if he would ever go back to his original world anymore. Jaime clenched his fist.

“My hundred year research failed, but I got a second chance to meet Ye Xiu. Not to mention conquering the three realms and 1000 hearts. Even if it needs more than that, I will take the risk.” Jaime shouted with all his strength. “In 100 years, I will conquer everything under the universe! Wait for me Ye Xiu!”

He saw some fishes were swimming along the river and suddenly had an idea.

“Books of Karma, I need information about making a simple fish trap... no” Jaime glanced at the forest. “Information about creating traps for small animals in the forest.” Jaime felt his mental energy going to the book while he gained some insight about making animal traps. Jaime walked out of the river only with his underpants on and moved to the nearest bamboo tree. Using Hu Hai’s ancestor’s sword, the only thing that the dead body had and some clothes, he chopped down three bamboo trees and dug out the bamboo shoots. He chopped the bamboo into smaller pieces and would use them to make a basket like fish trap.

“Knowing how to create it is sure different from making it for real.” He noticed that fact after trying so hard to connect all the small bamboo pieces to make the fish trap. It wasn’t an easy task even though he knew how to make it. He asked the Book of Karma. “Book of Karma, can you give me the real experience of a trap maker?”

The Book of Karma responded and gave Jaime the real experience of a trap maker. At that moment, Jaime’s felt parts of his strength and health gone. His level fell down from level 5 to level 4.

“It took one level!” But in Jaime’s mind, he suddenly felt like he had lived the life of a trap maker, born and lived for 78 years. Death by old age. All of this happened in second.

Now the bamboo pieces in his hand moved really quickly, like he had known these things for his entire life. He only needed a few minutes and a bamboo fish trap was finished without much effort.

If this trap was put inside the river, fish may easily enter from a big hole in the front of the trap, but once it enters, it wouldn’t be able to get out again. For every trap that had been finished, Jaime went to the river and found a place where fishes would most likely cross. He put stones inside the trap, tied it to the river bank and sunk it down.

He was working as hard as worker ants or an ant slave. Making traps and cutting bamboo.

He checked one bamboo tree and started to hit it. After the second hit, a black figure fell from the tree near him. A two meters dangerous black snake bared its wide mouth and fangs. Suddenly moving fast, it jumped to attack Jaime aggressively. Jaime turned around, trying to run away but at the same time, the snake had jumped and fiercely bit Jaime's buttocks.

“Motherfker Heaven!!!!”

Taking his sword, Jaime quickly turned his body and randomly slashed at the snake's body crazily. “Let go!!! Let me go!!! Arrrghhh!!!”

The snake's body finally fell to the ground after being cut in two, but its head was still on Jaime's ass. He could feel the snake's head tightening its bite. The snake's head is usually still alive for one hour, even after its body has been cut off.

”Árrggghhhhh my ass!”

Jaime forced his hand on the snake's head and pulled it with all his might.

I am going to die! This snake has poison! How can I put my lips on my ass and suck it out! Fk maybe I can run to bamboo peak and force one of the inner disciples to kiss my ass!

Jaime checked the snake's head in his hand. "Book of Karma, what snake is it? Is it a poison snake or not!? I am going to die!"

The Book of Karma glowed.

[You have killed a level 3 bamboo snake. The snake was non-poisonous. It is already dead and its life energy is now without an owner, will you take the energy?]

"Take the energy?" The fact that it was non-poisonous already made him calm down enough. He didn't have to think about getting someone to kiss his ass anymore.

Jaime looked at the snake's carcass. It seems like there was a ball of light hanging off its body and it started to diffuse with the surroundings.

"Take it!" Jaime's motto is, 'everything free is good, if it isn't good, you can always throw it away later. No harm in taking anything free in advance.'

The energy ball flew into Jaime's body and made him feel really comfortable. Suddenly Jaime could feel his status change. He could sense his level going up from middle level 4 to the peak of level 4. Seem like he can rise to the next level by killing some random animals and collecting their energy.

When the nocturnals began ringing around the forest, Jaime had finished 4 fish traps and a simple backpack basket from bamboo to carry his loot. He had eight bamboo shoots and one snake carcass. Back at the bamboo house in Bamboo Peak, he saw a bamboo bed inside and fell asleep just 3 seconds after he laid down. He was just too tired to do anything anymore.

Feeling cold, Jaime awoke from his deep slumber. “What time it is?”

Deep inside his mind, Jaime had arranged a biological clock. In his previous life, to train his mind and intelligence, he tried a few things. One of them was a biological clock. He only needed to set a time in his mind and let his unconscious mind move the time like a digital clock. It was very easy. No matter how busy he was, he could always see what time it was inside of his mind.

Yesterday, he already set a time of 12:00 am when the sun was at the top of his head.

“It is 03:35 in the morning.”

After he awoke, he couldn't see anything because of the darkness, so Jaime closed his eyes and let his mind draw a map of the surroundings. Jaime was once famous for his intelligence and photographic memory—the ability to remember things accurately and in great detail after seeing them once. With closed eyes, Jaime took two flints from the place he remembered, and then walked through the forest, heading towards the river using his memory. Without opening his eyes, he easily went down to the river and took four fish traps out.

He only opened his eyes when he was trying to make fire with the flints. Without any problem, the fire lit up and brighten the surroundings. Jaime caught 31 fishes inside the four fish traps and killed them with a wooden stick. After taking all of their ownerless energy, Jaime raised his level from level 4 to 5. He smiled smugly.

“Good, I feel that my strength doubled. Maybe I could waste those bamboo peak inner disciples already.” He looked at the fishes, the fire, and suddenly became dumbstruck. He never cooked in his lifetime. Why bothering to cook when you could buy them. Truthfully, he didn’t really care what he ate. He ate all kinds of instant foods and junk foods all his life. Sometimes he even ate expired food, it was okay, his stomach had gotten used to it.

But this time, it was a matter of life and death. If the food tastes like shit, I will be headless.

“Book of Karma, I need profound information and experience of the best chef ever.”

The Book of Karma quickly responded and a screen appeared in front of him. On the screen there were thousands of lists about chefs and cooking skills. He glanced at the top of the list. [...

God of Cooking’s skill and experience. Exchange with 1,000 levels and 100,000 mental energies. God of Cooking first apprentice’s skill and experience. Exchange with 900 levels and 90,000 mental energies. Demon Master Chef’s skill and experience. Exchange with 890 levels and 89,000 mental energies. ...]

“Alright, lets check something affordable, window shopping is good but causes too much stress.”

Jaime looked to the very bottom list and the last one seem affordable to him.

[5996. Apprentice of some random lowly restaurant chef on a deserted village's skill and experience. Self-proclaim as the best chef in the world. Exchange with 4 levels and 40 mental energies.]

Jaime sighed. "At least it has the title of 'the best chef in the world.'"

"I'll take it!" His level and mental energy was sucked up by the book of karma. Jaime's level fell down to level 1. And from the book, some information and experience flew out to fill Jaime's mind.

In that moment, Jaime understood something, in this world there are two kinds of energies, spiritual energy and mental energy. Spiritual energy is stored inside the body. People with high density of spiritual energies inside their body will have a higher level. Mental energy is something like mind energy to process information or to imagine something.

The Book of Karma takes spiritual energy and mental energy to exchange with information from it. As it takes spiritual energy, Jaime's level will be lower than before because the vanishing spiritual energy from his body.

As the Book of Karma forcefully filled information in Jaime's mind, he suddenly experienced the life of the self-proclaim best chef of the world. It took only a second but it felt like 80 years. In no time, Jaime knew everything he needed to make a tasty roasted fish. His hand moved like a chef and processed the fishes.

Before sunrise, he divided the roasted fishes, roasted snakes, and bamboo shoots into 28 portions and wrapped each with leaves. Using his basket as backpack, he went back to Bamboo Peak and delivered each package to each cave.

Looking at some of the dirty clothes in front of each cave, he grabbed all of them, brought them to the river and washed them. He also took water from the river and filled each big clay barrel in front of the cave. In his spare time, he made more fish traps. Day by day passed just like that.

On the third day he was there, he found a very big beast in the forest. The beast body was very big, like rhino or elephant, but filled with horns all over its body.

What kind of animal it is?

[Hundred Horn Rhino, a leveled Demonic Beast. It is in the Elementary Realm, very aggressive animal with tremendous strength but low intelligence.]

Jaime laughed because he knew that the big thing's intelligence was only 1 point, but that rhino strength couldn't be laughed at. That beast could kill Jaime four times with one hit. And to kill that beast, Jaime would need to hit it a thousand times just to scratch its itch.

I won't be able to kill it for sure.

Soon three day passed by again and Jaime met an inner disciple of Bamboo Peak when he delivered food. He was a guy around twenty, looking very arrogant and full of killing intent.

“Slave, I am sick and tired of fish, rabbit, or small animals. If you can’t give me something like demonic beast’s meat, I will collect your head.”

Jaime glared disdainfully at him.

“Who does he thinks he is?”

[Zhou Wei, level 25 – Junior Realm, an inner disciple of bamboo peak, a cousin of Elder Fan. Very arrogant and loves to kill people because of small matters, has killed 58 people on a whim.]

Jaime quickly turned down his head.

“Well, he only needs to hit this future king of the three realms once and I will die twenty times.”

He just reached level 6 after killing fishes and random small animals that were trapped by his land traps. How could he faced demonic beast whose levels were usually over ten and were at least at the elementary realm. Any animal under level ten was a normal animal, up from level ten, all animal were categorized as Demonic Beast. The beast is a believed being, mutated by demonic aura and grew stronger from other normal beast.

He knew from the Book of Karma, in this world, below level ten is categorized as normal, level 10-19 is categorized as Elementary Realm, level 20-29 is categorized as Junior Realm, level 30-39 is categorized as Senior Realm, level 40-49 is categorized as True Human Realm, level 50-59 is categorized as Elder Realm, level 60-69 is categorized as Patriarch Realm and next are King Realm, Emperor Realm, Ancestor Realm and Demigod Realm.

“But I....”

Zhou Wei waved his hand and wind pressure hit Jaime like a solid wall. Causing Jaime’s body to fly five meters back and landed with his ass up the sky.

“I want demonic beast’s meat tomorrow! For each day late, I will break one of your bones!”

“Fk your mother and her nine generation, why not just say, please be demonic beast food wholeheartedly!”

Jaime knew for sure, he wouldn’t be able to kill a demonic beast. “Brother it isn’t good to follow your desire, find your life purpose in happiness, not desire. Wanting demonic beast’s meat is a shameless desire. A monk shouldn’t want any meat, nor have desire, so you can cultivate smoothly.”

“You will die now!” Zhou Wei moved his hand.

“Tomorrow you will get the tastiest demonic beast’s meat you ever will eat in your whole life.” Jaime was already running as fast as he could.

Facing a level 25 disciple or a level 12 demon beast, he knew which one was better to face.

Chapter 3: Ceramic Set

“Lalala..... I am the almighty digger ~. I dig once, I find tons of gold. I dig twice; the spring waters of youth will flow out. I dig thrice, I find the goddess of beauty lying down to embrace me. I dig fourth; I awake from my stupid dream...!” Jaime was digging a very big hole in the ground. With his level at 6, digging was not too hard. After a half day of digging, he placed down some tree branches and dry leaves to cover the big hole.

His right hand grabbed a simple bow he made for hunting small animals and ran to the nearest demonic beast he could locate. He tried to find a dumb-ass demonic beasts with 1 to 3 points of intelligence that he could provoke. This was the law of jungle, the smartest eats the dumbest. Immediately he found one that was eating grass lazily.

“I am the future king of gods and demons! Behold my power! Tiny beast please happily be my food!” He quickly pulled his bow with all his strength and let an arrow fly to hit the Hundred Horns Rhino.

He kept shooting at the beast with all his strength. After ten arrows, the rhino still lazily ate the grass. It did even move because its skin was too thick to feel any of the attacks. As for the arrows Jaime released, they were without any iron heads, just a sharpen piece of wood.

Suddenly, the Hundred Horns Rhino turned around and an arrow unintentionally hit one of its eyes.

The Hundred Horns Rhino shrieked loudly and became angry. Both its eyes were locked on Jaime and its four legs started to move in Jaime’s direction. Its Hundred Horns all erected and ready to stab Jaime to death, to make him become satay.

Jaime majestically jumped in front of the mad Hundred Horns Rhino and roared with all his might. “I am going to face you one on one! You better not run this time sissy!” Jaime forcefully ripped off his clothes, showing off his skinny body and bare skin. His muscles contracted and demonstrated his small solid muscles. His eyes were like a lion hunting its prey. His fists hardened and he was prepared to fight to the death.

Immediately, Hundred Horns Rhino rushed at him. Jaime quickly turned around and ran as fast as he could. He ran for his life. “Villagers, Hu Hai and Hu Hai’s ancestor, please help this almighty king. If you help me, I will make a big offering for your spirits and send all of the demonic beast meat for you to eat in hell.”

Unexpectedly something happened, trees far away in the forest started shaking. It seemed like something very big will appear and was rushing at very fast pace to his place.

“Really? All of you are really helping me this time? I won’t forget this kindness...” Jaime tried to check behind him then shouted. “FKKKKK all of you!!!! You sent me the wrong kind of help!”

Jaime saw another Hundred Horns Rhino appearing and joining the previous one to chase after him. He could do nothing but run faster. “All of you just want me to join you in the after life? This almighty king has to deny it, this king still has much more work to do and has to refuse your intentions. I have to build the largest harem of the three realms! Beauties from all kinds of realms, the sexiest nymph from the Demon Realm, the goddesses from the God Realm, and the beauties that can wreck continents from the Human Realm!”

He ran until he was out of breath. Moving swiftly around the trees while letting the beasts crush anything else in its path. It caused the beasts to move slower, allowing him was to catch his breath. In no time, he quickly found the place he laid the pitfall trap. Jaime crossed the hole by stepping on the small bamboo bridge in the middle of the hole and hurriedly jumping to the other side.

While hanging in the air he shouted, “I am the almighty king of the three realms. Everything will be under me and kissing my ass. I am the Hottest Prince of a thousand beauties! Behold my power!”

The Hundred Horns Rhino did a mad dash to hit Jaime but suddenly lost its footing and fell down hard. The second Hundred Horns Rhino also fell and crushed its friend beneath it with its weight; meanwhile its body became pierced with the erected horns from the Hundred Horns Rhino below it.

Jaime laughed uncontrollably when he saw that both demonic beasts were practically killing each other, sticking their horns into each others body. They both shrieked painfully before they died. Two big balls of free energy emerged from the beasts and moved to Jaime’s body, raising his level four times.

[Status: Level 10, Elementary realm.]

“In this world, nothing is impossible! If you think you can then you really can!” High spirited, Jaime jumped in to the pit to check the carcasses. “Now, I will get your meat and cook you!”

After an hour, Jaime gave up. “It’s impossible to cut this thick skin! No matter how much I believe I can cut it, the sword won’t cut it! Fk positive thinking!”

Blind believers with blind faith will only get schemed against blindly.

“Book of karma, I need the skills and experience of a best chef in the world, who can skin, debone and cook demonic beast. Also have the knowledge to make use of plants around this place as seasoning to make the food taste better.”

A screen appeared in front of Jaime with a list containing thousands of names. He quickly scanned the list to the section that was affordable for his condition, which was at the bottom of the list.

[3123. Second generation of the self-proclaim best chef in the world. A young master of the best chef in the world. Unsatisfied with cooking small animals and normal animals, he dedicated himself to the study of demonic beast cooking and learned about plants for seasoning and medicine. He lived and died on a deserted land; self-proclaimed as the best medical chef in the world.

Exchange with 5 levels and 50 mental energies]

Jaime didn’t want to exchange all of his levels because he would lose his strength to cut the meat or to do the housewife chores for those 28 pigs. “Seem like I have karma with that self-proclaimed chef and his son, hmm... self-proclaimed best medical chef in the world. At least I still get something that sounds like ‘the best in the world’.”

Losing 5 of his levels, Jaime quickly experienced 87 years of the life of the self-proclaimed best medical chef in the world in just a few seconds. He gained the knowledge on how to cook the demonic beasts. He knew which spots were best to start the cutting from, deboning from, and how to take the demonic beast's core out. Jaime worked for a whole day and night to make the meat edible and tasty.

He also had made an offering ritual for Hu Hai and his ancestors; all the bone and left over of demonic beast things.

“Master Zhu Wei, this is the offering,” Jaime presented his best creation to Zhou Wei. The arrogant guy check the demonic beast's meat cooked with some seasoning that smelled wonderful. He started to drool.

Zhou Wei ate the meat, chewed for a long time and nodded in agreement. “Tasty, you can keep your head for now.”

Never ever make a chef angry! Once they get angry at you, they will cook for you a very wonderful and special dish. You will be drooling just by its smell. When you eat it, you will go to heaven because it is so wonderfully tasty. But when you know what inside, you will definitely fall to hell!

For me, one of my seasonings for you is my sh*t! You ate it and you said it was tasty... MUAHAHAHAHA....From today on, your food will always have that special seasoning of mine.... Sorry but you started it!

The Hundred horns rhino weighed around 1 to 2 tons. With that much meat, Jaime made some dried meat for the future. For a week, he kept himself busy with the demonic beast carcasses. He also tried to use the horns and the skin to make something else useful.

Then, that morning Jaime met his second arch-enemy, another inner disciple of Bamboo Peak.

“So you really hunted that demonic beast?”

“Yes I did.” Jaime glanced at the woman, that was around thirty years old, in front of the cave. Usually most inner disciples of Bamboo Peak hide in their cave. Only now, when he was really unlucky, would he meet someone who would squash him dry.

“Don’t lie to me; I could sense that you haven’t even reached the elementary realm. How could you kill demonic beast, which are at least in the elementary realm?”

The woman didn’t look cold, instead she gave the feeling of lust and danger at the same time. She was the type that like to gain attention the most, but would happily kill or torture anyone that tried to take a bit of that attention from her; a natural-born sadist.

“I am a humble person and the most honest person under three realms. I dug a big hole wholeheartedly and waited a few days for the demonic beast to jump in to it and send its meat to me. That was how I could gain the demon beast’s meat and the beast also didn’t feel cheated. Because it was just an unlucky accident, that Hundred Horns Rhino beast could only blame its own luck.”

“I am so sorry, my father never taught me anything about honor. He thought honor was big bullshit and it caused people to die faster. For my goodness sake, his future grandson and our clan next generation, he taught me our family’s number one martial art. It is dated from 8000 years ago and has already been carefully refined by each patriarch to its best form; the art of kissing ass. He hoped that, with this art, I could survive this hard life and one day be king of the three realms.”

The woman laughed. “Whatever, now you have the demonic beast’s core right?”

Jaime found a small crystal inside the demonic beast and knew it was the demonic beast’s core. The core was amounted with some spiritual energy which may help cultivator with their cultivation.

“I have two with me and willingly present all I have to mistress.” Jaime took out two small azure crystals.

“I have no need for those lowly beast cores.” The woman sneered again. “I am getting tired of these bamboo glasses and mugs; I want a set of ceramic food ware. Get them for me.” She threw a set of bamboo glasses and mugs to Jaime’s face.

“Fk, who do you think you are? A Princess who can charm any guy under heaven? Cause them be a stupid fanatic and throw their money just to make you smile! Fk, with your face and body, any horny bastard wouldn't even like to touch you even for free!"

"The most beautiful princess under heaven..." said Jaime without any anger. He was clearly implying under heaven, as in hell. Maybe some hungry spirits there will find this woman attractive and think of her as a beautiful princess. "This lowly servant has no money, no family or friends, nor knows any loan sharks to borrow money to buy a ceramic set. If I'm needed to sell my body to get a set of ceramic, I will do it for my princess."

"No need to sell yourself. You don't cost that much, you aren't worth anything. Just sell your demonic beast cores in the market and buy me a set."

Jaime tried to reason. "This lowly slave doesn't know any market, nor dare to go to any market because this lowly slave will get bullied until he forgets his mother and father face."

The woman threw a jade charm at him that had the writing 'third Bamboo Peak' on it. "The market is in the middle of Double Moon Sect, if anyone dares to bully you, just show it to them. I will castrate them. Next week when I come out of my cave, I want to find my new set of ceramic!"

"Beautiful sister, it isn't good to follow your desire. Find your life's purpose in happiness, not desire. Wanting a ceramic set is a shameful desire. A beauty should not want any ceramic set, nor have the desire, so you can cultivate smoothly. I am saying this because I care about my beautiful sister."

“You know, you are funny. Your birdie is a source of desire, do you want this sister to help remove it for you?” The woman glanced at the Jaime’s lower body.

“Sister will have a set of ceramic in a week!” Jaime humbly bowed. One without power could only blame their own bad luck.

Jaime didn’t need to ask anyone about the market place’s location. He exchanged a few of his mental energies in the Book of Karma to get the information.

Near the gate of Bamboo Peak a chilling sound hit Jaime’s back like thunder.

“Where do you think you are going?”

Jaime found no one but still bowed down humbly. “This lowly slave was giving a task by a beautiful goddess to buy a ceramic set at the market.” He took out the jade.

“Third senior sister?” The voice was silent for a while. “You may go, but remember to buy a set for me too.”

Jaime’s face became very ugly, the frustration really tasted very sour. “I want to talk about desire. Having desire....”

“What does desire have to do with having your head?”

“Hu Hai I had given you an offering, you better find these two ancestors in hell and bully them! They bully your brother here!”

Jaime wanted to cry but he couldn't. Even the dumbest housewife would stop shouting in front of her angry husband, even if that bastard cheated her badly, because she would only invite the black and blue. She would let her husband sleep first, then castrate him. Well, maybe giving him poison in his dinner is also agreeable.

In the Double Moon Sect's market, Jaime made his way to a very big road with a large number of people busy buying or selling. Lots of bargaining and shouting could be heard. There were shop signs on some wooden huts, but mostly sellers just laid their mats down and put down whatever garbage they had and sold them as treasures along the street.

Jaime visited a vendor and met an old man seller. “Honest seller, this lowly one wants to sell two demon beast cores.” He showed the jade. “How much is it priced?”

The old guy sneered. “Those two cores are from low rank demonic beast. Even if you throw it on the street, no one will bother to take it. But giving face to the Third Inner Disciples of Bamboo Peak, I will take both for two spiritual stones.”

Hearing that answer, Jaime determined that the seller didn't cheat him, because they really gave face to the inner disciples. Jaime took the two small spiritual stones. Seems like the currency used in this place was spiritual stone. The stones are only the size of a thumb but they were filled with Heavenly and Earth energies or spiritual energy which would benefit the cultivators.

[Spiritual stone is a stone which has been nurtured by heavenly and earth energies for at least ten thousand years and contains a lot of spiritual energies inside. One spiritual stone in this place equals to 100 taels of gold or 10,000 taels of silver. One spiritual stone with proper cultivation would be able to bring a normal human to the door step of the Elementary Realm. This stone is widely used as currency for cultivators of spiritual energy.]

He walked around the market checking every item on sale. He discovered people selling talismans, weapons, books, and some broken stuff. Passing the crowded stall, he heard the seller shouting. “These pills were made by Violet Peak Division. Like all of us know the best pills makers in the whole Double Moon Sect are inside the fourth division! Overseen by Elder Jie and Grandmaster Xhu. I promise none of these pills will make you disappointed. Get it before it run out. Healing pills [White Flower pill] only 25 stones each, Strengthen pills [Heaven Ox pill] 40 stones, Cleaning meridian pills [Cloud Mist pill] 1,000 stones, Junior Realm breakthrough pills [Winged Horse Pill] 1,500 stones, Senior Realm break through pills [First Dragon pill] 3,000 stones!”

“This [First Dragon] pill will make sure you become a dragon among man! Becoming an inner disciple or even a core disciple and quickly boosting your cultivation to Senior Realm! Stock is limited, only 10 [First Dragon] pills appear once a year and only 5 will be sold! You are lucky to find it today. Come, come...” People with no money could only silently pass the stalls. Heads held high up, showing no need for those pills attitude, yet inside they were bleeding and demanding for those pills.

At last after wandering for a few minutes, Jaime found what he needed the most; a ceramic seller.

“What price is a set of ceramic?” Jaime asked an old man while pointing to a ceramic mug, plate, glass, and pot.

“100 spiritual stones for a set.”

“Fk! Make it one spiritual stone for a set. I’ll take two sets. Here are two spiritual stones.”

“Do you think your father runs the Double Moon Sect!” The seller immediately became angry and hit the stall table.

“No! But this jade owner thinks her father runs Double Moon Sect!” Jaime threw the jade at the seller.

The seller looked at the jade and laughed loudly “Third inner disciples of Bamboo Peak, don’t scare me. Don’t think that you can rob me by showing this jade.”

Jaime frowned because that jade robbed him flat.

“Go back and tell her, ‘Screw her daddy’! This grandfather is a core disciple, how could I be scared by some random inner disciple! I have a higher position inside this sect.”

Back in Bamboo Peak, a sound without shadow shouted as Jaime when he stepped on the gate.

“Where is my ceramic set?”

“A set of ceramic cost 100 spiritual stones! I don’t have it. Give me the spiritual stones and I will buy it for you.”

“How much did third senior sister give you?”

Jaime angrily shouted. “She gave me nothing except this jade. But this jade couldn’t buy anything nor scare anyone.”

“When will third senior sister receive her ceramic set?”

“Next week!”

“Then I will give you nothing and will get my ceramics set next week!”

“I think if you can’t give third senior sister the ceramic set, she will castrate you and roasted it. I am different; I will be kind to you and only take your eyes out.”

That kind of kindness was the last thing Jaime wanted from this world!

Chapter 4: Xiao Yun

“I am the almighty hunter! This whole jungle is mine! All the animals and demonic beasts bow to me!” Jaime ran for his life. Four demonic beasts were chasing him restlessly. “Fkkkkkkkk!!!”

He jumped and two demonic beasts fell in the traps behind him. The other two kept chasing him a few more meters before they also fell into the next pitfall traps.

Without resting, Jaime jumped in to a pit, killed the demonic beasts, then sucked out their ownerless energy. His level advanced to level 21, the junior realm. These last four days, he was working like crazy. Killing as many demonic beast as he could.

With bloodshot eyes, he cut the demonic beast’s heads off and collected their core. Finishing his work, he looked around. There were fifty demonic beast carcasses. Some had already started to decay and turned smelly.

No matter how hard Jaime worked, reaching 200 stones for two sets of ceramics seemed to be impossible. He only had 50 low-level demonic beast cores that were worth 50 magic stones, even though he already worked day and night without much resting.

“I am going to die!” Jaime felt like he was going to cry. “If only I had that—whatever—pills. 1,000 magic stones for one pill. Where can I steal that pill! How can I have that pill!”

“Tringg!!!” A screen appeared in Jaime mind.

[Making pill information, exchange with 1 level, would you like to proceed?]

Jaime was speechless for a moment.

“How can I be so stupid! I can make my own pills! Damn... my stupid brain!” Honestly, he never thought about making pills. Because he was under pressure and only thought about how to hunt 200 demonic beasts these past four days. In his previous life, he almost never got threaten or was in danger for his life. Now, under life and death pressure, he was stressed, shocked, and forgot to be calm and use his brain.

“Cancel the first order, I want the information and experience of the greatest pill maker ever!”

By the time the book of Karma finished it's process, Jaime eyes had already rolled to the very bottom of the list.

[4590. The third generation of the self proclaimed best chef in the world. Son of the self proclaimed best medical chef in the world, studied how to make pills by using herbs and demonic beasts. He is the self proclaimed greatest grandmaster pill maker of the world. Exchange with 10 levels and 100 mental energies]

This is how I will more likely get rich soon and get two set of ceramics.
“Got it.”

Suddenly Jaime gained the information and experience about making many kinds of pills. He lived 150 years as a grandmaster pill maker in second. He stood and laughed hysterically before suddenly collapsing. He fell asleep before he even touched the ground. He was just too tired.

In his dream, Jaime flew to the stars. He hit the king of god brutally and stomped on the king of asura. He had a very big gold crown on his head, with many jewels on his body. Thousands of beauties shouting his name in awe, making him feel so good. But suddenly, shadows came and attacked him brutally while screaming, “Set of ceramic.... give me set of ceramic... castrate you... no birdie....no eyes....!!!”

“Never!” Jaime shouted. He had his hand on a storage ring on his finger wanting to take out a sword. But instead of a sword, a horde of demonic beasts flew out the ring and chased after him.

“Ceramic.... castrate... no birdie!!!!”

Looking around, Jaime saw the dark forest filled with a silver light. Today was a full moon, so the moonlight was so bright that it made everything look clear. Suddenly the rotten carcass smell hit Jaime’s nose and made him swear again. “If only I can throw it in to the valley.”

Moving the demonic beast carcass that weighed over a ton from a hole was not easy. It would be easier to throw the earth in to the hole and bury them. But Jaime felt sad about the meat. “It would be easier if I had a storage ring like in my dream.”

“Book of karma, give me the skills and experience of making storage rings and space rings, or a cosmos pouch maker. The greatest space maker ever!”

There were thousands on the list that the book of karma gave. The top of list was the God of Space’s experience that needed to be exchange with 10,000 levels and 1,000,000 mental energies. But the ring made by the God of Space could contained a whole planet.

So Jaime moved to the very bottom of the list.

[1219. Forth generation of the self-proclaimed best chef in the world. Son of the self-proclaimed greatest grandmaster pill maker in the world. In his lifetime, he was the most talented person that only appear one in one thousand years. He studied about symbols, formations, array transformations, and laws of space. Self-proclaimed as the greatest symbolist in the world. Exchange with 15 levels and 1500 mental energies.]

“I’ll take it!”

Jaime’s level dropped to level one. After experiencing the 140 year life time of the greatest symbolist, he then knew how to make a storage ring or a cosmos pouch. He could make one and use it to contain the demonic beast carcasses. From what he knew, anything inside the storage ring, which was a space rift, will stop in time.

“Lets quickly make one!” High spirited, Jaime moved his hand but suddenly his face changed color. “I won’t be able to make any bags of cosmos if I don’t have great mental energy. I must at least reach level 10 or Elementary Realm to make the lowest grade of storage pouch. Damn it!” He felt regret for a moment but killed that feeling.

Only a stupid person wastes his time to regret when his girlfriend had already gotten pregnant. He just needs to marry her and be a good father, end of discussion. If there was something to regret, regret that you did it too late. You should have made your father and mother happy as soon as possible then give them grandchildren while they are still young. Before they die of old age.

The only time you need to be smart is when you choose who to get pregnant. Only choose a beautiful girl, a kind-hearted, a rich one and an only child in her family so she inherits all of her family’s fortune. If her father is already in his sickbed, then it is much better to plant the seed ASAP. If you do the opposite, be a man and take responsibility. [You can die without it for all I care]

Since he already woke up and wasn’t tired, Jaime decided to wash his body in the river. He hadn’t washed for a week. Near the river he removed all of his clothes and jumped in to the river.

“Tomorrow, this king will make his first set of pills!” It was just a wishful dream, because he wouldn’t be able to make any pills without proper strength or at least be at level 8. He needed to hunt those demonic beasts again tomorrow until he had a proper level.

He dived in the river and swam around. He was so happy to be released from the pressure and played more. Feeling refresh Jaime was suddenly shocked and shouted loudly. He found a girl in front of him.....

Naked!!?!

A young lady who possessed a peerless beauty. She had dark long hair and ivory skin. An absolute Goddess-like beauty at a catastrophic level that made heavens pale in color while dulling the moon. This kind of beauty could not be described and explained.

The eyes of the young lady locked on Jaime. She didn't speak and her face looked emotionless.

"Are you a river goddess? A wandering spirit? Or a human?" Jaime looked at the dream like beauty. Under the moonlight it gave the illusion that she was never a human. She didn't answer as Jaime looked at her naked body.

"You know when you stare at me like that," added Jaime. "I feel ashamed." He covered his birdie with his hand and lowered his body under the river then moved to the bank of the water.

The girl kept watching Jaime without any reaction.

Jaime ran out of the river and took his clothes. He glanced at the frozen girl and ran to forest while shouting, "You pervert."

Wearing his clothes hurriedly, Jaime ran with all his might. He already checked that girl's information with the book of karma.

[Xiao Yun, 14 years old. Level 29, peak of Junior realm, a half step to senior realm. Bamboo Peak disciple number 21.]

This girl was the highest level disciples he ever saw in bamboo peak, even the third senior sister was only at level 25. Not to mention this Xiao Yun was still young and very talented. She must be special. Jaime ran for his life before that girl came to...

A shadow flashed and a cold sword appeared out of nowhere and stopped at Jaime's neck. He didn't dare move a single finger.

"I am sorry I never intend to peek at anything."

The girl had put on black clothes and appeared in Jaime vision. Her eyes looked a little curious.

"I am a slave of bamboo peak, I make food and wash your clothes everyday. Please forgive me, I never knew that you were there."

The girl's eyes look determined and the sword moved wanting to cut Jaime's neck. Seemed like slaves really had no reason for living here.

"Wait! Wait! I am not a slave for real. I am the future king of three realms. But now I am here because I need to save you."

The sword stopped.

“Your name is Xiao Yun right? I knew it before I asked you, because God sent me to help a beauty like you. To make your heart feel the love...”

The sword moved.

Book of Karma give me something, anything that will help me save this neck!

Suddenly the girl's naked body flashed and the book of karma sent information. “Wait.. wait... your body has too much Yin Energy and it is causing problems to your health. Every night when the full moon comes, you feel like thousands of fire ants attack all of your meridians. This is already the fifth month you felt this pain. If you do not get treated soon, the thousand ants will attack your brain and make you become crazy.”

Xiao Yun eyes trembled for a second.

Jaime already recieved the experience and information about medical knowledge. He only needs a simple glimpse of the girl's body and he could determine the problem. But of course the last diagnosis was a lie. He just tried to make it sound scary to save his life.

“Only I can help you. Curing your sickness and solving your bottleneck problem. I know you already tried to reach Senior realm but failed because of that bottleneck.” Jaime put his most sincere face. “Believe me, God knew your pain and misery so he sent me away to save you.”

It was silent for a long time and only nocturnal sounds could be heard.

“Then do it now!”

Jaime’s face turned pale. “You know, I was just kicked out by God and landed here from the moon. After meeting you and seeing your body, I already knew your problem. All I need now is to take breath and collect some medicine to treat your health. It needs time. If you can give me a month, no.. a year, I can help you.”

“A week!” said Xiao Yun coldly and then she left.

After being silent for a long time, Jaime could finally breath again and shouted, “Your grand nanny! When you said a week do you think I must follow your command? A week to treat you! Fk I will never treat you.”

A shadow flashed and Xiao Yun appeared again in front of Jaime. She was full of killing intent.

Jaime bowed humbly. “Next week in this place, this humble person will have a senior realm breakthrough pill and Yin Energy pill to cure young misses yin problem. Relax, this lowly person is sent by God to help miss Xiao Yun to achieve happiness in this life.”

Xiao Yun body trembled and showed a conflict in her mind before she disappeared again.

Chapter 5: Ugly Bitch

“Here, I am happy~~ There, I am happy Wherever I am, my heart always feels happy~~” Jaime was running speedily and humming while being chased by a demonic beast. He made a jump and the demonic beast fell into the pitfall-trap. “Fk! Like I am going to be happy in this place being a slave, all day long being chased by stupid demonic beasts.”

This feeling was like a neighborhood beauty having an affair with someone else but then her husband knocks at your door, drags you out, beats you to a pulp and sends you to jail without justice. In that small shitty room, the priest comes and say, “Be happy... imagine this small room as a paradise, even if your body is confined, you still can let your heart be happy. Forgive him and free yourself from hate and anger...”

Well, you can do whatever you want to do with the priest. Anyway you are already in jail.

Jaime looked at the sky and checked his biological clock, it's already 16:00, the market closes around 18:00. He had reached level 10, Elementary Realm, by killing around eight demonic beasts. It was time for him to buy some ingredients to make pills, a cauldron and some herbs.

Jaime sighed; working hard was truly very tiring. Besides being hunted by demonic beast, he also had to deliver those 28 pig's food and water. It's okay though, every parent would like their son to work hard when they grow up. Working hard and not getting paid was okay too. Some parents would say, ‘Keep working hard and don't give up. Your luck is just not good yet. Someday you will be rich and successful. Everything will be beautiful at that time.'

Self-pity and self-comfort is the best thing in the world.

The moment he walked out of the gate of bamboo peak, a silhouette flashed and stopped him. The cold girl stood like a stone, she was wearing a black veil to cover her face.

"You dare to run away!" The killing intent was so thick, causing Jaime to pour cold sweat. Xiao Yun had already regretted letting Jaime escape with his life.

"No... No... No... Please believe me, I just want to go to the market and buy things to make pills for you. I don't have a cauldron and herbs with me right now. Even if I have three legs, I won't dare run away from you. I was already searching for you for thousands of years. This man may run because of a demonic beast, but I will never run away from you before making you happy."

Xiao Yun stared coldly. "I will follow you."

At the market, Jaime felt an ice-cold chill at his back wherever he moved. He took out 58 demonic beasts and sold them for 58 spiritual stones. Then he entered a shop that had the sign, "Millions herbs".

A short old woman full of wrinkles stared at Jaime and coldly said. "What do you want?"

"I want a cauldron, the cheapest in this shop."

Silence for a long moment, Jaime suddenly knelt.

“Please just kill me; I can’t endure this hardship in life anymore.” His eyes full of tears. “I just want 200 spiritual stones for two ceramic sets, now I need 800 stones just for a cauldron, in two days I will die. Please just kill me, save me from this shitty world.”

“Young boy! Have your parents never taught you not to be a shame to the world! It is better for a man to shed floods of blood than to shed a drop of a tear. Better die than being humiliated” The old lady yelled angrily. “You piece of shit!”

“My parents are already dead, leaving me nothing but wise words. A man is better to shed floods of tears than shed a drop of blood! Better be humiliated than being killed! Life is the most important in this world!”

The old lady was stuck dumbfounded, hesitantly said, “You will live a very long life young boy. If only my husband, my son and my grandson would think like you. They wouldn’t die young...” Her face showed a deep feeling of regret.

“I will die....”

Xiao Yun moved to the old lady and threw thirty medium size spiritual stones. Each of them have a value of 100 small spiritual stones, so it was around 3,000 spiritual stones. “Buy what you need.”

In Jaime's eyes, Xiao Yun's body suddenly shone very brightly. "You are an angel of my heart, my life saver. A future wife of..."

The killing intent suddenly spread out so Jaime closed his mouth quickly.

"Old lady, this lowly slave of miss Xiao Yun also wants Blood ginseng, Flame heart leaf, Yin Moon Flower, lots of Dragon fruit seeds ..." Jaime asked for about thirty more herbs, making the old lady a little confuse.

"Are you going to make a healing pill, strengthen pill, and a Yin pill?" She had been a shop owner for near fifty years, she knew every herb's effect. But she was at a lost with some of the herbs she didn't know the effect of. "People only look for dragon fruit because it is the most important ingredient to making the [First Dragon pill] to break through the Senior Realm bottleneck. Ten dragon fruits can make one pill of the First Dragon pill. But only a few hundred of dragon fruits can be harvested each year. That is why only ten first dragon pills appear in a year. The seeds of the Dragon Fruit are useless because it is very hard and no one knows what it can be used for. Why do you need these things?"

Jaime wanted to laugh. From the great grandmaster pill maker's experience, he knew that the most important thing from dragon fruit is not the meat, but the seed. That dragon fruit grew like demonic beasts, having their own beast core. The Dragon Fruit seed is not the real seed but its core. One seed could be made into ten first-grade dragon pills. But of course, the way to extract the seed is top-secret.

Jaime put on a stupid face in front of the old lady.

“Who will make the pill? You or the miss over there?” asked the old lady knowing she asked the wrong person.

“This lowly slave only doing chores for Bamboo Peak inner disciples.”

“Alright, tell them, if they succeed in making pills, this shop will be happy to buy it at the market price.” The old lady took care of the order. “The total price is 5,700 spiritual stones.”

Jaime turned his face to Xiao Yun. “You know I don’t have money. When I finished the pills I will pay you back with 5% Interest.” Jaime thought that Xiao Yun was very rich, so he put orders for making a lot of pills and space storage pouches too. He would take any opportunity while he could.

“Don’t have anymore. That was the last of my savings.” Xiao Yun coldly answered, causing Jaime to be frozen. Xiao Yun looked at Jaime and sighed. She threw a jade bottle to the old woman.

“A First Dragon Pill! It is priced at about 3,000 stones at the market place. I will take it for 2,900 stone. So you will still have 200 stones left.”

Jaime looked at the real pill in the old lady’s hand. He couldn’t hold himself back. He grabbed the First Dragon pill in the old lady hand and sniffed it.

The old lady hit Jaime's hand and sneered. "This is the real First Dragon pill. How can a lowly slave like you know the value of this pill!"

He knew it because of his grand master pill's experience. He had made a lot off first dragon pills and sold them like fried peanuts. The First Dragon pill in the old lady hand only had 1/10 of the real First Dragon pill's affects. Suddenly, Jaime understood what must have happened. The real First Dragon pill is usually used for Senior Realm's disciples to reach the True Human realm. But here, their first dragon pill is used for Junior Realms to reach the Senior Realm. Making 100 First Dragon pills will only need one dragon seed. Jamie looked at the one hundred dragon seeds and smiled.

I am rich, baby!

"Do you have any food ware ceramic sets? I want to take two sets." Jaime added. Xiao Yun coldly stared at him. "You know miss. When making pills, one's heart has to be pure and have no distraction. With having two set of ceramics, my heart will only be thinking about you and your health."

Xiao Yun suddenly felt an urge to kill Jaime but turned around and walked out of the store. Back at Bamboo Peak, Jaime hid all the items he bought in Xiao Yun's cave. Luckily Xiao Yun was one of the most talented Bamboo Peak disciples; she owned her own yard and cave which was far from the other disciple's caves.

"Miss, this lowly slave only needs one more thing to complete everything." Jaime smiled at Xiao Yun. "I need a fire elemental beast which at least on the elementary realm. I need to extract their fire element to make fire for making pills. A fire fox is enough.”

“Hunt it by yourself!”

“Miss, I asked because I can’t do it. You know I am only at the early elementary realm. Most fire elemental beasts are fast and have high intelligence. I won’t be able to hunt them alive. Please, with your level, it is very easy to capture one of them alive. If you insist on my death, I will go and find some beasts to eat me.”

Xiao Yun said no more and walked out of the cave.

Jaime smirked and took out a jade bottle labeled as Dragon Ink. This ink was made with low ranking dragon blood, herbs and a demonic beast core. It was very effective for drawing formations. He drew a cycle formation on his stomach near his dantian, the place to collect earth and heavenly or spiritual energy in his body.

Finishing the formation cycle, he poured his mental energy and spiritual energy into the formation and the symbols inside started moving in a circle faster and faster. The formation shined then disappeared. Checking his dantian, Jaime could feel a space near it.

He walked to a flat ground and drew a big formation cycle on the ground. Nearly one hour later Xiao Yun came back. Throwing a big bird at Jaime, she walked into the cave while saying nothing.

Jaime checked the fire bird. The bird was a fire elemental beast, but its level had already reached the junior realm.

*Sh*t, I asked for an elementary realm's beast! How can I control a Junior Realm's beast!*

Hesitating for a moment, Jaime clenched his fist and tied the bird in the middle of the ground formation.

“It will be do or die!” Jaime poured his mental and spiritual energies into the formation then made the symbol inside active. The bird screeched with pain as the symbol started to ram on its body. The fire element essence was sucked out from the bird's body and flew into the small formation inside Jaime's dantian. It caused Jaime to feel like his body was burning. All of his meridians, meat, and bones were boiled by the fire element essence.

Soon he fainted because of the intense pain, but the process did not stop. The big formation symbols kept squeezing the fire element essences out of the bird's body and pushing it forcefully into Jaime's dantian.

The progress had been running for four hours, until the all of the fire element essences was gone from the bird. Inside the space near Jaime's dantian, there was a core of fire which kept burning.

He fainted for the rest of the day. When he woke up, his body still felt warm. With the sensation of burning in his stomach, he knew that he succeeded. At night, Jaime made a big fire inside of Xiao Yun's cave. He put the cauldron on the fire and started to refine some herbs. “Today is still a full moon, the moon essences will help to refine Yin Meridian pills.”

Xiao Yun was sneakily watching Jaime work. After five hours, drenched with sweat, Jaime succeeded in making 30 small pills of low-grade Yin Meridian energy pills. With the experience of the greatest grandmaster pill maker, he easily controlled the fire, the herbs, and his mental energy when processing the pills. Truthfully, he even could do it while sleeping. Making low-level pills, for him, is like boiling eggs. Yet, his low level is killing him.

“You should eat 3 pills of Yin Meridian pills every day and cultivate. The Yin meridian pills will help you to eliminate the Yang energy that runs amok in your meridians. After a week, the Yang energy should be cleaned out and at that time you can start cultivating with the First Dragon pill to break through the Senior Realm’s bottleneck. I will make sure the pills will be ready before next week.”

Xiao Yun took the pills and moved to a deeper part of the cave, which had a smaller private cave. She started her cultivation while Jaime passed out just like that. His mental energy totally ran out and he had already used up all of his energy to create the pills with his low level.

I will need to hunt more demonic beasts to raise my level to make my work smoother.

“So you delivered the ceramic set?” Third senior sister named Xia Xia glared at Jaime like a snake staring at a rat.

”Yes, with miss’s prayer this lowly servant hit a big luck and successfully got a ceramic set for miss.”

“How much did it cost?”

“It cost 100 spiritual stones.”

“How can you obtain it?”

“This lowly slave without thinking of his own safety and only thinking the happiness of miss, wrecked a war with a hundred demonic beasts. This one won the war and sold the cores to buy the ceramic set.”

“Hahaha....” Xia Xia laughed happily. “Do you think this miss is a new-born baby? Stupidly believing in your dirty mouth? Tell me the truth or I will kill you right now.”

“The slave was with an angelic heart, goddess of kindness Miss Xiao Yun. She knew my hardship and decided to lend me money to buy a ceramic set.” Jaime quickly knelt.

“That frozen stone?” Xia Xia shocked. “You dare lie to me! If I don’t kill you now I am not Xia Xia!”

Xia Xia moved her foot hurried and kicked Jaime’s chest. The poor guy’s body flew eight meters back and hit the ground. He threw up a mouthful of blood. It was really painful and for a second Jaime’s eyes flashed with anger but quickly turned back to normal.

“This lowly servant won’t dare to lie by using Miss Xiao Yun name. Miss Xia Xia can directly ask Miss Xiao Yun.” He tried to kneel.

“So you are in good term with that frozen stone.” Xia Xia showed a cruel smile. She never liked Xiao Yun. Before that girl came, she was the number one most talented girl disciple and the most beautiful in Bamboo Peak. When Xiao Yun came, everything changed. Elder Fan gave more attention to Xiao Yun, and ignored Xia Xia. The other inner disciples also tried to attract that frozen stone attention. That girl even had an higher cultivation than her. Xia Xia just reached level 26. Xiao Yun is 5 years younger than her but was already in a half step into the senior realm. “Do you want your life or not.”

“I want you to steal Xiao Yun’s First Dragon pill!” Elder Fan was supposed to give Xia Xia that pill, before Xiao Yun appeared, but the pill fell into Xiao Yun’s hand.

“Er, I am not that close with her for me to be able to possibly steal her stuff.” Anyway the pill had already been sold.

“You useless.... “ Xia Xia threw a small bag at Jaime. “When you deliver food for junior little sister Xiao Yun, put that thing inside her food. You only need to put it in little by little for a month.”

“What is this?”

“That is a good seasoning for little sister and helps her cultivation. She will be happy, but keep it as a secret between us.”

Jaime checked the small bag and suddenly something popped out in his mind. “Tasteless Bone poison!”

He spoke very softly but it entered Xia Xia’s ears.

“So you knew what that thing was. Who are you? Are you sent by Xiao Yun to spy on me?” Xia Xia killing intent rose and made Jaime feel suffocated.

“No, I am not.”

“So will you put that seasoning in Xiao Yun food?”

Jaime was stuck in a dilemma. He may be a coward and had no honor, but he didn’t care for that stuff nor did he put it in his eyes. Yet he knew one thing, whoever does good deeds to him, he will return tenfold. Whoever does evil deeds to him, he will return tenfold too.

He stood up majestically and didn’t show any weakness or a self-ridiculous pose. He threw the poison bag at Xia Xia’s face. “Ugly bitch! You can eat that poison by yourself!”

Even if he was a lowly slave at level 10 and will face a level 26 disciple, Jaime didn’t show any fear.

“You will die, pig!” Xia Xia clenched her fist.

“Who do you think you are? You want me die so I will die? Fk your granny. You are the worst ugly bitch. Every time I talked to you, I wanted to vomit because of your ugly face. You smell like shit and this...” Jaime took the ceramic set and smashed it. “I dare you to kill me Bitch! Come on!!!”

Xia Xia exploded with anger. She had never in her lifetime had a person dare to throw worst words at her, right in front of her face. “Die!!!!” Xia Xia used all her power to give a one hit kill. “Double moon fist crush the mountain!”

Chapter 6: Zhou Wei launches attack

“I am a natural-born slayer of the women’s hearts ~~~, the knight in shining armor that a thousand beauties dream of~~ If you don’t believe me, look at how crazy this girl is chasing me! Wanting my only heart~~” Jaime was running away wildly, while Xia Xia was closing in.... chasing Jaime’s only heart madly.

A few minutes ago, when Xia Xia launched her most powerful attack at Jaime, the lowly slave threw dust in her face and shouted. “Bone poisoning dust attack!” It never crossed Xia Xia mind that Jaime, who was already dead meat in her eyes, would launch a shameful attack. The dust hit her eyes and she missed her attack.

Jaime turned around quickly and escaped for his life. Under normal conditions he would never do such a reckless move! But that crazy girl already left him with no way out.

“Following her wish will only lead me to my death, not following is death too. Better chose the best way to death. Spit at her face and die peacefully!”

He clearly understood, poisoning Xiao Yun isn’t easy. Xiao Yun definitely would kill him. His only hope now was to run as fast as he could, because 200 meters from Xia Xia’s cave was Xiao Yun’s cave. If he could get to that place before Xia Xia could catch him, he may be able to keep his heart.

“You dare to poison me and run! I will eat your heart!” Xia Xia was chasing him blindly. Jaime's training with demonic beast showed results in his legs. He ran like the wind, giving Xia Xia a little headache. "You think you can run away from me!"

Jaime knew 200 meters was really close, but at this time it felt so far away. Xia Xia was closing the gap really quickly and launching attacks. Jaime turned to the left to avoid her blind attack. They were already 50 meters from Xiao Yun's cave.

"Miss Xiao Yun, someone here wants to poison you and kill your husband. Quickly go out and kill her!" Jaime shouted with his entire breath.

Xia Xia was shocked and stood still at her place. She never believed that lowly slave would dare bring her to the Xiao Yun's cave. If she knew he would go to Xiao Yun's cave, she would have used all of her strength to kill that lowly human. Alas her eyes couldn't see where she was going.

Using that moment of Xia Xia's uncertainty, Jaime snuck inside of Xiao Yun's cave and didn't dare to move out! Xia Xia also didn't dare to continue her chase. She was simply confused. She didn't know if Xiao Yun will protect that slave.

And husband....?

Xia Xia laughed, that slave seemed that he wanted to be a lucky fisherman by forcing them to fight each other. Even if that slave told Xiao Yun that she wanted to poison her, who would believe a slave. She just needed to deny it.

“Xiao Yun! A slave runs into your cave. He threw dirt on my face. I have to kill him. Please kill him for me or kick him out.” The Bone Poison that Jaime threw on her before turned out to be normal earth dust. She was angrily swearing to chopped Jaime into a million pieces.

Inside the cave, Jaime saw Xiao Yun waking from her meditation. She asked nothing, just glanced at Jaime and walked out. Outside the cave, without saying anything to her, she flashed to Xia Xia's spot. Still not saying anything, her hand moved and slapped Xia Xia really hard.

Xiao Yun slapped Xia Xia's face hard again.

Xiao Yun's foot moved swiftly and kicked Xia Xia. Making Xia Xia fly twenty meters back, spilling out a mouthful of blood.

“What are you doing to me? I am your senior sister! I will tell Master Fan!”

“Silence! You bother me! Step away from my place!” Xiao Yun turned around and left Xia Xia alone. Inside the cave she just glanced at Jaime and went back to her meditation. Jaime peeked out of the cave, his eyes locked with Xia Xia eyes.

Jaime raised his middle finger to Xia Xia and spoke slowly and softly.

“You ugly Bitch, go to hell!” Xia Xia heard it and again spilled a mouthful of blood because of anger. She really wanted to cook that little monkey alive.

Jaime knew his place; it was to live only in Xiao Yun’s cave. He didn’t dare to move out from Xiao Yun place even a single step. He ignored all of his work to feed the 27 pigs, and focused all his attention to make more pills. Healing pills are his aim, for a person scare to die like him, they were a must have pills.

Every time he succeeded in making pills, he would faint for a half a day. He was inside Xiao Yun’s cave for a week. He made 100 First Dragon pills, 50 Strengthen pills and 200 healing pill. The strengthen pill he made was [Thousand Horse pill]; it was three times better than [Heavenly Ox pill]. As for the healing pills, he made [Heaven Drop pill], it is five times better than [Whiter Flower pill].

As for the [Frist Dragon pill] he only used one Dragon Fruit’s seed to created 100 low-level [Frist Dragon pills] which were like the pill sold at Double Moon market.

In his free time, Jaime made a space storage pouch. He cut a soft demonic beast’s skin as big as two hands. He then drew complex looking symbols and formations in the middle of it. In his mind, he already had information and experience in making space storage pouches. He even could make the pouch with his eyes closed. But his problem was his low-level and insufficient spiritual and mental energies.

Working half a day without rest, he tried to squeeze every ounce of his energy to make one space storage pouch. Unlike normal storage pouches with space of 5-10 meter cubic inside the small pouch, Jaime only succeeded in making a space storage pouch with 2 meter cubic space inside. The space inside the pouch wasn't even stable and could only hold for two or three months. Usually, normal storage pouch will last for thousands of years.

All of this was caused by his low-level, low mental, and spiritual energies.

In those few days Xiao Yun had succeeded in cleaning out her wild Yang's energy, which were usually rampaging and causing her in pain. She completely drove them out from her meridians.

Now she wanted to break through the bottle neck of the Senior Realm. Jaime gave her 10 [First Dragon] pills, 10 strengthen pills, 20 healing pills, and he kept the rest for himself.

Even after throwing out all of his daily work, Jaime didn't find other disciples daring to make a move and trying to take his head. Most of them knew what happened between Xiao Yun and Xia Xia. For now, they only could ignore Jaime. Since that slave was taken by the most talented disciple of Bamboo Peak, no one dare to complain.

But a new problem occurred; Jaime didn't have enough food with him. Xiao Yun didn't need food as much as him. She was a cultivation junkie. When Xiao Yun meditates, she didn't eat anything and even when she went out to eat, she never brought back any food for Jaime.

He felt so hungry sitting there with all his belongings in his storage pouch that were not food. He patiently waited for the night to come so he could sneakily hunt food. As the nocturnal animals started singing, he woke up and in the middle of the night, he quickly made his way to the river where he laid his fish traps down. Believing that Xia Xia was already being a sleeping beauty, he only needed a few minutes to pack all the fishes into his pouch.

At that time a pair of eyes looked at Jaime running in the forest and smiled. “You are out at last! It’s time to collect your bones!” The shadow let Jaime go far away from Bamboo peak, far from Xiao Yun’s detection.

Jaime jumped in the river; quickly he took out the fish traps out from the water.

“Hey slave!”

Jaime was shocked, his heart jumped out and turned back. “Xia Xia?”

The shadow walked closer.

“This lowly slave was cleaning the cave and the bushes around the cave.” Jaime walked backward; he could feel that Zhou Wei wanted to do something really bad to him. “I worked really hard to clean the cave floor; even flies would get a sprained leg when they land on the floor.”

“You’re a cockroach! Dare to hang around Xiao Yun! It’s already enough for you to die a hundred times!”

“Brother, as I know, we are here for peeking at Xiao Yun’s body.” A Fatty hiding in the bushes stared at the river. “But, seem like we will watch Bamboo Peak’s disciples killing each other because of Xiao Yun!”

“He is Zhou Wei, a nephew of Elder Fan and the most talented disciple before Xiao Yun. I heard he is Xiao Yun diehard lover. Quickly run, if he knows we are here for peeking at Xiao Yun’s body, we will die for sure!” A skinny boy face paled. “We should go now!”

“We really have no luck, since two months ago Xiao Yun always takes a bath at night weekly, but has already been two weeks. She didn’t show up. Let’s run! We are too weak to face Zhou Wei, even hundreds of us will only be like chickens facing a lion.” Four people moved out from their hidden spot and escaped quickly.

Zhou Wei heard something from the nearest bushes and yelled. “Whose there! Get out here or this granddaddy will kill you!” He has putting all of his senses on high alert since the beginning, because he was really scared that Xiao Yun would rush to help Jaime. He didn’t want to be the second Xia Xia.

“Xiao Yun, I already told you! Our traps will surely catch whoever wants to kill me. This time not Xia Xia but Zhou Wei! Please kill him. He wants to kill me, your lover! Your future husband!”

Zhou Wei glared at Jaime who was escaping quickly, getting further and further away and became confused. Is this just a trap and Xiao Yun has already locked on him?

Zhou Wei quickly shouted to the bushes, “Junior Xiao Yun, I am not going to kill him. I’m just asking him about his work!” A few minutes later and the only answer Zhou Wei got was from a lonely owl. He was cheated!

“I will kill you slave!!!” If looks could kill, Jaime would have died a thousand times and turned into ashes. Zhou Wei flashed quickly following the river. Finally, he found Jaime struggling to swim along the river flow. Zhou Wei knew, fifty meters ahead of the river was a waterfall. Jaime will die if he fell....

Or he will live...

“Double moon fist crushes mountain!” Zhou Wei attacked with the strongest attack he knew. He had to make sure Jaime died. The attack waves hit Jaime’s back and caused the river around him to explode. Jaime shot inside the water and threw up a mouthful of blood. His rib bones broke into many pieces. He lost his consciousness while his body was taken by the river’s flow.

“Do you think you can run with your body intact?” Zhou Wei took his sword out and attacked again at Jaime’s body. “Double moon thousand swords!”

Zhou Wei sword’s attack turned in to hundreds of illusionary swords and hit Jaime’s body in the water. Jaime’s head separated from his body. His hands and legs were also all removed from his main body. Zhou Wei could see Jaime’s head fall in the waterfall, followed by his body and his separated hands and legs.

A smile hung on Zhou Wei’s face, he felt satisfied. He was a very careful person. If he wanted to kill, he will make sure his victim head separated from his body to dismiss any future trouble.

Chapter 7: Master

“When I speak, no one understands me. So I don’t speak. Therefore, people don’t need to understand me. I don’t need to understand them either. I need no one. I care for no one. I understand no one. But, why is there always a longing for someone with a warm heart to understand me.”

I am so cold here .

Xiao Yun woke up from her cultivation but her awareness couldn’t detect Jaime’s presence near the cave. “Where did he go?” Xiao Yun closed her eyes again.

“No one will come for you, because no one will ever need you.”

“When you need someone, you will only get hurt. Forget people, forget everyone. You need no one.”

“This lonely life will be your curse; you will be awake but be inside the prison of your heart. You will live and die in that heart’s prison.”

Tears fell from Xiao Yun eyes... a very soft voice could be heard... “Help me... I am not that strong.”

“Whoever lost from that Bamboo Peak disciples fight, there is a 50% possibility the winner will throw the loser’s body into the river to get rid of it. Then we can take anything from that dead body. Hopefully there will be a Double Moon’s cultivation. We really need it.” A fatty guy answered. “Look, the water exploded!”

Four people looked up as mist of water started pouring down.

“A dead body fell from the waterfall! Quickly take it before the river washes it far away!” Two people jumped into the river and swam to Jaime’s dead body. They dragged Jaime’s body slowly to the river bank. As they reach the ground, the four people checked Jaime’s body at once, competing with each other to grab the best item they could find. Surprisingly, the head, legs, and hands of Jaime were still intact with his body.

“Space storage pouch!” The skinny guy looked disbelievingly at what he had gotten. He quickly took out some jade bottles and checked the pills inside. He was shocked and started to stutter. “Lots of First Dragon pills!”

All of them were shocked and checked the jade bottle with disbelief.

“He must be a special disciple!”

“A senior!”

“He is still alive!” said Fatty suddenly.

“WHAT!?”

The four of them were shocked. Jaime suffered broken bones in many places, his skin and muscles were stabbed and he was bleeding all over his body.

“He is just like a cockroach, stubbornly hanging on to his last life.”

Without the four of them knowing, Jaime unconsciously murmured with a very soft voice, “Ye.. Xiu...” Tears fell from his eyes mixed with water and blood.

“Are we going to save him?” One small boy stupidly asked.

“How are we going to save him? We don’t have anything to save...” Fatty stopped, his eyes locked at the other jade bottle. “Are those healing pills?”

“Hundreds,” said the thin guy took out everything inside storage pouch. “And cauldron...”

The four of them became dumbfounded and shouted at the same time while looking at each other. “PILL MAKER! SUPER STRONG SENIOR! OUR MASTER!!! SAVE HIM!”

“Master woke up!”

Jaime moved his eyes and saw hundreds of people staring at him intensely, like seeing a super rare animal.

“Wooaaaaah!!! ” Jaime screamed.

“Whooooaaahhhh!!!” They shouted back in unison.

Am I still dreaming?

“Master! Your disciples show their respect to you.” All of them shouted in unison then knelt in unison. Hundreds of people were bowing to Jaime.

“Master!”

“Your disciples!”

“When did I accept you?”

“Every one of us had paid 5 spiritual stones, to first senior disciple Fatty Chen and had kowtow to master three times, while master still slept.”

“Fatty Chen?”

“You are...” Jaime didn’t recognize him.

“I am your faithful follower, the first one. A week ago, me and three brothers went to White Snake River to find herbs, we watched master’s fight with Zhou Wei. That shameful bastard used all those shameless attacks, throwing poison, initiating sneak attacks, launching secret weapons, but Master still won the fight. After that Zhou Wei called nine people for back up and ganged up on Master!”

Jaime’s eyes opened wide . “Mee...???”

All of the disciples opened their ears and listened carefully.

“After eleven people attacked together, Master started to feel a little pressure. Still, just using one hand, Master attacked them fiercely. Nine of them got injured and suddenly each of them called ten more people for back up. One hundred people swarmed master. Each of them attacked fiercely.” Fatty Chen stopped the story for a second.

Most of the disciples' faces seem tensed and some of them swore and cursed angrily. "That cheap bastard!"

"Then what happened to master?" Jaime asked.

"Master, each of them launched a thousand sword's attack at you but, you bare-handedly and personally injured ninety-nine of them!"

The disciples' eyes shone bright like stars. Some of them gave a standing ovation. Their faces showing an awe expression.

"But alas, knowing they would lose, the one last person sneaked an attack at Master's back with a secret weapon. Causing Master to fall in the waterfall. After that, the four of us quickly saved Master and brought Master here. Luckily Master had hundreds of healing pills and those pills helped bring master back to life."

Jaime stared at Fatty Chen. 'So this fatty is my life saver. Seem like they didn't know what happened while Zhou Wei chased me down. They only appeared when I fell from the water fall.' Jaime, before losing his conscious under Zhou Wei attack, sent a desperate mental energy attack to Zhou Wei's mind. That mental energy may have caused people without strong mental fortitude to see an illusion but only for 1 to 2 second.

What Jaime sent that time was an illusion of his body parts being separated under a heavy attack. He hoped that after Zhou Wei saw it, he would let Jaime go. But Jaime had lost his consciousness before knowing the effect.

Usually that sissy illusion attack wouldn't affect people like Zhou Wei, since that illusion attack is simply child's play. Most people with mental energy could launch that kind of attack to cause confusion to weaker people or normal people without cultivation or mental energy.

At that time, Zhou Wei's mental balance was in turmoil by anger and wary of Xiao Yun. Also he didn't put any energy on Jaime, because he would never think that lowly slave had the ability to attack him. The illusion quickly attacked Zhou Wei's mentality and caused an illusion. It affected Zhou Wei's brain only for 1 to 2 seconds since the attack was weak and Zhou Wei's mental energy would automatically dismiss the other mental energy. But, it was all that Jaime needed, as the illusion was dismissed, Jaime's body had fallen from the waterfall. So Zhou Wei didn't have time to check it.

Jaime let out a deep sigh. The most important thing was that he was still alive.

"You are all wrong," said Jaime shaking his head to Fatty Chen and all of the disciples. "It was not one hundred people who attacked me."

Fatty Chen's face turned so red; he had spread that story to all of the disciples for a week and took 5 spiritual stones from each of them when Jaime was still sleeping and recovering.

Jaime forced his weak body to stand up and hit his chest hard. "A man must be honest to himself so people will respect him! It was not one hundred that attacked me." Jaime raise majestically and yelled with pride . "IT'S ONE THOUSAND ENEMIES that attacked me!"

All of the disciples looked at Jaime with shining eyes and couldn't help feel their blood surging up. For now, they really thought their master was really awesome, a god-like figure, a king of all humans and an incredible cultivator.

Jaime held his head up high and roared, "I am the almighty under heaven. A future king of three realms! Killing gods, stomping demons and becoming a future king of all humans! It needs one thousand to injure me! But I killed all of the nine hundred and ninety-nine attackers. Only that coward, Zhou Wei, escaped with his tail clamped. Sooner or later, I will take his head!"

One disciple rushed to the front and knelt. "Master this lowly disciple has eaten every kind of blow, punch, kick and humiliation since the first time I put my foot here. Bullied and bullied again by Ba Khu from second division and his brothers, please teach me to fight, so I can avenge this suffering!"

"Me too, Yu Yiu from fifth division also bullied me every time he saw me. Please teach me. I am willing to do anything."

Other disciples quickly complain the same thing. Seem like there are a lot of people here being bullied.

"Rise my children!" Jaime shouted magnificently. "You are in the right hands. You have fought harshly, you have searched arduously and now you have found the right master. Your suffering time has ended. With me you will never lose again. Come with me to the promise land! Where you can beat your enemies to your fullest and turn them into pulp! Where you won't be hunted or hurt but you can hurt and hunt people you don't like. Your time has come, your heaven has arrived, believe in me my children!"

"We believe in Master!" All of the disciples knelt. "Long live the future king of the three realms! We swear our loyalty to you. We are your faithful disciples till death separates us!"

Jaime stood like a real king and start laughing hard. He felt very proud of himself and was already using his eyes to check for a way out. He must escape from these stupid disciples that take his bullshit like real gold!

How can there still be such stupid people like them!

I have said it before, blind believers with blind faith will only get schemed blindly.

Chapter 8: Defected Cultivation

“When you become a king you must think about your citizen’s health, your people’s growth and your lands fertilization. Because they are your cash cow! A healthy cow gives healthy milk. If the cow grows bigger, it gives more milk. Fertile lands will give whatever the cow needs to grow healthy and bigger. That only means more taxes!” Jaime crossed his arms and look down at Fatty Chen and his three sworn brothers. A skinny guy with a monkey face named Lu Tong, a small boy with a girly face named Zhu Bo and a handsome tall guy named Liang Xi. “I am the king and you took the taxes from them. Five spiritual stones for each disciple? Now, where is mine?”

Take the money and escape!

One glance and Jaime had known who they were. Four idiots from rich families! Each of them wearing expensive clothes, Jaime guessed they were 16 to 19 years olds, not yet twenty for sure. Jaime checked their levels. None of them had reached level 10 or the Elementary Realm. That is the only reason why those four idiots didn’t know his level. They hadn’t reached the Elementary Realm and didn’t know how to use their spiritual energy to probe the other’s identity.

Fatty Chen took out a space storage pouch and gave it to Jaime.

“Master, all of that money we collected was originally for you. We doubt that with just the four of us, you would like to teach us. So we asked the others to join hands and send bigger gifts for you, hoping you would be likely to accept us as disciples. There are 600 spiritual stones inside the storage pouch. It is not a lot but it is all we have. The pills inside, except for healing pills we used to heal Master, we dare not touch.”

“What is this place?”

Fatty Chen exchanged glances with the others. “This is the eighth division of Double Moon Sect, under Elder Huang. We are located in Rainbow Peak.”

I am still in Double Moon Sect and eighth division? They are supposed to be inner disciples, but how can their levels not even reach elementary realm.

“Why do you need me as your master? What about Elder Huang?” He can always use Book of Karma to know everything, but sometimes it is easier to ask without losing spiritual and mental energies.

“Elder Huang has been in closed cultivation for 100 years, and no one knows when he will come out from his cave.”

Jaime nodded while he started to understand the people in this universe. People learning cultivation and collecting spiritual energy into their body, usually live more than 100 years. For an Elder realm, they usually live more than 200 years.

“What about Elder Huang’s disciples? Your senior disciples, where are they?”

Fatty Chen appeared sad. “Under Elder Huang, there were five senior disciples. They were supposed to teach us. From the story I know, fifty years ago, our first senior disciples who are in the first step of True Human Realm, took a girl disciple from Violet Division and eloped. Since then he never returned. The second senior disciple became angry and went to search for the first disciple but never came back after that. From information we later received, he also eloped with first senior's little sister."

"Third senior disciple was the most talented and powerful one, he was in True Human Realm third step. Alas, Full Moon Division, the first and strongest division of Double Moon sect stole him and let him become their core disciple. Eighth division was left with the fourth and fifth senior disciples. Both of them were always like fire and water, they couldn't hold it together. Each of them wished to be the leader of the other. They gathered their supporters and fought for forty-four days and nights."

"Who was the winner?"

Lu Tong's face turned ugly. "None of them, it was the fifth division, Black Crow's division, which was led by Elder Hu. Elder hu is the mortal enemy of Elder Huang, Rainbow peak's mortal enemy. He infiltrated his power into both side and made sure both of them fought to the death. Fourth and fifth senior disciple died by sneak attack and poison. After that, no one is controlling Rainbow Peak.

The Elders from the first to seventh divisions decided to help eighth division, but the truth was, they took all the most talented and powerful disciples and left only the lowest level and the most stupid disciples."

Jaime coughed and laughed, "So all of you are the most stupid and lowest level in this whole sect?"

“No!” shouted them in unison. Fatty Chen stood and said angrily. “That happened twenty years ago. I had not even been born yet.”

“So how are you here? How could people like you, that have not even reach elementary realm, be the inner disciples? To be an Inner disciple, isn’t it a must have to be at least in the Junior Realm?” Jaime remembered that people under Elementary Realm or in the Elementary Realm usually stay outside the mountain peak as an outer disciple.

Fatty Chen faced became very red and he refused to talk.

Liang Xi the handsome answered. “Once a year, Double Moon Sect will open its door for new disciples and prepare some spots for inner disciples. At that time, thousands of people will come to try their luck to become an outer disciple. Some outer disciples will also try their luck to achieve an inner disciple’s position. The condition to be an outer disciple of Double Moon Sect is talent. Everyone must be at a least a four star or five star talent.”

Jaime suddenly laughed. “You four didn’t even reach three star talent. How could you guys have entered? Didn’t you test your talent at the door?” Jaime knew their talent from the Book of Karma.

“We are from rich families,” said Lu Tong with a sad face. “Our families needed protection from the Double Moon Sect, and were willing to pay any price to let us in. And Double Moon Sect also needs money to run their sect. We reached a mutual agreement. So, Double Moon Sect let us in and in return our families will pay annual fees and our families will have protection from Double moon.”

“Why didn’t they put you in as an outer disciple?”

Fatty Chen suddenly looked scared. “No, no, no in that place, people can easily kill an outer disciple and won’t get punish. Only killing an Inner Disciple is prohibited. So part of the agreement is that we will be inner disciples. It is for our safety.”

“But they didn’t want to teach us anything.” Zhu Bo joined. “Since Eighth division’s elder is in closed cultivation, all of the elders throw new inner disciples without talent here. So in Rainbow peak, it just like a playground for good for nothing people. No one is willing to teach us anything. After 10 years, they will just kick us out.”

“But we want to use our 10 years’ time to make our bodies strong and be useful to our families. Please teach us Master. You are Bamboo Peak’s super strong senior and pill maker, please teach us anything. Anything to make us strong and be humans,” Zhu Bo almost cried while saying that.

“I knew it! After you fought with Zhou Wei, no way Master would still be a Bamboo Peak’s disciple. Please teach us Double Moon cultivation or making pills. When we are strong enough, we will trample all of Bamboo Peak disciples to take master’s revenge.”

“It is not like that...” Jaime began to think. There were hundreds of good for nothing disciples, almost all of them are low talented, but they are loaded and have powerful family backgrounds. Using them to reach his purpose was...

Jaime flashed a devil's smile. He suddenly knew what to do with all of these people for his own good. It is time to start his first plan in conquering the world.

In the middle of Rainbow Peak's field there were a hundred and twenty disciples gathering. Rainbow Peak division had a total of 543 disciples but only 120 disciples were willing to pay and study from Jaime.

The other disciples laughed at them and thought they were so stupid, getting scammed by Fatty Chen blindly. Jaime didn't mind it because he agreed with them too; these 120 disciples practically were the most stupid from all of the disciples here.

Their desires to be strong lead them to their own stupidity.

Didn't I always say that desire is a bad thing?

"All of you could say that you are my disciples, but for now, you are not my disciples yet. All of you are not worthy to be my disciples yet. I will not be stingy by saying I only need a disciple with high talent or loaded money. All of you are equal in this life. Your birth has nothing to do with me. What I need the most is your heart!"

The 120 disciples listened carefully to Jaime's speech.

“A heart that is craving to be strong! Every one of you have a heart, it depends on how you are going to use it. I have Double Moon Sect’s cultivation here! From the very basic to the most powerful one that only legendary cultivators in ancient times could achieve! But it has nothing to do with you.”

Last night Jaime checked his Book of Karma about Double Moon Sect’s cultivation.

[Double Moon Sect’s Cultivation. Fu Gu Chai the founder of Double Moon Sect lived till the age of 569 and create his masterpiece cultivation, which is known as Double Moon Cultivation. This cultivation became the core of Double Moon Sect, it had 21 chapters. Consisting of cultivation to achieve Elementary Realm, Junior Realm, Senior Realm, Human Realm, Eldest Realm and Patriarch Realm.

Exchanged with 2 levels and 20 mental energies.]

Jaime shocked because how low the exchange needed was.

“Inspect more detail,” asked Jaime to the Book of Karma. Maybe he got the wrong Double Moon Cultivation.

[Double Moon Cultivation is used by Double Moon Sect which is based in Double Moon Mountain range, from the Dragon and Phoenix continent.

Double Moon Cultivation didn't complete the Middle Realm Martial Arts and is known as a Half Step Middle Realm Martial Art.

Middle Realm Martial Arts consist of ten small realm; Normal Human Realm (level 1-9), Elementary Realm (level 10-19), Junior Realm (level 20-29), Senior Realm (level 30-39), True Human Realm (level 40-49), Elder Realm (level 50-59), Patriarch Realm (level 60-69), King Realm (level 70-79), Emperor Realm (level 80-89), Ancestor Realm (level 90-99).

The martial arts of the three realms was divided into three levels. The first level martial arts are known as the Middle Realm Martial Arts, the weakest martial arts. Second level martial art is divided as Demigod Martial Arts and Half Demon Martial Arts. The third level and highest martial art is divided as God Realm Martial Arts and Demon Martial Arts.

Double Moon Sect's cultivation is known as a defected cultivation, because it only focuses on Yang energy which is usually only used by males. For females, to use this cultivation they would have to bear the side effect and won't be able to reach more than the True Human Realm. For females, to reach Senior Realms they would cause too many side effects, as the Yang Energy will disturb the Yin energy in female bodies.

The complete Double Moon Sect Cultivation has 21 chapters but for every Patriarch that died, one chapter followed them to the grave. The reason each Patriarch kept the last chapter to their grave, and didn't let his disciple inherit it, was because they were scared their disciple would kill them. They were scared to let their disciple be stronger than them.

Till the time Jaime arrived in the Double Moon sect, the sect had only 13 chapters left. The cultivation has no information about reaching Patriarch Realm. The cultivation is named as the 13 chapters of Holy Double Moon Cultivation.]

“So the Holy Double Moon Cultivation appears to be a piece of junk! Book of Karma, show me the best cultivation ever!”

Thousands of names appeared on the list and Jaime check the number one cultivation ever.

The Cultivation of King Rakhsasa. The Main God Brahma gave a boon to a Rakhsasa named Ravana after his meditation for 10,000 years.

That boon was the cultivation of King Rakhsasa, which was used by the king of three realms previously, Maharaja Vali. Maharaja Vali was known as the King of three realms and also the killer of god Indra, the king of all gods and goddesses. He controlled three realms for a thousand years until the Main God Vishnu took him away.

Ravana, the king of demons, also used this cultivation to trample the god realm, remove god Indra from the throne, and became the king of three realms. He only could be killed by the Main God Vishnu as Rama.

Exchanged with : 10,000 levels and 100,000 mental energies.

The cultivation of king of Deva, Indra...

“10,000 levels! Could a human ever reach that awesome level? But, if I want to be a king of three realms, I will need to have that cultivation in 100 years.” Jaime checked the lowest list and was curious what was the lowest cultivation of the best cultivation ever.

[998. Dragon and Phoenix cultivation. Fifth generation of the self-proclaimed best chef in the world, son of the self-proclaimed best symbolist of the world. His wife created a cultivation for his people from a deserted land. Together, they created Dragon and Phoenix cultivation, this cultivation has complete information to cultivate in Middle realm martial arts. This cultivation consists of Dragon cultivation for males and Phoenix cultivation for females. And has Dragon and Phoenix cultivation for male and female to cultivate together. He was self-proclaimed as the most handsome guy under heaven and presented the cultivation of Dragon and Phoenix, as a self-proclaimed best cultivation ever under heaven.

Exchanged with 20 levels and 2.000 mental energies.]

“It tenth times better than Double Moon Cultivation!”

Jaime checked his level 10. He was still a long way from achieving level 20. Speaking the truth, he really wants that cultivation. Suddenly, he smirked.

He had an idea to use all of the self-proclaimed disciples he received to the bone!

For my glory!

Chapter 9: Kiss my ass

“Before being my disciples, all of you must understand. Cultivation does not make you strong! It is just a simple tool. A sword does not make you strong! It is just a stupid thing! If you have a sword and it makes you feel strong, it is just an illusion. You are still a coward inside your heart. So if you want to be strong, you must have a strong heart first.”

“When you fight with a sword, you are strong. When you lose your sword and you use your bare hands to attack your enemy, you are stronger. When you lose both of your hands, you use your feet to attack! When you lose your feet, you use your teeth to attack! When you lose your teeth, you still use your eyes’ look to attack! You will never give up, you will never turn your back on your enemy, you will attack them no matter what! That is how you will be the strongest under heaven! Because you have a strong heart, an unwavering heart, so you will be invincible!”

Or die faster...

Most of the disciples felt their blood boil. They thought having a strong heart was awesome. For Jaime, a strong heart, weak heart, when people die, everyone is the same; all go back to the earth. But giving motivation before asking them to work for free sure was a good investment.

“I want you to show me your strong heart! I want each of you to catch and kill a demonic beast in front of me!”

The fire of motivation died in a second. All of the disciples stared blankly at Jaime.

“No way we can do it, demonic beast are at least double or triple our strength!” The disciples whispered to each other in trembling voices.

“We have no cultivation and are weak.”

“We never learned to fight before.”

“We haven’t reached elementary realms yet, most demonic beasts are in elementary realm or higher!”

Jaime stared at them. “This is the test of your heart, if you cannot do it.... Just move back, it is not because of your weak talent or weak body. It is all about your weak heart! That weakness will cause you to never be strong. Even if a god comes and bestow you all with the best cultivation ever, he won’t be able to help you if you don’t help yourself first! Your time is one week. You are hundred and twenty so hunt 120 demonic beast.”

“We can’t do it. We are doomed... it is too hard... a demonic beast...” most disciples were already scared to death.

Fk these cowardly young masters. How can they be so stupid like 1 point intelligence demonic beast? What do they eat every day! Sweet Potatoes! If I don’t help them, they won’t help me either.

“You want to be strong, but before facing a problem, you have shown your ugly heart! How can you become strong if you don’t push yourself out of your weakness! When you are weak, use your brain to kill the strong! Do you know what kill the pig mother! Its stupidity! You are a bunch of pigs, do you want to follow you mother to hell!”

“You are 120 disciples; can’t you just gang up on one demonic beast together? If you feel ashamed of using 120 to gang up on one, just make your group ten or five and start hunting one demonic beast at the time. Find the most stupid demonic beast to gang up on. Find the easiest one to bully. You can also make traps; pitfall-traps, net traps, bow traps, honey traps or sweet beauty traps. As long as each of you can kill one demonic beast in front of me, I don’t care how you are going to do it. Overcome your weakness and have a strong heart!”

Suddenly there were a lot of smile on their faces, they were young masters from rich families, and they were masters of ganging up and bullying the weak.

Jaime added his speech. “I will write down some herbs, if you can collect the herbs and give it to me in a week; you will also get cleaning meridian and blood pills. After that you can start to cultivate. The cultivation I will give you is not Double Moon Sect Cultivation. It is ten times much better than Double Moon Cultivation!”

Some of the future disciples stared at Jamie in disbelief.

“How do you think I could fight with thousands of people? The Double Moon Cultivation? Hmmm... even if I have time, I won’t cultivate that broken cultivation. Each of you, who want the complete information of Double Moon Cultivation can pay me 1,000 spiritual stones, I will give you a whole level of cultivation, from Elementary Realm straight to the Patriarch Realm. I don’t even want to waste my brain cells to keep that good for nothing cultivation information.”

The self-proclaimed Jaime's disciples couldn't help gasping for breath. Some of the people outside the self-proclaimed disciples heard it and felt interested, because 13 chapters of Holy Double Moon Cultivation are known as one of the top five best cultivation in the whole continent.

"Master." An outsider raised his voice.

"You haven't paid five spiritual stones, so you can't call me master. Just call me senior." Jaime showed an arrogant face.

"If you really have a tenth times better cultivation, can you show it to us? So we will believe you."

"Hmmm..." Jaime sneered. "Of course I can show it to you. But how much are you willing to pay me? I will consider it for 1,000 spiritual stones."

"I don't have that much money."

"Haven't your parents taught you? No money, do not talk. Hide yourself in the corner and collect your money like working ants before you start talking!"

The outsider became angry. "You speak rubbish. Your story and cultivation are all bullshit! People becoming your disciple only paid 5 spiritual stones and you asked a thousand spiritual stone from me just for a show, I am sure you are just a scammer! You can't show me anything because you have nothing!"

Jaime laughed. “Do you even know how being a master and disciple is a bond that is worth millions of gold? Eh, millions of spiritual stones? Being disciples mean they must listen to their Master. Being Master means he must give all of his best to his disciples. How can I be stingy to my future disciples? Not saying taking five spiritual stones from them, if they show a strong heart, I will even give them five thousands spiritual stones instead.”

“After being my disciples, I will teach them everything I know, not only the best cultivation; I will also teach them how to make pills, learning formations, and all my knowledge. So when they become strong, they won’t put my name to shame! When they put their name in history as the strongest martial artists, my name will be in history too! How could I be stingy to my disciples if they will make me big too! They are my blood, son, daughter, my pride, my life, and everything of mine! I will even die for them, for their glory!”

“We are your disciples, Master!” The self-proclaimed disciples yell loudly together, having knowledge of cultivation, to make pills, and formations are already too good to become true for them. But a master acknowledges them as a son and will die for their glory. They never found one before.

“Wait!” shouted Jaime. “Before accepting you as real disciples, I want you to understand what the meaning of a Master and Disciple relationship is!”

“Please enlighten us Master!”

“When a master asks you to take a beautiful lady for him, as disciple you must fulfill that request.”

“Yes we acknowledge it Master, we will bring back a beautiful lady for you right away.”

“Not one! But three!” said Jaime looked down to them. “You have to take three of the most beautiful ladies for your master!”

Many of the disciples were shocked and answered. “Please enlighten us, Master.”

“The first one is to show your obedience as a disciple. The second one is to show your loyalty and the third is...” Jaime hit his chest proudly, “is to kiss MY ASS!”

“When you kiss my ass and make me feel wonderful, I will give you everything you want. Those are the three good steps of being good disciples that you must always remember. Do you understand! When I asked you to kill my enemy, first you kill him for obedience, second you rob all his belonging and give it to me for loyalty, and the third you rob his families belonging and give it to me, for what?”

Jaime asked loudly but no one answered.

Jaime sighed. “It will take a very long time for you to understand this relationship.” Jaime wanted to tell them about his past life when he had to suck up and ass lick all his professors to have a good grade and pass his grade. When his professor said 'one beauty' he had to give 'five beauties!'

“There is no such thing as a free lunch! And don't ask for pity. I am not a God and you are neither my son nor a prince! I owe you nothing! If you want power, want to be strong. LICK MY ASS, SUCK MY D*CK, when I feel happy, I will give you what you want. If you feel wrong to do it just go back to your mommy and wish for some good master to come at your door and give you all you need. Go get a demonic beast in a week and come here if you still want to learn from me.”

Jaime turned back but suddenly Fatty Chen gave a cough. “Oh, I forgot to tell you, Fatty Chen is selling healing pills and strengthening pills. They are half price of the market price for disciples that already paid five spiritual stones. So stock up your pills before getting injured by demonic beast.”

“You are a scammer! You want to scam our money, show us proof that you are strong enough to be a master!” One of the outsiders of Jaime's self-proclaimed disciples shouted.

“A true man needs no proof! I owe you nothing! I don't even want you to be my disciples. Nor am I willing to show you my kindness! You don't believe me then go back to your cave and still be weak! Who do you think you are! The lowest disciple without any disciple's attitude wants me to lick your ass and give you proof! Fk Off! Don't come to me crying later!” Jaime was really angry. “Fatty Chen never sell pills to outside of our future disciples!”

Jaime looked at his future disciples. “Disciples nowadays don't know what hardship is! In my time, before I meet my Master, I had to travel to a continent, brought a thousand beauties, and millions of spiritual stones. When I gave all of those to him, you know what he said? He said he needed ten times more. I worked so hard and said NOTHING. I gave him ten times the gifts and you know what he said?”

“Kill sixty demonic beasts without any cultivation to show him my strong heart! I killed all of them without any complaint. But you ... ahhhh.... you are too useless. I just asked for one from each of you and you already scream like a lady” Jaime turned around.

“Wait, you scammer! Who do you think you are, so we will let you keep talking bullshit here! I am going to beat you into a pulp. Let me see what you can do to me. I, Li Xing, will have my foot on your head” That outsider, Li Xing, called his friends and one hundred Rainbow Peak disciples answered the call. They quickly encircling Jaime, letting him have no way out.

Jaime’s face became pale.

Most of them were only level 2-9 but if one hundred of them attack together, with his level 10, he will be a meat pulp. Jaime checked his back and found no way out, Li Xing’s followers already surrounded him tightly.

His future disciples seem under a dilemma because they really wanted to see Jaime in action, their future Master. Jaime couldn’t ask them for help. So he was alone now and no one was going to help him face the one hundred people’s attack.

Li Xing laughed “Let see how you run! You thousand killer! Scammer! Kill him!” Together, one hundred people rushed to attack Jaime.

Chapter 10: Double Moon Thousand Swords

“Every man is born to be a king. If he can’t be a king of country, be a king of a province. If he can’t be, then be a king of a city. Be a king of a sect. Be a king of his family. If all those can’t be achieved then be a king of his own life! If you have a weakness, trample that weakness! If you have nothing, find something. Don’t ever let others control you!” Fatty Chen yelled in an ear-splitting shout and stood at the selling pill’s table. “Li Xing you are a frog in a well! After five years in rainbow peak, you already feel you are the best in the world. In front of my Master you are nothing!”

“You don’t believe in Master? It is your stupidity, I can’t change it, and you will only die like your mother pig. But I and my fellow brothers want to change our lives. We want to be strong and have a strong heart. Be a king of our lives! We refuse to be a lamb in front of a tiger! We choose to believe in the fact that master can change our fates. It is our cleverness. You can’t change it. What do you have till you think you can stop our journey to be the strongest under heaven! Do you think me and Master’s future disciples are someone you can trample when you like! Do you think we eat grass? I tell you what! We are tigers that will eat your meat!”

The eyes of the future disciples shone very brightly. Their blood was boiling and they were suddenly ready for any action! They were craving for blood.

“All of my dear brothers and sisters! Master taught us to have a strong heart and trample our weakness. It is time to show it now! We were never meant to be weak, we are born to be strong and shine! Use sword!s Use bare hands! Use teeth! Use our lives to protect our dignity! One hundred twenty brothers and sisters! One for all and all for one! Gang up on Li Xing together! Attack!!!! It's time to show who we are. Today, we or he will die!”

“Huaaaaaaa!!!!!!” Hundreds of disciples ran to Li Xing with red eyes.

Li Xing's face turned really pale; he never thought that he would become the target. This time he really kicked an iron plate. “Brothers please help me. Protect me!”

He turned around and ran for his life very quickly. At that moment, some random fists and sword have started attacking his body. His friends tried hard to protect him and stop the movement of Jaime's future disciples. They already forgotten Jaime's presence. Two sides hitting each other with all they had. Teeth fell, blood fell, and bodies fell but Jaime's side kept attacking hard.

“Show our loyalty to our master!” Fatty Chen was running to Li Xing and started kicking and attacking, there were ten people ganging up on Li Xing, turning him into a terrible condition. “Trample Li Xing! Steal his belongings! Steal his fellow's belongings!”

Jaime used that chaos to hide himself amongst the crowd and ran to Fatty Chen's hut to hide. The first thing he wanted to do was make healing pills. The demand would be higher in the next few days.

Li Xing's group fought half-heartedly since they had no reason to fight. Most of them moved because Li Xing had asked them to. However, Fatty Chen's group was like a hungry lion wanting to prove themselves. They were ravaging wolves wishing to be strong and fought with their lives at stake. One of them could stand with three of Li Xing's guys.

When Li Xing's guys got to bleeding, they laid down and cried. When the future disciples got attacked and bled, they ignored it and return the attack twice or thrice fiercer. After that, they started looking for another enemy to strike.

In one hour, Li Xing and his entire group had been wasted and lying naked on the ground. They were beaten up till their parents wouldn't recognize them and gotten robbed clean, left only with their naked skin.

In Rainbow Peak, Li Xing and his group were the most powerful and took control of Rainbow peak, but now, Fatty Chen and his hungry wolves group were scarier.

An outside disciple looked at the fight and asked his friend. "Fatty Chen's group won their fight, but why do they look sad and run like hungry wolves after the fight? Where are they going?"

"You don't know?" The other answered. "They weren't satisfied with the robbing, so each of them ran to Li Xing and his group's huts determined to rob their huts clean."

Some of the Rainbow Peak disciples looked down at the fight from a peak mountain. "Have you checked that fake Master's identity?"

"Yeah, some of Elder Meng's disciples recognized the face of the drawing you sent. He was a village survivor from a village the Demon Sect attacked and brought by Elder Fan to Bamboo peak's as a slave. He wasn't any disciple and knew nothing about cultivation. He only reached the early step of elementary realm."

"So they are really getting scammed by that slave!"

One disciple turned back his body. "It has nothing to do with us. If he causes more trouble to the eighth division, it is much better. Just ignore him and his stupid group. Let those hundred pigs get scammed by that lowly slave!"

"Master, winning really tastes so sweet!" Fatty Chen gave Jaime a tribute. "This is our winning tribute, Master. Present it to our dear Master as three good steps of being a disciple."

Jaime laughed so hard and took the tribute. It was about 5,000 spiritual stones. "How many disciples fought Li Xing and his groups?"

"There were a hundred and one. Nineteen future disciples asked for a refund of their money. They are just a bunch of cowards."

"Good, give their money back, we don't need them." Jaime threw a storage pouch to Fatty Chen. "Yesterday, Liang Xi already sold some of my First Dragon pills and exchanged the with herbs. I personally finished making a batch of healing pills and strengthening pills; you can give those pills to each of the disciples as my gratitude. When they kill a demonic beast in front of me, I will ready cleaning meridian and bone pills for each of them.”

“Thank You Master!”

“Master! Quickly come here!” Jaime rushed to the pit-trap, where some disciples were surrounding a hole with a pitiful demonic beast inside. “Dong Lie will kill his first demonic beast!”

A boy at seventeen raised a sword and stab at demonic beast. Jaime used that time to take its free energy. He understood that after the demonic beast died; he only had 5-10 seconds to take their free energy or it will be gone forever.

“Good! Fatty Chen will record your name, please help your friends to get their demonic beast!”

In a day there were almost 20 demonic beasts falling into the traps and killed. Once they knew how to kill demonic beast in a very easy way, they became hungry for more.

Jaime laughed. “Kill, kill more and raise my level, be strong and be my hard-working ants. Huahahaha... I won’t be polite to use all of you...”

In that time, Jaime made a few storage pouches to keep demonic beast carcasses while waiting for the time to pass. In the storage pouch, the carcasses won't decay because the time stopped inside the space.

After a week, those one hundred and one disciples killed more than 200 hundred demonic beasts. That shocked Jaime a little, since they protested at first. Jaime's level rose from level 10 to level 34 entering the senior realm. To get the Dragon and Phoenix cultivation, he had to pay 20 levels which will cause his level to go back down to level 14.

Before getting Dragon and Phoenix cultivation, Jaime wanted to use his current level at the Senior Realm with tremendous spiritual and mental energies to smoothly create more space storage pouches and pills, as much as he could.

In that time, some disciples used their families' connection to send them a few herbs that was needed to make [Sun and Moon] cleaning meridian and bone pills. This pill was a two grade higher than [Cloud Mist] cleaning meridian pills which was sold by Double Moon Sect. Only a few ancient grandmasters knew the recipe of this four grade pill.

When a cultivator took a [Cloud Mist] pill to clear their meridian, their cultivation may raise by 30%. As for the [Sun and Moon] pill, it can clean meridians and bones, it will open all the meridians and bones capacity in taking spiritual energy to the maximum and raise their cultivation and talent by 60%. For a disciple, this was a heavenly gift to boost their talent.

This was the pill that would put them at the same level as the other talented cultivators. The problem was, Jaime suddenly realized that the [Sun and Moon] pill could only be taken by people with at a least an early Elementary Realm, so they could put the pills in their dantian and slowly release the effect to their meridians and bones over time.

Most of Jaime disciples were still in the normal human realm, leveled from 5-8. He needed to think how to boost their levels up. The answer was to lay on spiritual stone.

Spiritual stone at the size of a thumb is worth 100 taels gold for a normal human. Inside that small stone, there was a spiritual energy nurtured by a thousand years of heavenly and earth energies. It had the same effect as hundreds year old ginseng. But the hundred year old ginseng' price will be higher, because normal humans can eat it and feel the effect right away. As for spiritual stones, which are mined from places with high concentrate of heavenly and earthly energy, it would need an art of cultivation to extract the spiritual energy from the stone and nurture their bodies.

One or two spiritual stones could easily boost a normal human into the elementary realm. Their lives would easily reach one hundred years. That would be the first step in entering the process of becoming immortal. The hardest part was having the art of cultivation. Every sect and clan had their own art of cultivation from their patriarch or ancestor. They guarded their cultivation as secrets and kept it like a treasure. The people who were able to get the art of cultivations were mostly disciples of a sect and people who make contracts with famous clans or a famous master.

There was a saying; a young one owes their life to their parents, a disciple owes their soul to their master.

Jaime, of course had no cultivation method with him. He couldn't teach anything he didn't know. He checked the Book of Karma and he decided to take the Double Moon Sect Cultivation and the experience of Fu Gu Chai, the founder of Double Moon Sect. The reason? Because the cultivation only needed a small level to exchange and that cultivation would soon become trash as he obtain the Dragon and Phoenix cultivation. As to why he didn't just rush to get the Dragon and Phoenix Cultivation, he still needed his levels for some work.

Having a level 34 or being in the Senior Realm, even Zhou Wei won't dare to look for trouble, let aside the disciples of Rainbow Peak.

“Book of Karma, I want to take the skill and experience of Fu Gu Chai and his masterpiece, Double Moon Cultivation.”

Quickly, Jaime's level became 32 and he experienced a hundred years of Fu Gu Chai's life experience in a few seconds. The experience caused him to feel like he was the maker of Double Moon Cultivation and the founder of this sect. He suddenly had a lot of information, not only about the arts of cultivation, but also the information of the Double Moon Mountain and its surroundings.

One hundred and one disciples were asked to assemble in the Rainbow Peak field. Jaime appeared in front of them and said, “You have strong hearts and had proved it to me! It is more than enough for me to take you as my disciple. Now it is time for me to let you see the truth about me. Follow me!”

Jaime lead his disciples to the Rainbow Mountain's peak and caused Fatty Chen face to darken. Where Jaime went was the peak of Rainbow Peak, the top of the mountain peak.

“Master, inside that peak mountain, there is a group named Hyena and their leaders, Gong Na. Li Xing always thinks he and his brothers are the strongest in Rainbow Peak, but they never dare to touch Gong Na's place."

"Why?" asked Jaime.

"Cause they are the real deal, the strongest group in Rainbow Peak. I heard from a rumor that they were the eyes of fifth division; they are the traitors of eight division. Most of them have a high cultivation. That is their lair. We can't enter it as we like."

Jaime laughed out loud. "Listen, all of you! Inside Rainbow Peak, that mountain peak has two hundreds cave for disciples to do close cultivation. The mountain peak has the highest density of heavenly and earth energies in all of Rainbow Peak. I think that place will be the most suitable place for us to cultivate!"

"Why do you think that we can't take it as our place? Elder Huang even had closed cultivation there. If it is the best place in here, we who are the best here, must have it. It will be our headquarters to dominate the world!"

Fatty Chen and some disciples knew the danger of Hyena's group became dead silent. They kept moving with a lot of burden in their minds. Most of them suddenly became scared, even after they killed the demonic beasts. But most were killed because of traps and ganging up. Facing the group of Hyenas which had about two hundred people and known as having high cultivation, they were sure they would be the one get ganged up on and traps won't work on them.

"What are you doing here, this is not your place to enter." Two disciples stood on the road showing their angry faces and shouted arrogantly, “Go back to your cave! Or this daddy will take your head!”

Jaime sneered. “You watch dog, go bark to your boss and tell him, we are going to take this place. If you have a problem than you can talk to my sword!” Jaime took out his sword, causing all of his disciples to become shocked. Their master wants to show his skill.

Both Hyena groups disciple looked at each other. “Ring the alarm!”

One of them quickly ran to the nearest tree and hit a metal bell alarm quickly. Its sound waved to the whole mountain peak. In a few minutes, almost two hundred disciples of Hyena group assembled.

“Leader, they want to take our place.”

A big guy called leader looked at Jaime and his disciples. “All of you want to take my place? Hahahaha ... do you think we are like that weak Li Xing or demonic beast?”

He laughed very hard. “Do you know that your Master has no knowledge about cultivation? He is just a slave of Bamboo Peak and a scammer! He is only at an early elementary realm!” Gong Na suddenly felt something weird, he can’t sense Jaime’s level like before.

I am already in the fourth elementary realm, why must I be scared of that lowly slave, two weeks ago, he was just on the first of elementary realm.

Jaime smiled and walked closer to Gong Na, the leader of Hyena group. “Enough of that bullshit and chit-chat, we are not women using their mouths to fight. A man uses their swords and blood to talk. If you still want to talk, just go back to your mommy and wear woman’s clothes. Get out from my face.”

Gong Na’s anger exploded. “Good, I really want to know what you have till you are so arrogant.” He moved a step and Jaime laugh loudly.

“Don’t move alone, asked all of your two hundred brothers and sister to come together. I am too lazy to face you one by one. All of you are not even enough for me to complete one move! If all of you attacked me together and I used more than one move, I will behead my own head and present it for you!”

That saying caused Jaime’s disciples to shout in unison and feel very proud. This of course caused Hyena group’s anger to reach the sky.

Gong Na face became red and filled with killing intent. “All of you encircle him, don’t let him get away!”

Jaime walked slowly into the Hyena Group and two hundred of the group moved to encircle him in the middle.

Gong Na shouted, “All of you use the best move you have and kill this pig. He is just a scammer! Force him to use his second move and make him eat his own words. Let him take his own head!”

Jaime closed his eyes and spoke very softly, the name of the move that will be able to kill all two hundred people of Hyena group five times in one move.

“Double Moon Thousand Swords!”

Chapter 11: Conquer Double Moon Sect

“On the top of a mountain, there is nothing but loneliness. Being the strongest and undefeated under heaven is the dream and life of all martial artists. They work hard, fight, live, and die! Climbing step by step, using blood and paying with their life to reach the peak of the mountain. Being number one under heaven! It is hard but this is the only way of life for them. But after the long and arduous journey, they will face loneliness. At the top of the mountain, without enemies, without friends, and with no one that can understand them... I am the founder of Double Moon Sect!”

Jaime was usually very placid and doesn't like to ever solve things with his fist or sword. His life from before was peaceful, he and the people around him used words and money to solved everything. No need to see blood or let fists speak. But after a week of having the cultivation and experiences of Fu Gu Chai, the Founder of Double Moon Sect, his heart changed.

Jaime wasn't usually affected by the past experience of the people he exchanged with in the book of karma, but this Fu Gu Chai's experience kept bothering him. Probably because he stayed in Double Moon Mountain, this entire place, even after a thousand of years, didn't change much. It caused Jaime to feel nostalgic and he kept reliving Fu Gu Chai experiences. Making him feel the he, himself was Fu Gu Chai.

The experiences from the Book of Karma gave not only the cultivation, but also the process in founding the art of Double Moon Cultivation until its perfection. In Jaime's mind, he already experienced the whole life of Fu Gu Chai. How this founder, in pain and sweat, raised the sect. Loving the Double Moon Cultivation as his masterpiece and even till his death, he was still lingering around his dream to be the number one in the world.

Jaime still felt he was the founder of this sect and suddenly became enraged.

“Fk! What is the number one under heaven?” Jaime wanted to cry. “Double Moon Cultivation, which was once known as the peak of all cultivation in the Dragon and Phoenix Continent, appears to be a defected cultivation, even being humiliated by the Dragon and Phoenix cultivation, the self-proclaimed best cultivation. F k all their grandmothers!!”

Now Jaime eyes were teary, “The Patriarchs after the founder were not raising the Double Moon Sect! Nor upgrading the cultivation, they were declining it! Personally throwing away every last chapter because of fear of their own disciples! FKing useless disciples! What happened to the sect I raised so hard with my blood and tears!”

Jaime looked angrily at the Hyena leader and all of them. “Today I will show you what the real meaning of Double Moon is! Why we were known as the Double Moon Sect!”

The sword in Jaime’s hand began to shine brightly and suddenly an illusion of a full moon appeared on his upper body. This caused all of the people to become dumbfounded. They only ever heard of this when a martial artist really understood their movements and had complete understanding of the essence of martial arts. Only then would they cause an illusion to appear.

Right at the moment, Jaime moved his sword filled with his spiritual energy. The sword movement created a full cycle and caused an illusion of a second moon to appear. Jaime raised his sword and shouted powerfully. “Double Moon Thousand Swords!”

The illusion of the full moons shattered into a thousand pieces. Each piece containing a sword intent and sharp energy shot into the surroundings.

Gong Na and his followers couldn’t escape from those thousand sword energies. In no time, all of them fell to the ground. Their legs and hands were showing injuries and blood was flowing out. It seemed like every one of them had four to five injuries each. All two hundred people of the hyena groups fell to the ground bleeding. No one was left standing.

Gong Na looked horrible. His open wounds showed his white bones. Jaime moved in front of him.

“Now tell me, are you willing to move out of the peak of this mountain or should I move you to hell right now?” Jaime’s sword met the skin of his neck.

“Then please forgive me for being impolite to you. Swords have no eyes, and this sword is really a bad sword. Luckily I have healing pills with me. Having one healing pill will make sure all of your injuries are cured in half a day. You can have it for 50 spiritual stones. Please buy one for your health, okay?” Jaime took out a pill.

“Brother, a glass of water in the desert has a different price with a glass of water near the river. Don’t you agree with me? 100 spiritual stones!”

Jaime killing intent heightened causing Gong Na to quickly take out his pouch to pay. “Thank you.”

Jaime moved to the next injured person, “You! You look so handsome and you are still so young. I am really concerned about your health. Your parents will be sad if you died or even have a scratch on your face. It will cause you to be unmarried for your whole life, please buy one pill okay? For your future baby.”

“No, my injury is very light, just putting saliva will be okay.” His legs had a long wound and was bleeding but it was not a deep wound. For a martial artist this kind of injury was just like a light scratch.

“Really? Let me check,” Jaime took his sword and stabbed that leg, causing new injuries to his legs. “It doesn’t look so good to me, but let me check deeper.” The sword moved deeper and caused the unlucky guy to scream.

“I’ll buy it! I’ll buy it!”

“Thanks, your wounds will be cured in no time! You just saved your future.” Jaime smirked and moved to the next one. “How about you? Your injury looks so bad.”

“Please, I don’t have money!”

Jaime moved his foot to stomp the unlucky fellow’s injured leg, causing the unlucky fellow to scream pitifully and loudly. “You don’t have money, then it is okay, but you must not lose hope of life! When people are sick, they must cure it! No matter how much it’ll cost! You have a friend, brother and a sister. You must learn how to borrow money from them. Please scream louder and maybe one of them will be willing to lend you some money for your life.”

“Alright, alright, alright! Brother Gong Na, please lend me some of your money. I will return it later!”

“Thank You!” Jaime threw a pill to him. “Now, Fatty Chen! You already saw enough. Please choose some disciples and sell our healing pills to them. Help them to gain their health and show our kindness as well. Selling at normal price will be okay. We don’t kill our fellow disciples. Please take their swords or belongings if they have neither money nor friends to shelter their pain.”

“Yes Master!”

Jaime looked down at Gong Na. “Tomorrow, you must gather all of the disciples of eighth division on the Rainbow Peak’s field, your group, Li Xing group, dumb shitty group, Everyone! Understand!”

“Yy...Ye...Yes...” said Gong Na painfully. “But, I never did anything bad to you, why are you targeting us.”

“Did you think I didn’t know about you? You and your brothers are spies of other divisions! All of you causing trouble for eighth division. It is not like I want to protect this division. I want to protect this sect which I worked so hard to build. You can cause trouble and even kill people from a different sect. But to target your own sect, this is really humiliating! Really shameless! You traitors of your own blood! If not for us being in same sect, I would have already killed you into a thousand pieces! Collect all the disciples tomorrow morning. I will teach you all about the dignity of Double Moon Sect!”

Jaime’s flashed to the peak of the mountain leaving only his shadow and a wavering flash of light. All of the disciples stared blankly.

“Is that not a Moonlight flash’s step! Like only the Elders ever shown?”

“Our Master!”

“Our Master!”

After a few minutes, the Hyena group disciples started throwing tantrums. “You are robbing us blindly! 100 stones for a pill! Your master already said sell at a normal price just now.”

“Yeah, master said normal price, but we, as his disciples, must show the three good steps of being disciples. 25 stones are the real price of the pill. 25 stones to show our obedience, 25 stones to show our loyalty and

25 stones to kiss our master's ass! So give me your money and whatever you have!"

Jaime reached the peak of the mountain and looked at his surroundings. Laying his eyes on the mountain peaks his tears began to fall down. This is his first time at this place but after having Fu Gu Chai's experience, he felt like all of this place already belonged to him and had been his home for his whole life. He stood for a long time, remembering his past life's memory.

Fatty Chen and the other disciples finished their business and found their master standing at the peak of the mountain. They said nothing because their master seemed to be in deep thought. They just knelt there, waiting for their next order. As the sky darkened, Jaime didn't move. So they didn't dare to bother him.

Jaime suddenly shouted loudly following his heart, "This place is my home. This place is my land. This is my place where I planted my dreams with my brothers and sisters! We shared our dreams and hope for our future generations! This place was where our story began! Long live Double Moon Sect till the end of the world!"

Jaime couldn't hold his tears and shouted as loud as he could.

When they heard their master shouting, they didn't know what to say. Their master loyalty to the sect seemed deeper than any elder they knew. The elders they knew kept fighting each other and kept planning to do bad things to each division.

"You!" Jaime raised his voice and pointed to the disciples. "All of you will be my new brothers and sisters. We will take over this entire Double Moon Sect and raise it to become the number one sect in this Dragon and Phoenix continent. A thousand years ago, Fu Gu Chai, our founder at this place shared his dream to his brothers and sisters; to swear to take this sect fly to the sky, to become dragon of all sects. BUT!!!!... Those fucking no loyalty brain dog successors. THEY!!!”

Jaime was angry. It caused the illusion of twelve moons to shine brightly all over his body and brighten the dark sky. “There were 12 divisions when Double Moon Sect was first founded. After one thousand years, it became eight and soon to be seven! At first, Double Moon cultivation had 21 chapters and after one thousand years it only had 13 chapters left. A thirteen Holy Double Moon Cultivation My ASS! Double Moon Sect was once the best in this continent. Number one! Now it is number six from six big sects. Those damned successors only can cause this sect to walk backwards!”

“We will take over all of this Double Moon Sect in 5 years! Can you do it?”

“We will!”

“I will give all of you 21 chapters of Double Moon Cultivation. Also I will give you the cultivation of Dragon and Phoenix. All of you will be the new legends of this continent. All of you will reach the realm of demigod and half demon! But you have to swear your loyalty to me! I will be the king of three realms! Can you!”

Once some of them were a bit wary but after today, when Jaime showed his power, more of them can fathom. And now, their master’s aura seems like a very ancient and powerful being. Their hearts were moved. If Jaime asked them to die now, they would be more than willing to do it because of the atmosphere. They are young, full of dreams and willing to try their limits to reach the sky! With their brothers and sisters, to share their dream, their willingness or maybe their stupidity rose to whole new level.

“We swear our loyalty to master!”

“Good, follow me!” said Jaime. He made his way with his disciples to one big closed cave which was already full of bushes, weeds and plants. “Fatty Chen, do you know what cave this is?”

“Master, this lowly one has heard that the closed cave was only ever used by the first Patriarch and the other Patriarchs of Double Moon Sect from the ancient time. It has already been 500 years. No one has been able to open the closed cave including the Patriarch of this sect. So it’s left behind.”

Jaime sneered, “Of course except the Patriarch no one can open this cave, because it needs a martial art in chapter 17 of Double Moon Cultivation to open it. But the chapter is already long gone!” Jaime touched a small stone which positioned right beside the boulder that closed the cave door. He moved his finger drawing a small formation on the surface of the stone while putting in his spiritual and mental energies. A small formation shone brightly and caused the big boulder which closed the cave to start moving.

All of the disciples there got a surprise.

“He can open the boulder.”

“Our Master! There is nothing he can’t do!”

“Is our master the Patriarch of the Double Moon Sect?”

“Stupid! Double Moon Sect has no Patriarch because no one has reached Patriarch Realm yet. We only have eight Elders on Elder Realm. I heard Elder Meng is already at level eight Elder Realm, he will be a patriarch soon!”

“But how could our master opened the cave which only patriarchs can open it?”

Jaime looked at the Patriarch cave. This cave has the highest density of heavenly and earthly energy, so it is the best place for cultivation. As Jaime wanted to enter the cave, a smell of demonic beast rushed to his nose and he stopped his step.

A very big-headed centipede started moving towards Jaime. Its head was already as big as three horses, as for its body? Jaime couldn’t see it because of the darkness but it must be at least forty-fifty meters long.

“What is it!” asked Jaime to the Book of Karma and in an instant information came, exchanged with his mental energy.

[Ten Thousand Legs Centipede, a level 63 demonic beast, Patriarch realm. King of all demonic beasts around the Double Moon Mountain range; has hidden itself for 400 years in the cave to nurture its body. Very aggressive and loves to eat human meat.]

The Ten Thousand Legs Centipede moved fast and attacked Jaime fiercely. It showed its many horns and fangs, Jaime could see dark liquid falling from the fangs and horns..... poisoned fangs and horns.....

Chapter 12: Secret makes a man man

“I am a man! A man fears no one! I fear nothing, so I can walk the Kang Ow with pride. I’ll meet God, then kill God! Face the Demon, then trample the Demon! Meet the beautiful princess, then snatch her heart! Thousands of people worship me; ten thousands of people kowtow to me and are waiting for me to be their Master. As for demonic beast...hmm...” Jaime looked at the Ten Thousand Centipede. “Even if you are in the patriarch realm, level 63, and my level is only 32, I won’t step back even one step! I will face you with a single hand! Behold my true power!”

Jaime moved his hand as fast as he could, not attacking the Ten Thousand Legs Centipede, but aiming at the small stone beside the cave. Before the Ten Thousand Legs Centipede was close enough to attack Jaime, the boulder of the cave started closing. The Centipede knew if it kept attacking its head would be pinned by the boulder. So, it moved back and let the boulder close the cave.

Jaime stared blankly at the big boulder; he realized that he almost died by that beast. His body was full of cold sweat and his legs were shaking. Luckily, it’s already night and he wear big white clothes that cover up all of his legs.

Fatty Chen and the others were also staring blankly at the closed boulder. When the Ten Thousand Centipede shown its patriarch realm aura, all of their legs lost power and caused them to tremble with fear. Some of them already wet their pants. All of their faces turned really pale.

Jaime looked at their face and wanted to say,

I think I almost died! Look at how scary that Centipede is! Damn, it is so big! Did you look at its fangs and horns? It is full of poison don't you know! Ahh.. my legs are still trembling just remembering it!

Yet as Jaime opened his mouth, he only said. "All of you are weak! So weak, that small demonic beast already caused you to be scared to death! Look at your trembling legs, your pale faces. How can you walk the Kang Ow if you are already so scared with that small centipede? Some of you have even wet yourselves. All of you put shame on your Master's name! Tell me what is your Master's name?"

"Jaime The Great!" shouted all of the disciples in unison.

"What is my title?" Jaime shouted!

"The King of Three Realms!"

"What will I do!"

"Kill the Gods, Trample the Demons, be the Emperor of the Universe!"

"Good! Remember, you are my disciples! You will follow me in killing the gods and trampling the demons. All of you will lead the front line in the war! Raise your spirit and don't be afraid of that small worm!"

"Master." One disciple couldn't stop himself from trembling in fear. "What is that creature? I can't breathe in front of it."

“That small worm is named the Ten Thousand Legs Centipede.”

“What is that demonic beast cultivation?”

“Patriarch Realm!” Jaime waved his hand like it was a small matter. But all the disciples felt like they were going to faint. For their entire lives, they had never seen a demonic beast in the patriarch realm. Even ten elders in the Elder Realm wouldn’t be able to kill that creature. And all of them knew, as the demonic beast reaches the Patriarch Realm, it will become the demonic beast ruler of a small area.

“Master, that centipede is the king of all the demonic beasts in Double Moon Mountain,” said Fatty Chen full of sweat. “Let’s leave from here....”

Jaime nodded his head. This place is too dangerous to stay. “I agr...”

“What the hell are you talking about!” shouted one disciple to Fatty Chen. “How dare you insult our Master! Our master is the strongest under heaven, how can our Master be scared of that centipede!? Even if it is in Patriarch Realm, haven’t you heard what our Master called that Centipede? A WORM!”

Jaime and Fatty Chen glanced at the disciple.

“Do you really know why our master showed that worm to us? It is to test us, to test our weak heart. Master already knew there was a demonic beast in the Patriarch Realm inside and wanted to show it to us. It was to make us stronger by knowing what we fear. Look how cool our Master was facing that king of demonic beast. Didn't you see? The centipede even backed off when facing our Master. Didn't anyone see it before the boulder closed?" Almost all of the disciples were convinced. All of them nodded their heads in unison.

Jaime nodded his head too.

What the fk are you talking about. I didn't know there would be a monster inside there! It almost killed me! Just shut your mouth up and let us go somewhere before that things get out. Quickly...

"All of you! You showed your weakness and how pitiful all of you are. Even if we are weak, didn't any one of you have faith in our Master! That our Master is the greatest under heaven! Our Master will kill gods and trample demons! What could that little worm do to our Master! Instead, our Master will butcher that worm and let us eat its meat. Patriarch Realm beast will nurture our bodies and bones! That is the reason why Master showed it to us. Have faith in our Master! Have absolute faith in our Master!" The disciple raised his voice and asked the others to join in. "Have faith in our master. Have absolute faith in our master!"

One disciple overcame his fear and stood shouting really loudly. "What is our Master!"

"The king of three realms!" shouted the others and stood.

"What does he do!"

"Kill the gods! Trample the demons!"

In no time at all the disciples stood and shouted with boiling blood.

Jaime became dumbfounded. He didn't know what just happened.

“Have faith in our master!”

‘Fk if you have faith in me, but who do I put my faith in!’

“He will kill the beast and let us eat the meat!”

‘Easy for you to say. Just kill it by yourself, and let us see if the beast eats you or you eat the beast.’

“Master, we as your disciples apologize. We are weak and have so little faith in master. Please forgive us and let us eat the meat!”

Jaime laughed and cried in his heart. “I am here with you, what are you scared for! Tomorrow morning I will kill that worm and share it with all of you! Its meat will be good for all of your bodies! As long as you have faith in me, you will face no trouble! Let us go to sleep for now.”

Tomorrow, I will find a place to escape!

In the morning, the sun rose and a new day had come; Jaime was pushed in front of the Patriarch Cave.

“Master, now I really have faith in you. I was scared of nothing and kept dreaming of the Patriarch Realm Demonic Beast’s meat. Look, I keep drooling!” All of the disciples said the same things. Some disciples had started heating the furnace, ready to cook the meat.

“All of you really have no shame at all.” Jaime checked one closer disciple and said. “Give me your sword, I will kill that Patriarch Realm’s beast and be back as fast as I can. I won’t let all of you go hungry for long.”

“Now all of you move back 100 meters. A fight between Patriarch realms is not something the likes of you can handle.” Jaime took the sword and opened the cave.

Since all of the disciples moved back, they couldn’t see what was happening inside the dark cave. Some of them couldn’t help remembering the terror last night. The aura of the Patriarch Realm was still causing nightmares to some of them. Some of the women disciples face turned pale and one of them whispered. “What will happen if Master dies?”

That question cause fear and panic in some hearts. Some of the girls couldn’t help sobbing.

Only ten breaths of time since Jaime entered, they saw a figure walking out.

“Master is out...”

All eyes were locked on Jaime, their mouth opened in awe. They looked at their master walking and dragging a very big beast, the biggest they ever seen. Jaime walked slowly like he was just taking a stroll in a garden in front of a house, but his left hand was on the horn of the Ten Thousand Legs Centipede. He dragged the king of the demonic beast carcass out from the cave.

Slowly but surely Jaime appeared in front of them and return the sword to the disciples. “This beast is weaker than I thought; it can’t even handle one move of mine. So lame.”

All of the disciples looked at the head of the centipede which was almost three meters, and its body reaching fifty meters long, full of horns and fangs. The liquid on the fangs was full of poison. It looked so scary.

Most of the female disciples burst into tears, they cried really hard. Almost all of the male disciples looked at their master with very big eyes, teary and full of pride. In their hearts, their master is the most awesome human ever alive.

Their king, their god, their master!

All of them with one heart and in unison knelt again. “We will have unshakeable faith in our master till the end of our time! We will follow our master to heaven and hell! Kill the god, trample the demon.”

Jaime looked at them and smile. “Good. This beast head is full of poison, none of you can handle it, so I will take it.” Jaime waved his hand and shout in low voice. “Crimson Full Moon Behead!”

An illusion of the Crimson Full Moon appeared and rush at the beast head. As the illusion passed the head fell down. Jaime put it into his storage pouch and looked at the bleeding carcass without head.

“Collect its blood and meat. Keep it in your storage pouch. The blood can help temper your blood and meridians, its meat can help nurture your bones. Its skin can be used as armor. Leave nothing behind. I need to meet the other disciples and teach them about Double Moon Sect’s dignity. I will be back this evening.”

After saying that, Jaime flashed and left nothing but a mirage.

The disciples’ eyes were full of tears.

“Our master just needs one move to kill this beast on Patriarch Realm! No one in this Dragon and Phoenix continent ever did this!”

“He needs only one move to behead the king of demonic beast!”

“We are truly lucky to meet such as master!”

“He is already so powerful and unreachable. Not even our elder can do something like this. Yet, he is willing to take us as his disciples. My life and my soul is his!”

“Yeah!”

“Our life is his!”

Jaime was on the way to Rainbow Peak field, where he asked Gong Na to assemble all the Rainbow Peak disciples. There was a smile on his face. Of course he didn't really fight with that Patriarch Realm's demonic beast. He did something to that beast last night. A very smart trick!

Suddenly Jaime laughed loudly. He was so smart and so awesome! He couldn't believe that he was that cool. Maybe now some of the women disciples on that peak mountain would be willing to let him sleep with them. Jaime still remembered the way they looked at him. Some of the women disciples were really pretty. Soft skins, tender lips, sexy bodies, maybe he could get a threesome, foursome or even tensome and twentysome! Jaime started drooling.

As Jaime headed to the middle of Rainbow Peak, there was a large open field which more than four hundreds disciples were already there waiting.

He jumped in the middle of them and shouted. “Each of you will get two punches on your head. If you can avoid it, I will let you go, if not, all of you will be going through hell training with me. You will be my dogs, you will be my pigs! When I am finished with you, all of you will only have bones left. But you will have the dignity of being a human!”

Jaime's level was now more than 35, facing most of the disciples at level 3 to 9, it just like a wolf running among hundreds of chickens. Most of the disciples became scared.

A full moon appeared in Jaime's upper body and he shouted "Double moon thousands fist!"

As how Jaime killed that ten thousand legs centipede, it will be told later. Hee Hee. Doesn't a secret make a man, man!

Chapter 13: Building Fortress

“Being strong is the dream of every martial artist. They train hard and cultivate for hundreds of years! But do you ever ask yourself, why do all of you study martial arts? Hurting yourself and put your life in danger? All of this for only one purpose... when you are needed. You can use your martial arts to protect or to kill whoever wants to harm you and your loved ones.

At that time you will look down on your enemies. You will feel like an adult facing kindergarten children, even if there are a thousand of them. It will be very easy for you to make them cry and bow down to you. After that you can do whatever you want to them! Hit them, punch them, touch them, kick them, seduce them, you are the king! Huahahahaha....!”

Jaime raised his spiritual energy from his dantian and converted it to fist energy. The Double Moon Illusion appeared and shattered into a thousand brilliant lights, then shot into every disciple’s face. In a few seconds, all of them fell to the ground screaming and crying.

Gong Na got angry and started to throw a tantrum while his nose was bleeding. He had saw the attacks coming and was taking full care to avoid it, yet the attack still got through to his face and made him almost faint.

Jaime was the only one still standing in front of his four hundred new disciples. “Now! All of you will obey my command! All of you are the Double Moon disciples, so I have the responsibility to make all of you strong. So people won’t look down on our sect when you walk the Kang Ow. Everyone of you will learn about the dignity of being a Double Moon Sect's disciples! In two months, all of you will learn three moves, Double Moon Thousands Sword, Double Moon Fist Shattering Mountain and Double Moonlight Flash Movement.”

“With these three moves, you will be able to take care of anyone that looks down on our sect and keep our dignity high in outside!”

“Who are you that you can force me to learn things I don't want!” A guy with an arrogant face stood and pointed his finger at Jaime.

“I am your granddaddy, why couldn't I teach you?” Jaime flashed to his front and slap him.

“You! You! If you dare to hit me again, I will tell my father! Don't you know who am I? Who my father is? Even a king wouldn't dare to lay his hands on me! You will die!”

“Oh, really?” Jaime smiled as he proceeded to kick him very hard to ground. After that, Jaime stomped on his hand, causing him to scream like a pig being butchered. “If you act so arrogant again, I swear I will go out and find your family. Kill them one by one. Do you think I don't dare to do it? Keep your arrogant attitude to yourself or you'll cause your family to be terminated. You useless pig! When you entered this Sect, your life was already mine! Even a king won't be able to help you. Understand!?”

“Arggh... let me go! I am the son of the great general Tian! You will die!”

“What kind of pig you are I already know! You are Tian Hu, a good for nothing young master. Your mother is Lian Xi, fourth wife of your father. Do you know why they sent you to Double Moon Sect and not Wu Imperial sword sect like your father and all of your brothers? It is because they want you to die here! Do you understand or not! You are just a useless pig, what do you have that it makes you so arrogant in front of me? I will kill you right now if you keep trying my patience!” Jaime stepped on one of his legs causing his bone to break.

“Aaaaah...alright... I understand!”

Jaime let him go. “This Double Moon Sect is not your playground, where you can play and have fun. This is the place to study martial arts. Make yourself strong, make you undefeatable under heaven. For now, you are just cockroaches, pigs, dogs and shit. But when I finish with all of you, every one of you will become dragons amongst men and phoenixes amongst women! ”Jaime shouted fiercely then thought quietly,

All of you will be my new lackey dogs! And do the three steps of being good disciples till you die. No... Till your sons and daughters and your grandchildren have to kiss my ass too! I won't let all of you go easily.

“Stand Up!” This time no one dared to complain. All the disciples stood up as fast as they could. Jaime looked at them and shouted. “To become strong, one must have a strong heart, have a strong mind and have a strong body. First I will train your body!”

Jaime moved to a big stone which was 3 meters high and 4 meters wide. Jaime took a sword from a random disciple. Putting spiritual energy into the sword, he waved it and easily penetrated the stone, creating a flat standing wall. At that wall, Jaime used the sword to carve a Rainbow Peak surrounding map.

“We are here!” Jaime pointed at a single dot on the wall map. “All of you will make twenty groups and start clearing this area!” Jaime drew a big circle on the map, Rainbow Peak Mountain’s peak as the core. “Clean the bushes, pick the herbs, kill the demonic beasts and put a stone, a size of a meter is the minimum, for every ten steps!”

Jaime took out a green jade as big as palm. That jade could record information and if someone put their mental energy in the jade, the information would be transferred to one’s brain. It cost 100 spiritual stones for one jade. It is very useful. Jaime had 10 of them. “This jade has information about the herbs you can collect. Put spiritual stones on the jade and it will record the information to your mind.”

Most of the disciples haven’t reached elementary realm yet, they didn’t know how to use spiritual energy. If they need to operate an object that needs spiritual energy, they could just use the spiritual stones by placing them on top.

“Master...” said one disciple. “We don’t have the tools to clean the bushes and pluck the herbs...”

“Then what is the sword on your hips used for!” Jaime sneered.

“But this sword is my family ancestor’s sword used for killing and drinking blood!”

“Don’t you know, when people eat only meat, it won’t do any good for the health. Your sword has eaten meat and drunken blood too much; it is time to make it healthier by being a vegetarian. Go cut the bushes and pluck the herbs. Your sword will feel better.” Jaime took a stone as big as his palm, filled it with his energy and threw it to a 2 meters stone. The big stone broke in half, causing all of the disciples to be afraid. Jaime then took another small stone and posed to throw the stone at the disciples. “Don’t you agree with me? If you have other opinions please feel free to share with me! I am a very open-minded master.”

Jaime eyes showed a different meaning. If you don’t agree, you can eat this stone and go die!

“I think my ancestor’s sword will be happy to be vegetarian for a while.”

“Good!” said Jaime while he carved twenty dots on the wall map. “This will be the starting points for each of your groups. The whole cycle is approximately 60 kilometers; each group will be responsible for 3 kilometers. Remember you must at least clear the areas 20 meters wide! All of you must finish it within three days. The group who finishes it within three days will get the cultivation of Double Moon and can starting to cultivate. For people who collect the herbs, they can choose to have cultivation or to study in making pills! And for groups that don’t finish their work within three days....they can keep working for the rest of their lives! I am doing this for your own good. It is for training your weak body! I care about you!”

This Rainbow peak will be my stronghold to take down entire Double Moon Sect, I will make a big defense formation here! If it finished, even the elder won’t be able to charge inside. So work hard and lay the foundation for me!

“Gong Na!” Jaime shouted and Gong Na walked out. “You will be in charge of this training! Do you have any question?”

“No?”

As Jaime went back to the peak of the mountain, he found Fatty Chen and his disciples have completely cleared the Ten Thousand Legs Centipede.

Fatty Chen rushed to Jaime. “Master welcome back, we already separate the demonic beast meat, blood and its skin neatly. We put it inside forty storage pouches.”

“Have you shared it between you?”

“Master killed this demonic beast we as disciple, didn’t dare to take it for ourselves.”

Jaime laughed. “Good, good, all of you are good disciples. To tell the truth because all of you have not yet reached elementary realms, having patriarch realm demonic beast’s meat and blood will do more harm to your body than good. I will keep this stuff with me, once you enter elementary realm I will prepare it for you!”

“Thank you master,” said all disciples in unison.

“Now, I see some of you have cleared your own cultivation cave. I want each of you to cultivate a Double Moon Sect Cultivation so you can extract the spiritual energy from spiritual stones and raise your level up to at least third level of elementary realm.”

“It is important because all of you definitely can’t take the [Sun and Moon] pill to clear your meridian before reaching elementary realm. I will give each of you 21 chapters of Double Moon Cultivation and five spiritual stones to cultivate.”

“We obey Master command!” Some of the disciples burst into tears. Once, they paid five spiritual stones to be accepted as disciples. Truthfully, it was quite pricey for them. When they found out their master real strength, they never regretted their decision, they even think of it as the best decision they ever taken.

But now, their master was willing to give them back their five spiritual stones for their cultivation. They felt loved and touched in the way they never could imagine.

A master that care about them! Tears fell.

Jaime glanced at his disciple’s faces and smiled.

Good, good, good. Remember how I care about you, how I will buy your life and your soul!

“I will imprint the cultivation to your brains; only after you finished the first chapter then the second chapter will show its information to you and so on. Once you reach elementary realm, you can ask for the [Sun and Moon] pills from me,” Jaime put his hand on Fatty Chen head and with his mental energy, imprints the complete Double Moon information to his brain. One by one the disciples got the imprint, they took five spiritual stone and closed their self into each cave and started their cultivation.

In the afternoon, Fatty Chen walked out from his cave with a silver bird that looks like an eagle but three times bigger. “Master, the tasks that Master gave to me two weeks ago is already finished without much trouble.”

Fatty Chen opened two storage pouches which were tied on to the bird legs. This bird is Fatty Chen’s messenger bird which is used for him to maintain contact with his family. Fatty Chen was from a very rich family background and had hundreds of stores throughout the whole Dragon and Phoenix continent. They usually use this bird to share information.

Two weeks ago, Jaime asked Fatty Chen to sell 70 [First Dragon Pills] and exchange it for herbs for producing the [Sun and Moon] pill. Jaime knew if he sells 70 pills to Double Moon’s market, he would be targeted by all the elders, also for buying herbs in large portions inside Double Moon’s Market is simply will cause trouble.

“The pills sold for 200.000 spiritual stones, which already excluded 5% selling fee. As for the herbs, cauldrons and all the stuff Master asked me to buy in bulk, it cost 190.300 spiritual stones. This is all the stuff, please checked it.” Fatty Chen gave two storage pouches to Jaime.

Jaime checked things inside and satisfied. “With all of these, we can start our plan to take down the entire sect!”

At Black Crow peak, an old guy read a small written message and suddenly became angry. “A mere ant wants to take an entire sect. He really doesn’t know what he is facing. We must kill him as fast as we can. Gu Fei did you check his identity?”

A black clothes man appeared and knelt. “Master, that boy name is Jaime. He was a village kid that was taken by Elder Fan months ago into this sect to become slave for his disciples. Zhou Wei tried to kill him but he escaped into the eight divisions.”

“This is impossible, Zhou Wei is already at fifth junior realm, and how he could miss in killing a mere slave. Do you have more information about him?”

“This one heard that Elder Fan wasn’t the first to discover that kid.”

“Who?”

“Elder Meng!”

The old guy suddenly stood. “So, it is Elder Meng, no wonder, no wonder!”

“What it is master?”

“That kid maybe one of Elder Meng’s core disciple!”

“He performed the Double Moon Thousand Swords and caused two full moon illusions, only disciples at the True Human Realm could cause that illusion. He knew our sect martial arts; of course he is one of us. From all the divisions only Elder Meng’s first division has core disciples at true human realm!”

“Why did Elder Meng plan this out?”

“Maybe he knew that we want to take over eighth divisions and sent that kid to stop our invasion. Have you ever asked Elder Meng about that kid?”

“One of our spy in First division asked Elder Meng but he only said that kid is the only survivor of village massacre. He knew nothing about that kid except that, that kid is only a normal kid without any cultivation!”

“Normal kid without any cultivation could perform Double Moon thousand swords and cause two moon illusion to appear? Who did he want to lie to! But if he pretended not knowing that kid, we will to! Send ten people to kill that kid right now! Wait no more; I want his head on my table tonight!”

“Yes Master!” Gu Fei stood but suddenly knelt again. “Master if that kid is already in True Human Realm, who will we send to kill him? Ten

The old guy laughed. “Elder Meng always thinks he is smart, he didn’t ever think that we also have hidden True Human Realm disciples! We will send our top ten best disciples to kill him tonight!”

Chapter 14: Three layers Fortress

“When you meet your enemy, you don’t forgive them. Because how can you forgive a person who had killed your mother, raped your sister and tortured your kids in front of you? Dying together seems easier than forgiving him. And will you forgive him because some random monk told you, that forgiveness is better for your heart, health, and... your enemy?”

Jaime was sitting, facing ten people in front of him. He didn’t know where they came from but they appeared out of the darkness in the middle of the night . While he was sleeping in the Patriarch Cave, these people easily entered the cave, as he left the entrance open.

They wanted to kill Jaime. Yet he looked at them with a smile. “I do have a very kind heart. I will forgive all of you, because we are humans. Humans have a heart, we have love, we have kindness and you are my brothers. We come from same fathers and mothers... apes.”

Three of them were at third, fifth, and sixth true human realm or level 43, 45 and 46. The others were at least on level eight of senior realm or level 38. All of them could gang up and kill him in the second.

“So what made all of you come to deliver your items and ownerless energy to me?” Jaime sucked in all of their energy balls. His level was raised to level 43 after he killed and absorbed the energy of the Ten Thousand Legs Centipede. Now after eating the energy of ten people, he quickly reached level 50 which put him into Elder Realm.

Jaime scratched his head in bewilderment. He really didn’t know what just had happened here. “Brothers, did you come here to buy a pill from me? To give me a gift? Or what? This one won’t refuse your gifts.” Jaime checked their belongings. “You know? Yesterday, my disciples asked me to kill a very strong demonic beast, that of course, I couldn’t do.”

“So I learned how to kill and tame demonic beasts with poison, exchanging 25 levels for it. With that information, I made a highly toxic poison. Especially created for the venomous demonic beasts like that centipede, and as I was scared about that big beast, I doubled; no I tripled the poison dose.”

“I put it on cloth and burned it slowly, so the poison would spread by the air. Last night, I opened the cave, threw it inside and closed it. So this cave is already full of poison mist. This morning, I opened it and asked my disciples to stay 100 meters from the cave so they wouldn’t get poisoned.”

“The thousand legs centipede was already barely hanging on. Its breath was so thin it was barely there as I came this morning, I stabbed it only once with a sword and it died peacefully. I had absorbed its energy and raised my level back up. Then I dragged it out and sealed the door.”

“Tonight I thought no one will dare to bother me. Since I am in the cave, my disciples also won’t dare enter freely. I opened the cave so the poison could disperse in the thin air. Yet the air in the deep cave was still poisoned, why didn’t you ask for antidote from me? Why have you entered and died here? I am.. ah... all of you make me feel bad. I don’t like to kill.” Jaime checked the quality of the sword. “Thanks for this item. You can come again whenever you want.”

The ten people who wanted to kill Jaime had rough information that he was in the True Human Realm or about level 41. They didn't know the exact level, but they assumed that he was at most at the peak of True Human Realm. So they thought it was better to be prepared.

In the middle of the night, they snuck in to rainbow peak and met with their informer. The disciple pointed towards Patriarch Cave. In the deep darkness of cave, was a bright shine of the fire.

“Leader do you want us to guard the cave?”

“No need, all of us will go in and out in seconds.”

Without hesitation all of them stormed the cave. They saw a young boy sleeping near the fire. Then, suddenly, all of them blacked out and went to heaven. The poison that Jaime made was for dealing with a Patriarch Realm beast. He had even doubled or tripled it! How could mere disciples of the True Human Realm hold on?

The disciple of Rainbow Peak was waiting outside the cave. Because he heard nothing, he started to become confused.

How could the ten people enter for killing and make no sound?

Suddenly Jaime walked out and looked at him.

“Ah, I am truly glad you came here. Take this storage pouch and throw the things in the river, can you do it?”

“I will do it Master.”

“Please pray for good luck when throwing it.” Jaime went back to his cave.

The disciples went to the nearest river and emptied the storage pouch. “Ashes?” He checked closely and found a part of a human bone. “Human ashes,” realized the disciple and fainted.

The old man in the fifth division woke up in the morning and found nothing on his table. “Gu Fei!”

No one answered.

He went to attack with the others last night, why didn't he come back yet?

Jaime worked very hard to refine the [Sun and Moon] pills and other pills in the last three days. On time, he passed to Fatty Chen one hundred and one [Sun and Moon] pills, so that he could share them between the disciples. Yawning, he walked down from the Mountain Peak and went to the Rainbow Peak to check the work done by the rest of his disciples. After he checked the 60 kilometer cycle, he felt satisfied with the results. One meter stones were placed every ten steps. Jaime walked to the Rainbow Peak's field and smiled at the four hundreds disciples.

“All of you are doing good work.” Jaime looked at Gong Na face. His eyes were red and blood shot. “You are a good leader.”

“Like I have promised, I will give you 5 chapters of Double Moon cultivation. It will be enough until you reach the True Human realm.” Jaime took out a green jade slip which already had the information inside. “In a week all of you must reach the elementary realm, or I will personally break your bones. Now you can start running circles around this mountain peak.”

Jaime drew a smaller circle in the stone wall map. “It will be around 20 kilometer. When you get back here, you can take the cultivation method from the jade slip, sit here in the middle of the field, and cultivate for two hours. Then you will start running again, cultivate afterwards and repeat this until sunset. When your body is tired, your muscles and blood will start breathing crazily. It will help your body to absorb heavenly and earth energies more easily.”

Some of the disciples became happy because they could start to learn cultivation now. But most of them were thinking of it as a hell training.

“All of you start running, you lazy pigs! I will break your bones in no time if you keep being grumpy. Start running now! The last runner will taste my fist!”

The entire group hastily started to run. Jaime stopped Gong Na and his forty or so followers. They were the higher level disciples, around 10-14 level.

“Gong Na, in the past, you were promised by the other divisions, if you could follow their commands to cause trouble for the eighth division, you would be accepted as their disciple. I too can give you what they promised and even more, so follow me from now on. In a week, you can learn all the Double Moon secret moves.”

“No, I lied to you.” Jaime sneered. “Now move one hundred stones as big as a human body to surround this field! I want to make a formation for gathering heaven and earth energies here. Move your asses! You are my slaves; you will work for me till you die.”

The first runner finished running after an hour. He touched the jade disk, learned the cultivation method and suddenly realized there was a big circle in the middle of the field. It was so large that it could contain a thousand people without any problem. Outside of the big circle there was an even bigger circle. Each circle had an ancient symbol written on them, and some stones were positioned at the arranged point. Jaime had been drawing complex formations on each of the big stones.

“Cultivate in the middle,” yelled Jaime to the disciple. He started to sit down inside the circle and cultivate according to the jade slip. Suddenly he felt the heaven and earth energies surround him. It was a thicker and easier spiritual energy to collect.

Jaime crushed ten healing pills and mixed it with water. The water became fog, under Jaime’s spiritual energy guidance the fog filled the formation. The disciple who was tired suddenly felt his body recover quickly. All the fatigue was gone, giving him a pleasant feeling to keep cultivating.

Then Jaime put spiritual stones in the middle of each big stones’ formations. The spiritual stones lit up, pouring its spiritual energy into the formation and the mini formation started to move like a complex gear, making the big stone shine brightly. As the big stones activated one by one, the whole stone lit up and large cycle formation began to shine, giving an illusion of huge gear—with strange symbols moving rapidly inside the gear. The huge gear’s illusion was accompanied by hundreds of small sets of formation gears—from each big stone— they created a complex arrangement of gears, moving like a complicated machine. The large formation caused a whirl of spiritual energy.

The whirl of spiritual energy gathered the heavenly and earth energies from the surroundings to the middle of the large formation circle. This caused the density of the spiritual energy to keep rising inside formation.

While more and more disciples made it back to the field, Jaime kept working to create more stone formations. Gong Na and his followers also continued helping Jaime until sunset.

All of the disciples finally made it back to the field feeling tired with the urge to vomit. Jaime stood on one of the big stones and said, “From today till next week, all of you will sleep in the middle of this formation. You will eat demonic beast’s meat to help your body grow stronger; you will drink mountain’s mist and you will be nurtured by my unlimited love to you.”

No one dared to protest. Gong Na and his followers have finished cooking the demonic beast’s meat and actively distributed it to the others.

“Eat till you’re full, sleep and wake up earlier. Tomorrow, all of you will arrange a thousand stones for 20 kilometer’s formation cycle!”

Work more for me, heeheehee.

Later that night, all of the disciples were sleeping in the middle of the formation. Although there was no rain, the fog filled the field. It was still autumn, though in the mountains it was already very cold. No disciple had a problem with the hard earth and cold air. Instead, they felt really comfortable and fell asleep the second their heads touched the ground.

Jaime looked at them motionlessly.

“Thousands of years have passed, humans are still the same. They struggle to reach their dream; they fight hard and work hard. However, all of them will soon die because of old age or their enemies. Humans, what are they living for?”

Jaime saw, that some disciples, although they have worked hard, were smiling while sleeping. They thought that to sleep after hard work is a heaven's gift.

“Tomorrow I will force them to work even harder, so they can wash their smiles off their faces.”

Following his words, Jaime forced all of them to move two thousands stones, which were twice as big as the stones used for previous 60 kilometers' cycle formation. They were making a second large formation, with the peak rainbow mountain as the core; it was 20 kilometers' cycle formation. It will suck heaven and earth energies to fill every cave inside the mountain peak with spiritual energy and the formation also can be used as a defense mechanism. The spiritual energy can create an invisible wall or invisible chains to trap enemy.

It's been three days since the disciples started Jaime's hell training. He stood on one of the big stones looking displeased.

“Your smiles are giving me a very bad taste in my mouth. These three days, all of you kept smiling even after I forced you to train under my hell training! Maybe my heart has become soft. My hell didn't as harsh as I think.”

Most of the disciples continued smiling, because in these three days, almost all of them raised their levels real quickly.

Majority had already reached elementary realm. It was because Jaime kept pouring hundreds of spiritual stones, healing pills and strengthens pills to boost their cultivation.

From normal realm to elementary realm, the level will be rising quickly if provided with enough spiritual stones, pills and tremendous amounts of heavenly and earth energies. Even with the most stupid and untalented one, just sleeping in the middle of the formation can raise his level.

How could they not be smiling, if every day, they have increased their levels? Now, if Jaime wanted to kick them out, they would come back kneeling, crawling and begging to let them join.

“Good, we will start to clean this place.” Jaime drew a smaller circle on the wall map. The circle was surrounding the peak of the mountain. “It will be around 10 kilometers, and you must move stones four times bigger than the first circle. Finish it within three days!”

Jaime laughed hard, because when his three layer formation is done, no one under patriarch realm could enter.

In the first division’s courtyard, the elders were sitting together. Elder Hu from Black Crow division glanced at Elder Meng. He had waited for a week but nobody of his top ten disciples ever came back. Those ten were his secret weapons to become the Patriarch of Double Moon Sect.

“Elder Meng, you quietly cleaned out my secret weapons and can still act like you don’t know what happened! None of the elders here can mobilize a power to kill my top ten disciples except you!”

“About the discussion!” said Elder Hu. They have discussed for half day and were near the final decision. “In the next five days, we will have an outer and inner disciple’s tournament that happens annually, but this time, the winner will have the entire eighth division place, Rainbow Peak. Any disciples bellow 30 years old can join the competition. Are we in agreement?”

“I don’t refuse but why must it be so quick? Why not wait until next month and follow the annual schedule.” said Elder Meng in a disagreeable tone.

Elder Hu stood to voice his stance, “Elder Huang, Rainbow Peak’s elder, has been gone for 100 years. There are more than five hundred disciples left. We must take care them; they are our sect’s disciples too.”

“Really?” Elder Meng looked at the elder Hu. “I heard that in the past week, a senior disciple appeared in the eighth division and organized the disciples there. Didn’t you ever think that maybe he is Elder Huang direct disciple? He already takes care of the disciples. Why do we need to care about them anymore?”

“Do you think I don’t know? That disciple is yours and you want to take the eighth division!” Elder Hu angrily looked at Elder Meng. Both of them have their own power and elders that support them.

“I don’t care, we must announce the tournament for our disciples!

Winner takes it all! How many elders agree with me?”

Four elders raised their hand. It made four out of the seven and elders agreed.

Elder Meng sighed. “Seven divisions of our disciples will fight for the winner, but what about Elder Huang? What will we say to him when he comes out of his closed cultivation?”

“He will step down from his Elder position. As for Rainbow Peak, all of our seven divisions will help each other to conquer it, if Elder Huang doesn’t want to let it go!”

Elder Hu sneered, “Even if you and your whole first division want to protect Rainbow Peak, all of us will destroy your division together with eighth division. Now, what will you do?”

Chapter 15: First Troops

“Even if you asked the heavens to stop me, I won’t stop. In front of the kings, I’ll spit on their faces, in front of the god, I’ll trample his body. In front of Beelzebub, the king of demons, he will kneel before me and lick my ass. I am their king, I am unstoppable. No one will be able to stop me. Neither beauty nor goddess! No one will be able to dictate to me! They would need to walk over my dead body!” Jaime forced his disciples to punch a tree. Their hands were already hurt badly but Jaime kept forcing them to train.

“Master! Please let me take a rest!”

“You won’t be able to stop me! Keep hitting!”

“Master I have a few spiritual stones here, please take it and go somewhere else.”

Jaime looked at the spiritual stones, took them and went away.

Who didn’t love money?

Yesterday all of the disciples finished the three layers of formations. These formations have two functions, they can be used as a defensive mechanism or gather spiritual energy from the surroundings. If one checked carefully, he would see that the heaven and earth energy around Double Moon Mountain was slowly being collected at Rainbow Mountain’s peak.

The density of spiritual energy in Rainbow Peak will keep getting denser every day.

As they finished the work, Jaime started training them more seriously.

“From this day onwards, disciples who have herbs will start learning to make the easiest pills, healing pills. I have already bought 30 cauldrons. So gather in groups of five people. If you succeed in making pills in three days, I personally will give you a cultivation method that is ten times better than Double Moon Cultivation!”

Some disciples let out screams of joy and quickly grabbed their friends.

“For all of you, I will give you three of the best martial arts from Double Moon sect. Having one of them can already make you a king in the deserted place. But of course you need to show me if you have a strong heart and are willing to learn it.”

Jaime raised his sword and a double moon illusion appeared. After the illusion shattered there were thousands of energy swords rushing to the tree and destroying it into small pieces, even its leaves were cut several times. All of the disciples were dumbfounded by this act. It caused them to feel amazed and drool started dripping from their mouths.

“If you want to learn about Double Moon Thousands Sword, you have to kill ten demonic beasts using your sword and give me their cores.”

Some of the disciples turned pale, but with their cultivation at elementary realm, it was not impossible.

Jaime found a big stone, four times the size of his body, and hit it with a light punch. The stone trembled before it shattered into pieces. Disciples were in awe, imagining how this punch would hit their enemies. Their bones will be shattered. A bud of fear rooted itself in their hearts. Finally all of them were aware of Jaime's strength.

“If you want to learn Double Moon Fist Shattering Mountain, you will have to punch ten trees and take them down with your bare hands.”

Jaime moved his body and in a second he swiftly passed through the four hundreds disciples, without touching any of them.

“If you want to learn Double Moonlight Flash Movement, you will have to run around this mountain ten times before sunset! If you can finish one of these requirements within three days, I will give you ten times better cultivation method, the cultivation method of Dragon and Phoenix!”

“Yes Master!” answered disciples, this time they really shouted from the bottom of their hearts. Deep inside their hearts, they had a yearning to become strong! Some of them were crying and one of them murmured. “After the six years I was here, at last the heavens gave me an opportunity to learn a martial art. I will work my hardest! Thanks God!”

The worst tragedy in life is not to work hard, but to not have the chance to work hard, striving to achieve something you really want.

Two elders were standing at the peak of a mountain, looking at Jaime.

“What do you think about him?”

“Well, he really learned Double Moon Cultivation. He might even have a deeper understanding than us! Can you also create an illusion of Double Full Moons?”

“Not that bright.”

“He is still young, not even in twenties, yet he is already at the Elder Realm. No one on this continent has ever had that much talent. His future will be unpredictable.”

“Do you think he is our enemy?”

The old man was silent for a second, “Hard to say, but an enemy wouldn’t teach our disciples about how to keep the dignity of Double Moon Sect. Maybe he is a disciple of Elder Huang or other elder. Look at the formations he made. It is making the energy denser on Rainbow Peak, I hope he will join us and raise Double Moon Sect’s name.”

“Well, we will need to slow the preparation for the tournament.”

On the other side, the other two elders also looked at Rainbow Peak “Look at the formation and the density of the energy. We must quickly finish the preparation and open the tournament! So we can take this place sooner. I can’t wait to let my disciples cultivate there”

Three day passed quickly, four hundred disciples, increased their levels again. Jaime was already using the [Sun and moon] pills on the formation which caused their meridians and bones to be cleaned without them knowing. He also went ahead and exchanged 20 levels to receive the Dragon and Phoenix Cultivation. This brought his level down from level 50 to 30. He was set to build his troops.

At that time, Jaime selected thirty disciples with talent in making pills and sixty-nine disciples with good talent in martial arts. Together, they were ninety-nine. Jaime took them to the peak of the mountain and joined them with the previous one hundred and one disciples.

Together, there are two hundred disciples.

“All of you have cleaned your body and meridians. All of you are ready for better cultivation.” Jaime looked at the stars. “Come with me, I will guide all of you to the realm that no one in this continent has ever reached. All of you will be the new stars that shine through the sky. Together we will trample the continent, storm the heaven, rule the demons, and make your family proud of you!”

“Today, I will personally give each of you the Dragon cultivation method for the males and the Phoenix cultivation method for the females. This cultivation is ten times better than Double Moon Sect cultivation. If not the best cultivation in the whole continent. In our continent, no one will ever reach a step of demigod realm or half-demon realm. In this small continent, if someone reaches Emperor Realm, they would be known as the best of the best. But I want to tell you that you can achieve more than just Emperor Realm or even Ancestor Realm”

“Master, is that true?” asked Fatty Chen, his hands were trembling from excitement, caused by such possibility.

“It will all depend on how hard you work.” Jaime remembered nostalgic memories of Fu Gu Chai when he was leading his first disciples. There isn’t anyone who could fight the power of youth. They were still full of dreams.

“I want to warn you about this method. I will give it to you by branding it into your brains and you won’t be able to share it with others, because you will forget everything when you try to share the information. You will forget about me, your brothers and sisters and everyone here.”

Jaime wasn’t trying to make them scared, it is just that every sect has its own way of keeping their cultivation methods in secret. They wouldn’t want their enemies to know how to get stronger. Because of this, after Dragon and Phoenix cultivation method is given to the disciples, they won’t be speaking about it or else they will forget everything. Including the first time they got it.

“All of you, are you ready to learn this cultivation method and take me as Master? I am not talking about power this time, but it is all about sharing the fate together. My fate is to conquer the three realms in one hundred years. The truth is, 21 chapters of Double Moon Cultivation I had given to you, will be enough for you to be the best in this continent and you can easily live more than one hundred years in happiness. But once you are bonded by fate with me as Master and disciple, you will have to share my fate, which may be full of blood and hardships. I, as your Master, can't always protect you. What I can promise is that I will do my best for all of you. If any of you want to go back now, I won't forbid."

Fatty Chen said with teary eyes. "Master, without you, all of us were fated to be a useless trash in this continent. You have already gave your best to us in a few weeks. Even though we couldn't give back anything, you still thought about us. People live once and die once. This Fatty Chen's life this time will be shared with his Master's. Let me be your hands, be your legs, be everything you need." He stood and looked at the other disciples. "Who else will be my brother or sister to share the fate with Master? We will go through the glory and pain together! When our Master asks us to climb the heavens we will conquer it! When our Master asks us to go to hell, we will kill the King of hell and put our Master on the throne! Who else will be with me?!"

"ME! ME! ME!", One by one, all of the disciples stood up and shouted. Their eyes burst into tears and their chests were full with pride! Their blood was boiling to the level they could never imagine. Suddenly they felt a sacred feeling and understood somehow, that this was the meaning of their lives, to follow their master till the end of the world or to the end of their breath without regret.

Jaime stood and shouted. "So be it! All of you will share glory and blood with me. No one in this life, nor god nor demon can break this bond between us! I will be your Master and you will be my brothers and sisters! Let Heaven acknowledge this bond, my dreams will be your dreams and your dreams will be my dreams! When I conquer the heavens all of you will be there with me!”

Most of the disciples burst in tears.

That night, Jaime branded Dragon and Phoenix cultivation method on their brains. As for pill makers, Jaime gave them cultivation methods and recipes of a few pills that will help them break through Junior Realm, Senior Realm, True Human Realm, Elder Realm, even Patriarch Realm. “Use this recipe for your brother and sister’s goodness.”

After he gave everyone the cultivation method, Jaime took out a storage pouch. “In this storage pouch you will find 200 spiritual stones, [Sun and Moon] pills, low level [First Dragon] pill for Senior Realm, Real [First Dragon] pill for True Human Realm and [True Dragon] pill for elder realm each. There are also some healing pills, strengthen pills, Patriarch Realm Demonic Beast’s meat and blood, which I had refined, you can eat it whenever you like. Every one of you will have one storage pouch with these items inside. Think of it as a gift from me.”

Fatty Chen and other disciples were trembling, for each of them knew the meaning behind these pills. For inner disciples, a master only gives First Dragon Pill to a chosen one. And inner disciples were killing each other to get that pill. As for pills for True Human Realm and Elder Realm, they must depend on their luck in Kang Ow. As for a storage pouch, not even an elder can have it easily.

“I am sorry that I can’t give you more than these. When I have more, I will give you more.” Jaime already worked so hard to produces these kinds of pills in the last few days and sold some for spiritual stones.

The disciples said nothing when they took the gifts for each of them. They just paid with silent tears when they were taking the items.

“Now, all of you are prepared, go to your cave and do closed door cultivation. Maybe we will meet in the next 5 years. At that time, I don’t know what your level will be, but I only want all of you to remember. All of you are Double Moon Sect disciples. Family and sect are things that you mustn’t betray in your life.”

“Masters are like your parents. They will not harm you. They will protect you and give you the best. They are the happiest person when you achieve something bigger. For me, your master here, I want to take down all the elders for the sake of Double Moon Sect’s well-being. We don’t want elders of each division to start killing each other, making this sect going backward again. This sect has so much meaning for me, more than my family and parents.”

After saying that, two hundred disciples bowed , went to their own caves and closed the doors. They will stay there for five years, full of determination to get stronger enough to support their master.

Jaime smiled; his first force in conquering this realm will be ready in the next 5 years.

The next morning, Jaime went to the rainbow peak field where the disciples were assembled with confusing faces.

“What happened?”

“Master!” Li Xing bowed his head and said quickly. “All the divisions of Double Moon Sect moved to the Moonlight Flower Field.”

Jaime knew that Moonlight Flower Field is located in the east of Double Moon Mountain, it is a flat land for three kilometers and usually used for the sect meetings or celebrations.

“What are they doing there?”

“They are having an annual tournament for the new disciples!”

“Master, this time it’s not only the new disciples, but as long as the disciples under 30 years age, they can join the tournament. The winner’s prize is our eighth division!”

“What!” Jaime shocked. His plan—to dominate the world by having Double Moon Sect as his first stronghold—was not ready to bloom yet, but was already being forcefully dug out.

“You are not making a mistake, are you?”

“What do we do Master?! We will lose this place.”

“Of course we will go there and cause trouble as much as we can to protect this place from being taken from us!”

“But we would have to face all the seven divisions!”

The time has come to cause the biggest trouble ever to this sect.

Chapter 16: Dream Big

“Once there was a big earthquake that happened in a small province. All of the houses fell. They were pretty much crushed. Since almost all of the houses were made of wood, they caught on fire in no time, after being destroyed by the earthquake.”

“ After the earth calmed down, and the fires died away, and all the tragedies were in the past, all that was left were the ashes. One man was looking at his grocery store, which was already razed to the ground by the disaster. He said, ‘I will never give up on this place. I will stay here and build bigger shop than the previous one. To make my wife happy forever and after!’ He worked hard for years. Little by little he collected his money and built his shop twice as big as the previous one. Then a group of bandits came and they said, ‘In this poor land you worked hard to build the biggest shop ever just so I can come and take it. Thanks, I will receive your gift. Now you can get out with your life intact.’ So what do you think he had done?”

“He said to the bandits, ‘I have always dreamed to be a bandit and lead a life as a freeman.’ Then he started to serve them with everything he had. He took out all of the best liquors he had to make them drink. When bandits had fainted from being drunk, he burnt the entire shop and said. ‘When it burns to the ashes, I will build my shop twice as big and twice as safe as the previous one! So my wife can be happy and safe!’”

“After a few years, he built another shop, twice as large as the previous one. At that time, his wife poisoned him and took over his shop. She even had a younger boy to warm her bed. When she was dying from old age, she was asked why had she killed her husband. This is what she answered, ‘My husband was too busy building the shop all his life, and as he was exhausted working every night, he would reject me when I wanted to have sex! He was worthless; he can die another thousand times, for he couldn't warm my heart and body.”

Jaime didn't feel exactly the same, it's just he worked hard to build the eighth division and then some random guy appeared, wanting to take his place, and told him to get out naked.

“Master, we can't go to the tournament. Only Elder Huang can stop it. Many elders are scared of Elder Huang! He was the strongest elder even before he started his closed-door cultivation. Only he has the power to stop this from happening!” Li Xian tried to convince Jaime.

Jaime thought for a moment and went back to the mountain peak. He went to Gong Na's cave and forced him out.

“Master, what are you doing?”

“Now you tell me, what did you tell to the elder of the fifth division, Elder Hu? In the past he was your boss, right? Do you still contact him?”

“I don't understand? What is Master saying? Even if he was my boss in the past, I have already forgot about him. When I lost to the Master, he closed the door on me. He was not willing to take me as his fifth division's disciple anymore. After that we lost contact. What happened?”

Jaime frowned. “Tell me where is Elder Huang closed cultivation cave! We must drag him out.”

“Elder’s cave is special. No one can open it except the people inside.” Gong Na was telling the truth but Jaime didn’t seem to care and forced him to lead the way.

In front of the big cave with a big boulder closing the entrance, Jaime went to the small stone behind the cave. It was hidden for a hundred years in the thick bushes. Jaime used his sword to cut the bushes and touched the stone.

His hand moved, creating a small formation. Jaime forced his spiritual and mental energies in the stone. Suddenly, the illusion of moon appeared behind him and a complicated symbol appeared. The stone filled with an azure energy suddenly shined. The boulder at the entrance began to move slowly, uncovering a large hole.

Gong Na was surprised. “How come, Master can open it? The legend said that only the founder or the patriarch can open any cave in Double Moon Sect when the dangerous situation emerges!”

“Keep it for later, follow me.” Jaime rushed into the cave but what he faced really made him dumbfounded. There was no Elder Huang, but only a skeleton sitting in the meditation posture. Jaime stopped and seemed to be completely baffled. “Why did Elder Huang bring a skeleton to cultivate?”

Gong Na fell to his knees in shock and said, “Elder Huang has died!”

“How do you know that he is Elder Huang?”

“Master, this is the proof.” Gong Na took the space storage pouch from the skeleton and threw it to Jaime. “Only the elder can have a cosmos bag.”

Jaime checked the belongings inside and took out a small badge engraved with number eighth and some writings on ancient language. This is truly a badge that only the leaders of the division can have.

This old man may have done something wrong, using uncompleted cultivation method, and caused his meridians to explode, which lead to his death. It can happen to some cultivators.

“Say nothing about what you saw here. Close the door and do not let anyone to know about this. Go back to your cave and continue close cultivation.” Jaime body flashed out and left Gong Na alone.

“All disciples assemble in ten minutes and we will move out to protect the dignity of eighth division!” Jaime stared at the three hundreds or so disciples and said, “All of you follow me to the tournament area. We will start a war with them!”

“Master, there are only three hundreds of us, how can we start a war against them?”

“Scare not! We will call for more allies along the way! ”

Jaime bought all of the disciples of the eighth division to the Moonlight

Flower Field, leaving no one behind, except the 200 in the cave. When they moved along the road this group attracted a lot of attention. As they got closer to their destination, the road became more crowded. This was the only road, leading to the Moonlight Flower Field. Suddenly Jaime's eyes lit up and he gave a command, "Stop!"

There was a group of pretty women, who wanted to move past them. Jaime and the other male disciples opened their eyes wide.

"Master, they are from the fourth division, Violet Peak disciples. Most of them are the women who couldn't cultivate past senior realm, so they are studying to make pills." Li Xing was always at Jaime side, giving him important information.

Jaime looked at the group of women; their clothing was bright and was very clean, their hair was long and smooth was their skin, sexy lips on their faces and sexy hips under their waist. With their steps full of elegance they were walking. With mellifluous voices they were talking. With a smile on their faces they were filled with grace.....

A bunch of angels!

"You know," said Jaime. "There are a lot of women, who will be passing this road, it is not polite of us to disturb them or suddenly bump into them." Jaime looked at the women disciples at his division. "Why can't any of you to look like them, to be clean and to have body with a nice smell? Look at all of you, you wear dirty clothes, reek of sweat, dont treat your skin, dont wash your hair and... Ah... Are you really the women? Who is your master? I really want to see his face."

All the women disciples already had their hands on the swords.

You are our master, you asked us to sleep on the earth, train like a crazy ant. How can we have time for our beauty care?!

Jaime gave command. “We are in no hurry, please take a sit and enjoy the view.”

They sat on the side of the road, looking at the women as they were passing by. Jaime glared at the pretty women, young women, and good-looking women. The women below his standard were like an air in Jaime’s eyes.

“Psst... psst... pretty girl please look over here!” yelled Jaime suddenly. The entire eighth division was shocked.

Jaime looked at them, “What? You are still young, you are free to cause trouble and the adults will forgive you. Anyway, all women love to get attention and receive compliments, they are hungry for love, please free yourself, little brats.”

The disciples looked as if they were absolutely dumbfounded for a moment. They were thinking, was their master joking or did he really mean it?

Jaime sighed and shook his head with disappointment. “All of you are still young yet already scared to dream high! It really makes me uneasy about your future; you put shame on your master.”

“Dream big. Dream about having these beautiful girls crawling intimately on your chest! If you are scared to dream about having one of them in your bed, then dream about having five or ten of these angels in your bed together. Never be scared dreaming big! Understand?”

“Understood Master!” male disciples shouted in unison and with shining eyes moved out like a pack of hungry wolves. They scattered on the roadside, taking their seats . In no time, they started to shout. “Girl! Pretty girl! Please look over here! Girl in white clothes! Oh my angel! Please come to me baby! Lovely girl with the ponytail! White skinned girl psssttt.... Fatty girl, you make me want to hug you!”

Suddenly, the entire road was full of callings from the bunch of barbaric idiots. At this moment the dignity of the eighth division was thrown out of the window. Now there were only a bunch of lowly youngsters with shitty mouths.

As the women were casually passing, they immediately changed their attitude. Some had their faces turn red, some felt proud with their chest sticking out, and some started bad mouthing and cursing. Any way, it was a good show for the eyes.

Some women took out their sword and wanted to cut these disciples. “If you lowly human beings want to tease me. You better be ready to die!”

“Fight!” shouted Jaime loudly, making all of his disciples shocked. “If you are a man, fight with her and make her be yours! Exchanging your sword moves and with your blood boiling you will become more intimate! Remember no one can kill your brothers and sisters! Now go and fight! Winner will get the loser, whenever you win or you lose, you will still end up with her.”

So they fought fiercely!

“You dare to look at my girl! You will die!” One male disciple couldn’t hold himself when his loved one got teased.

Jaime sneered and yelled. “Everyone listen to me! A great man comes to save the beauty. Don’t let him get what he wants. Gang up on him immediately!”

Ten or twenty disciples were high-spirited, ganging up on that unlucky fellow. The situation was really in a mess. The situation around the big road was getting worse and worse with the time. Soon, everyone from the eighth division was busy fighting, ganging up, and hitting. Some of the women disciples used that time to seduce some nerd disciples.

Jaime suddenly realized that a woman was like a timid cat in front of a guy. But when ten women make a group and gang up one guy, they suddenly transform into hungry wolves preying on a chicken, not even a feather of the guy can pass their blockade. Jaime shook his head as he watched more and more women disciples to come back with the pills, spiritual stones, swords, and even clothes. He was not clear how many unlucky guys they robbed clean with their femininity.

As the situation was getting worse and worse, Jaime saw a group of disciplinary committee members rush to them. “All of you! Use Double Moonlight Flash and head to Moonlight Flower Field! Remember that each of you have to run around Moonlight Flower field three times before stopping!” Jaime shouted and rushed to Moonlight Flower Field.

When the disciples saw their master making his way, they quickly followed.

“Don’t let them go, chase them! They stole my sword!”

“Don’t think you can run away after hitting me! Brothers chase them.”

“All of you chase them, they are taking our sisters!”

“Sisters, help!”

Jaime looked at one of his disciples who was embracing a women disciple and running very fast. “Why are you taking her?”

“Master, this disciples dreamed to have one hot baby and now I am working to make dream come true!”

“Well, good luck to you!” Jaime shouted loudly. “All of you listen; this is a real man, not scared to make his dream real! All of you have to learn from him.”

With red eyes, some male disciples randomly embraced a female disciple as they passed, taking those pretty girls with them.

“Good! Never be scared to dream big. There will be hardship to make it real, but it is worth it!” Jaime glanced behind him and hundreds of people were following them with madness. In front of them was Moonlight Flower Field, crowded with people. “Break through and run around the field.”

Nearly one thousand people charged through the thousands of people, causing a bigger chaos. As Jaime, his disciples, and their pursuers rushed between the people in the crowd, it caused more problems and a bigger mess.

“Who dares to hit me! Wait! After them!”

“Say sorry before you leave!”

“Who stealed my money! Stop!”

The whole tournament was now a real big mess. People were hitting each other, running, and chasing.

When the elders arrived, they were shocked with what they saw.

“All of you stop!” shouted an elder infusing his voice with spiritual energy, stunning everybody, so all of them immediately stopped.

“Good chance! Hit them now!” Another shout caused people to be dumbstruck, but some of them quickly used this moment to hit hard their standing enemies.

“Bastard! You dare to hit me! I’ll fight back!” They stopped listening and charged at their opponents.

“Stop!” shouted the Elder again, but this time no one dared to stop, as their enemy will use this chance to charge at them again. They will better keep fighting.

“We need to take care of this mess with our own hands.” The seven elders and their elite disciples rushed to stop the chaos. As they started to intervene, suddenly a fire lit up from the tents and stores, that were spreading along the Moonlight Flower Field. A lot of chairs started to burn too, causing the chaos to become uncontrollable.

As for Jaime and his disciples, they were already running back to their division. They knew only one thing; the tournament won’t be starting today.

It took half a day to calm down the chaos. Elder Hu’s anger was reaching the skies. “Who dared to cause this mess and ruin the entire tournament?!”

“It was the disciples from the eight division, who caused the mess!” Some of disciples reported, already being beaten black and blue!

Elder Hu fiercely glanced at the Elder Meng.

“So you are trying everything to cancel the tournament!”

“Eighth division caused trouble for the sect and has to be punished; all the divisions must send their disciples to punish the eighth division now! If not, the division that refuses to help will be accused of protecting the eighth division and will be charged with fine to repair the damage they have created!”

Elder Hu sneered at Elder Meng.

“This time, you won’t be able to stop me from conquering the eighth division.”

In half of an hour one thousand disciples moved out to attack the eighth division, most of them were the outer disciples. Seventh Elder was leading the way.

Chapter 17: To die with the dignity

“Oh warrior, walk your path to war, seek justice, die for loyalty, and win for glory. Cut your enemy’s neck, let their blood pour to the earth, raise their souls to heaven. Oh mighty warrior, walk the path to death without fear! Glory awaits you, heaven waits for you, but no one waits for the coward. Move by yourself, take out your sword, don’t be a sissy. You are born to be a man!” Jaime stood on a big boulder and looked at the one thousand disciples.

“If you stop attacking, you are a sissy! Wear women clothes next time! If you are a man and not a pig, come at me, kill me and attack me.” Jaime laughed happily. “All of you are brainlessly stupid. What are you glaring at with your angry wide eyes! Come at me if you are a man. What have you been painfully training for all this years? For fighting a staring war?”

Hundreds of disciples moved their swords, full of killing intent towards Jaime! As they were closing in on Jaime, they suddenly stopped. They attacked nothing but an invisible wall. They tried hard and kept attacking with all they had, yet nothing happen.

Jaime kept dancing on the boulder while insulting them, being as infuriating as possible. He has turned on the defense formation and caused a layer of energy to cover the whole division.

Elder Hu came and shouted, “All of you the shame of our divisions. Get away!” He slashed his sword filling it with his entire power. It created a big wave, which shot everywhere. He launched an attack to the wall but the invisible wall still stood there without any cracks. Elder Hu face turned red with embarrassment, he launched a few more attacks.

“Look how that monkey dances, don’t you agree he is dancing quite well?” said Jaime to his disciples. No one dared to speak a word. Elder Hu was known as short tempered and could easily kill a person he doesn’t like. Elder Hu almost vomited blood. He already tried his best, yet he couldn’t even leave a scratch. Let alone the other disciples, he didn’t know where to put his face in front of his own disciples.

“I will kill you.” He stopped his attacks and glared at Jaime, as if he wanted to eat him alive.

“Go back to your mommy’s tits and suck it for one thousand more years then come back, maybe at that time I will let you kiss my ass!”

Elder Hu eyes turn red, his killing intent raised to a whole new level. He started to launch his best attacks, without caring about his health anymore.

Jaime took a chair from his space storage pouch while looking at Elder Hu struggle. “A monkey dancing again! What are you doing? Quickly give the applause so the monkey will dance even better to entertain all of us!”

The disciples started to give applause and some quickly mocked and made fun of Elder Hu. “Monkey, Skinny Monkey, Chubby monkey, Dance, Dance monkey! This father will give you banana after you dance well.”

This made the others disciples face turn pale, leaving Elder Hu to vomit blood and fall.

“The chief monkey fell down, so what are the monkey minions doing? Not taking action?” Some elders and the one thousand disciples tried their best to attack the defensive formation again but they couldn’t even move a single step. At the end, they just stood there, glaring at Jaime with anger. Because that little monkey kept insulting them for a few hours, it made them want to vomit blood.

Jaime sat just ten steps away from the elders but no one could touch him.

Elder Meng looked at the young guy, “Elder Fan, don’t you think that this young boy looks like the one you took from the village a few months ago?”

Elder Fan said nothing.

Elder Guo from seventh division, Sword Peak, moved to the front. “Who are you, why are you causing trouble for this sect?”

“Me? Causing trouble? Who do you think the real one causing trouble for this sect? Every one of you wanted to destroy the eighth division with its one thousand year history. Haven’t you ever thought that you are the ones causing trouble for this sect?!” Jaime shouted back to them. “Didn’t the founder of this sect ask every one of you to take care of this sect?”

“At the founding of this sect, there were 12 divisions!” Jaime showed the illusion of the 12 moons behind his body. This caused all of the disciples to become shocked, even the elder were shocked. “Now it is only eight divisions and all you want is to make it seven! What are you, if not unfaithful disciples of your own sect! I caused a mess in the tournament to protect eighth division. That makes me the guardian of this sect, but all of you want to destroy eighth division! What does that make you if not traitors!”

“Even a dog won’t bite his owner. So what are you, want to destroy your own sect, are you still human! Do you still have a face to meet your master! Even your dead masters will regret taking you in as their disciples if they knew about this! Fuck off!”

Elder Meng and some of the other elder didn’t agree about this tournament, so they kept their mouths shut.

“What do you know about this sect, you are not from this sect!” Elder Zhang from half-moon division, the second division, who was Elder Hu’s best friend, yelled. “You even asked other sect members to help you build this formation so other sect members can take over this sect! You are an enemy; you work with the Demon sect.”

“So what makes you think you are from this sect!” Jaime was truly angered. He crushed the chair beneath him. He stood and hit the formation stone. In no time there was an illusion of the twelve moons that appeared on the invisible wall with many colors.

When Elder Meng watched the illusion, he became dumbstruck. “This is impossible...”

All eyes fall to Elder Meng.

“This formation is our sect’s long lost formation. Twelve Moons Capturing Dragon formation.”

“You!” said Jaime to Elder Zhang. “You don’t even know the formation of Double Moon Sect! Where are you from? Demon Sect? You are the one that not from this sect! What made you become an elder of Double Moon sect! You are a demon in disguise!”

The formation was already long gone from the history of Double Moon Sect so not many people knew about it.

“This Twelve Moons Capturing Dragon formation was the masterpiece of the founder. It needs 12 divisions to create the defense formation to protect whole Double Moon Sect. Even a dragon won’t be able to destroy this formation. And yet! All of you, killing each division, causing this sect to become eight divisions, how can this formation protect our Double Moon sect once again?”

“Now I ask you all! You are elders of this sect, have you ever had your hearts on this sect? Have you ever thought about what is best for this sect! How can we build our sect into its golden age again if all of you keep killing it! All of you have caused this sect to become the bottom sect on this continent! Do you all still have face to meet your ancestor!”

Jaime continued his speech. “Have you forgotten the dignity of Double Moon Sect! What we are really protecting and learning from this Double Moon Sect. They are power, honesty, compassion, courage, fairness, sacrifice, honor, perseverance, love, justice, loyalty, modesty. Each division protected those values! Do you know what you had lost! 12th Division, sacrifice! 11th division honesty! 10th division justice! 9th division honor! And now you want to destroy eighth division! Loyalty!”

“Walk over my dead body if you want to destroy this sect! While I am alive no one can make it step backwards even one step!” Illusion of twelve moons around Jaime suddenly shone brightly and it resonated with the illusion of twelve moons on the invisible wall. It caused illusions of twelve big full moon shone majestically in colorful bright light and gave a feeling of sacred to everyone there. “As long as I am alive the dignity of Double Moon Sect will never die!”

Elder Meng looked at the young boy in front of him, but at the same time he felt like he himself was a young boy listening to his master. That young boy gave an aura of ancestor. Tears suddenly fell from his eyes. That young boy loved this sect so much and his loyalty was unshakeable. The truth is his own loyalty to this sect was already shaken without his knowing.

“The tournament is cancelled! All disciples back to your division!” shouted Elder Meng, he knew this was the right thing to do. He should have done it a long time before.

“You can’t cancel it!” shouted a voice which caused all of the people to tremble. An old man with blue clothes landed in the middle of them.

Elder Hu suddenly smiled. He had prepared everything and even if Elder Meng wanted to stop it he couldn’t. “Greeting to Patriarch of the Hou Clan!”

Hou Clan was ranked five of the six big sects in Dragon and Phoenix continent. It had two Patriarch realm's martial artists. They were stronger than Double Moon Sect, which didn't had Patriarch Realm martial artist.

“Patriarch of Huo Clan, what are you doing here?” asked Elder Meng politely. “About the tournament, it is our sect inner affair, why can't we cancel it?”

Patriarch of Huo Clan released his aura and intimidated Elder Meng. “I, Huo Xie, already accepted an invitation from Double Moon Sect to watch the younger generation's tournament of Double Moon Sect. I traveled thousands of miles to come here just to give face to Double moon Sect. If you cancel the tournament, don't you think that you will be insulting me?”

The Patriarch of Huo Clan sneered. “If you are insult me, do you know what the consequence is?”

Elder Hu quickly said, “Of course the tournament won't be cancelled. Everything will be on schedule! We will go back and begin the tournament, but maybe there will be someone who will cause the trouble again.” Elder Hu gave an eye signal to Huo Xie.

Huo Xie smiled; he received an invitation from Elder Hu with a gift waiting for him. “If this little ant will cause you trouble, I will take care of him for you.” Huo Xie raised his arm and hit the formation wall. Still unbreakable but already showed a crack.

Jaime knew the luck wasn't on his side this time. The wall won't able to hold under Patriarch Realm's domination.

“Book of Karma quickly find martial art’s movements, that are the best in this world ever.” Jaime needed something that could move faster than Double Moonlight Flash movements, since all of these elders knew this movement. If he wanted to run from them he would need a high speed movement that was much better than the Double Moonlight Flash.

If not, it will be like: I run, you catch me. Since we have the same movement and same speed, it will be fun. Let’s play running and catching in the flower garden together, with butterflies joining.

Book of Karma was glowing and caused a screen to appear, Jaime checked the bottom of list.

[845. Movement of Wind. Sixth generation of the self-proclaim best chef in the world, second son of the self-proclaim best cultivation maker of the Dragon and Phoenix cultivation, chose to be a thief and created the self-proclaim number one movement under heaven. Self-proclaim best thief in the world. Movement of Wind, ride the wind and fly to where your heart is longing. Exchange the information and experience of one movement with 10 levels and 100 mental energies.]

Jaime looked at Huo Xie attacking again and the defense formation started to crumble!

As he saw Huo Xie destroying the wall and moved to catch him, Jaime quickly flew into the sky and shocked all the people. Usually only Patriarch realm can fly without the help of a flying sword or other talismans.

“You can run but I still will have your head,” said Hua Xie flying to catch Jaime.

“All of you Elders of Double Moon Sect! Will you let an outsider dictate you? Will you let him injure one of Double Moon Sect people without doing anything because you fear someone higher than you?! Look at what I have already said, all of you have no courage nor sacrifice!” Jaime was already scared to the death because his level was at 20 while Hua Xie level is 67. He could be killed easily.

Elder Meng and Elder Jie of Violet Peak moved in a flash to protect Jaime. “Patriarch Hua Xie, this is one of our disciples, let us take care of him with Double Moon Sect’s rules.”

“Hahaha.. if this daddy wants his head. What could you, in the elder realm, do.”

Elder Meng eyes became red and took out a sword. “If that is what Patriarch Hua Xie wants, I have to stop you with all of my might.”

“Do you think you can stop me? Don’t you think, when you provoke me, a whole Huo Clan will be angry too and destroy your little sect because of this little boy?”

“Even if we are a little sect, we won’t be so easy to be humiliated. All core disciples prepare the formation!” About thirty six disciples from True

Human Realm and Senior Realm assembled and made a sword formation ready to attack.

Huo Xie laughed hard. “Do you think that you can stop me! You are a small sect, what can you do to me if I want to kill all of you now.”

At the same time, he sent a voice transmission to Elder Hu, “I will kill this Elder Meng and his followers, then you will be able to easily get a hold of all of Double Moon Sect. How much are you willing to pay for his head?”

Elder Hu smiled and send back voice transmission . “I promised Patriarch Huo ten thousands spiritual stones to become a watcher for the tournament, so I will give five hundred thousand spiritual stones for elder Meng and his followers’ heads. As for that little boy, I am willing to add one hundred thousand spiritual stones.”

“Good I will take their heads for you hahaha...”

Seeing Huo Xie started to attack, Elder Meng leaded the formations to attack. He knew he had nothing to win with this fight, but for the dignity of Double Moon Sect, he must keep a hold of it, even if he dies.

“Die with glory!!!!!!”

Chapter 18: Winner Takes All

“Winners take all. Winners take everything, even the world! Winning tastes so sweet. Winners have a thousand beauties waiting. Everyone is born to be a winner.”

“Sure, except the loser. When you lose, you will lose all, you will take a beating, become black and blue, have crushed bones with bleeding injuries. Even beauties will hit you when you lose!” Jaime became angry, looking at the Patriarch of the Hou clan. “Fk, do you think I will take any beating! I will give you black and blue, a reality which you have never ever thought of having .”

Elder Meng and Elder Jie together with their disciples tried to stop Huo Xie but they couldn't do much in front of someone from the Patriarch Realm. Elder Meng arms were already bleeding badly.

“I will kill all of you now!” Huo Xie launched his best attack. “Divine Crow Stealing Moon!” An illusion of very big black crow appeared and caused many disciples to faint. Elder Meng and Elder Jie vomited blood.

Before the attack reached them, twelve huge chains shot up to tie Huo Xie and dragged him to the ground. Huo Xie's Divine Crow Stealing Moon was broken and disappeared in to the air. Huo Xie was flattened with the earth and tied tightly by the 12 illusions of chains.

“This is why it's called Twelve Moons Capturing Dragon!” Jaime had repaired the formation sneakily and activated it to capture Huo Xie.

Elder Meng and Elder Jie were shocked. Their mouths were gaping while looking at Huo Xie in disbelief. Jaime quickly appeared at Huo Xie side.

“What are you doing brat!” Huo Xie angrily shouted. “I am going to kill you!”

Jaime said nothing but forcefully opened Huo Xie mouth. He threw black and blue pills inside his mouth. Having the black and blue that Huo Xie never ever thought of having. Jaime also forcefully made Huo Xie to swallow the pills. Huo Xie could only stare angrily at Jaime.

“Do you believe if you keep staring at me like that, I will kick your eyes black and blue!” asked Jaime.

“Do you da... Arggh!!”

Jaime has kicked Huo Xie eyes really hard.

Elder Hu couldn't even move to stop the process. He only could glance at his ally being played behind the invisible wall.

“I will kill you!” shouted Huo Xie again. “Whole Huo Clan will destroy you and this shitty little sect.”

“Little Sect!” Jaime face turned red by anger. “All disciples assemble! It is very rare for you be able kick a Patriarch Realm. Make a queue and every one of you must kick his face!”

“You dare!” Huo Xie anger reached the highest level. How could he at Patriarch Realm be humiliated by mere lowly disciples at the Elementary Realm or Junior Realm.

“Tell me what I don’t dare and I will assemble them to pee at your face! Do you want to drink their pee! Do you dare or not to try me!” Jaime looked at his disciples which were already assembling. “Start kicking his face. He is at the Patriarch Realm; kick as hard as you can. Don’t worry, he won’t bite. If he dares to stare at you in anger just spit and pee at his face. If he shouts at you, take a poop and put it inside his mouth! Start kicking.”

One by one disciples kicked Patriarch Hua’s face and turned around to give a chance for the next one. Elder Meng, Elder Jie could only look at Huo Xie be humiliated. They couldn’t do anything since Jaime has turned on the defensive formation again. No elder will be able to get inside now.

Elder Hu face really paled. “Stop with what you are doing!”

“Fk you, if he wants to kill me, Elder Meng and Elder Jie, you didn’t even shout to stop. Now I want to kill him, you ask me to stop. Who do you think you are helping! Who are you? A traitor!”

“He is our sect’s guest!” Elder Hu tried to convince Jaime.

“Who sent the invitation and asked him to come and let him try to kill us?”

No elder answered that question.

“No one can answer, so he is an unwelcome guest. We have a rule about handling this kind of guest. He will be at the mercy of the one who gets him!” Jaime laughed.

“What will you do to him?” asked Elder Meng. “Remember our sect may invite disaster if we treat him bad.”

“Since when is our sect scared of a sect with only two Patriarch realms, even a sect with hundreds Patriarch Realm will be only able to eat shit in front of Double Moon Sect! All of you have no dignity! With Twelve Moons Capturing Dragon all Patriarch Realms will be like an egg meeting stone. Have you seen how Huo Xie met his end by this little formation? We will make this formation in the whole Double Moon Mountain and reactive the 12 divisions!”

Elder Hu laughed. “At what capacity would we let you do that! You are just someone unknown!”

“And why do you think that you are the leader of us? We agreed, if one of us reaches Patriarch realm, then we will let him lead us. For now, the leader of Double Moon Sect will be chosen by how many Elders support him!” At that moment, three elders sided with Elder Hu. Leaving only two elders sided with Elder Meng. “Seems like I am the real leader of Double Moon Sect.”

“Hahahaha....” Jaime laughed. “Eighth division sides with Elder Meng! You are still not the leader!” Jaime took out the eighth division token, which was taken from Elder Huang’s skeleton. “Elder Huang gave eighth division to me! I am the elder of eighth division!”

Elder Zhang sneered. “If you want to be an elder, you will have to get the agreement from the other elders! Do you think it is easy to be an elder?”

“I agree with him to be an elder of eighth division,” said Elder Meng followed by Elder Jie and Elder Guo. They were first, fourth and seventh divisions.

Elder Hu laughed. “All of you already agreed before that, the eighth division will be belonging to the person who won the tournament! If you want him to be an elder, let see if your disciples have power to get it! As leader of Double Moon Sect I re-open the tournament, no one can cancel it! If that boy wants to be eighth division elder, he must follow the rules. He has to participate in the tournament!”

In Elder Hu mind, he needed Jaime to enter the tournament so he can kill him there without causing much trouble.

In Jaime mind, he will never put his foot in the tournament. No matter what happens, he doesn’t like to fight. Nor does he like being hit. He only needs to stay inside Rainbow Peak and no one can touch him! He is the king of Rainbow Peak!

Yet the next morning he is standing right in front of the tournament!

As for what caused him stand there, it was inner rage! Last night he finished interrogating Huo Xie, and he got to know who was behind this Patriarch Realm arrival. Elder Hu, the traitor that sold Double Moon Sect!

Knowing that Elder Hu was going to lead Double Moon Sect made him really angry.

So, he just went to sleep. He really didn't care about Double Moon Sect. The experience of Fu Gu Chai was already long past, so he really didn't care about it. Double Moon Sect can go to hell without his care! Why must he care about this shitty sect.

In the morning he woke, he was already in Moonlight Flower Field. Inside one of the tents, Li Xing and the others, were waiting for him to awake. Outside of the tent there was a noise of the crowd shouting and talking.

“How can I be here?”

Li Xing looked puzzled. “Master, this morning you ordered all of us to go to the tournament.”

“Yes Master, everyone know about this.”

Am I sleep-walking? Is that because of Fu Gu Chai’s memories? I have no recollection about this. Has the experience of Fu Gu Chai created another personality in me?

“Let’s go back to Rainbow Peak, we won’t join the tournament.”

“But Master as you ordered, I have drawn your number. It is your fight now!” Li Xing didn’t know what happened to his Master.

“Now!?”

“Yes Master!” Li Xing and some disciples dragged Jaime out and sent him to the arena. Li Xing and the others were already reaching level 20+ and they were much stronger than Jaime now. So Jaime couldn’t do anything to resist. “I am you Master, why do you need to drag me out?”

“It is like Master said previously.”

“What was I saying?”

“Master told me, if Master suddenly doesn’t want to fight, I and the other brothers must drag Master to the stage!”

“As Master, I don’t need to fight; it is all of you who need to fight for Rainbow Peak’s dignity!”

Li Xing and others suddenly become sad. “There were twenty-two brothers and sisters joining the tournament like master asked in this morning. All of them have lost in every tragic way a human could think. Now eighth division only has Master. Please win back our dignity Master.”

Useless disciples!

If I lose in this arena, I will lose my dignity and pride. But it is okay, it will help me to run from this place so they will not be bothering me anymore. Maybe I can go to the arena and shout, ‘I surrender’. So it will be finished in a moment before I get beaten black and blue.

Inside a 40 meter arena there were a referee and a boy standing, waiting for Jaime to go up. Jaime went up and checked the boy.

[Zhang Hu. Age, 19 years old. Level 21 Junior Realm. Joined the Double Moon Sect to find about his brother Zhang Lei whereabouts]

Seeing the information Jaime suddenly smiled. Maybe he could win this fight without any problems. Even if this one had a higher level.

Jaime bowed and said. “Nice to meet Brother Zhang Hu, seeing a little brother of Zhang Lei here really makes me nostalgic. Brother, your level is just 21 and to win this tournament is really hard for you. How about you let this big brother win?”

Zhang Hu shocked. “Do you know my big brother? Please tell me, I am already trying hard to find him. My mother and sister-in-law have missed him much. Please tell me.”

Jaime used his Book of Karma to find the Zhang Lei, brother of Zhang Hu. After paying 10 mental energies, Jaime knew where that Zhang Lei hid.

“I am a friend of your brother, if you are willing to let me win, I will tell you where he is. What do you think? I will give you 100 spiritual stones as compensation.”

Zhang Hu seemed to hesitate but he suddenly bowed after a long and deep thinking. “My brother whereabouts is the most important. I will surrender now.” He jumped from the arena and waited for Jaime.

The referee was shocked but quickly announce. “Jaime from eighth division won!”

Facing Zhang Hu outside of the arena, Jaime said, “In the north of Double Moon Sect, there is a city named White Palm and 20 kilometer from there, there is a village named Bird Forest. Your brother is there, five years ago, he went there on mission but his legs were broken. So he stayed there till now. Go find him and say I, his best friend, wish for his wellbeing.” Jaime gave him 100 spiritual stones.

Zhang Hu seemed happy and gave a bow before going to Double Moon Sect’s gate.

Li Xing and the other disciples didn't know what their master was talking about so he could win easily. "Master, how can you win without a fight?"

Jaime smiled. "He is a good fighter, he knew that I concealed my cultivation and saw through my real strength, so he surrendered."

"Master is the best!" All of them said in unison.

Jaime laughed and thought, that maybe he could win all 10 fights. Because in this tournament, if one can win 10 times, he will be the winner!

Second fight, Jaime faced up against someone from the second division.

"Brother," Jaime bowed. "This senior disciple really likes you. You are so young but already at the second of Junior Realm, level 22. But you know the winner of this tournament will be a disciple at least at the senior realm. Why not give face to this senior disciple, so I will present you a [Sun and Moon] pill to clean your meridians and bones. So you will be able to easily raise your talent and make it easier to cultivate?"

That young boy was stunned. One cleaning meridian pill costs about 1.500 spiritual stones. As for cleaning meridians and bones' pill, it will cost a lot higher. His eyes suddenly lit up. "This one surrenders." He jumped out of the arena right at the moment he finished his speech.

The referee could only shake his head, this Jaime was too cunning.

“Jaime from the eighth division won!”

Jaime gave the pill and the young boy jumped with joy. He couldn't stop thanking Jaime, since his future became brighter.

Easy fight, this daddy will win throughout the tournament without fighting! MUAHAHAHA

Elder Hu looked at Elder Fan, “Have you ordered your disciples to kill him?”

“Zhou Wei,” called Elder Fan. A disciple appeared beside him. “Are you ready to kill him!”

“Ten thousand times.” Zhou Wei's eyes were full of killing intent. “I will make him into pulp meat!”

“Xiao Yun if you meet him just kill him!” The Elder Fan glanced at one woman who was staring at Jaime.

“I will be enough.” Zhou Wei stood and moved. “Just set him to be mine in the next fight.”

Chapter 19: Patriarch Jaime

“I hit you, you hit me! What fun in choosing which part to hurt. Your hand hurts or head hurts. Becoming black and blue like a stupid person. You kill me, I kill you. Well this is... err... do you prefer to kill or being killed? See, nothing fun about that too. You either end up in jail or in the graveyard.”

“If you ask me, to love or be loved, well, both are okay for me. Why do people need to hurt people if they can love? You kiss me, I kiss you. Damn! You hug me, I hug you. See what I mean! I make love with you, you make love with me! Why do you need to kill if you can add more humans to this world? Believe me; never hurt people while you can love them. People are born to be loved and die as lovers. If you can't find love inside yourself, then try forgiveness. It will lead you to the love.”

Zhou Wei stood in the arena. Elder Hu had already arranged his fight with Jaime by pulling some strings. There were hundreds of fighters for this tournament. Everyone was known by the number they picked earlier. The condition to be the winner of this tournament was very simple. Everyone had ten fights and who had won the most, would take it all.

“Number 344 and Number 164, please come to the arranged arena.”

Jaime eyes locked on Zhou Wei as the other looked back at Jaime with killing intent. Zhou Wei had number 344 and Jaime's number was 164.

“Come here, I will show you how to butcher a pig!” Zhou Wei was smiling with high confidence. In this short time, he already had reached level 28. He knew Jaime was still level 20. His confidence was raised to the peak.

Jaime smiled, “Do you think that only you can show how to butcher a pig? Today I will show you how to butcher a worm!”

“Huahaha... speak no more just get up on the arena!” Zhou Wei took out his sword.

“But lucky you.” Jaime sighed. “Just now, I got divine a vision to spread love to everyone in the whole universe. I have no love for you, so I opened the path of forgiveness. Now I don’t hate you anymore, there is more love inside my heart. I forgive you.”

Jaime stood at the side of the arena. When he was ready to walk to the arena, one big guy stepped on the arena instead.

Jaime secretly whispered. “I have forgiven him, don’t kill him. Just break all his bones, waste his cultivation and make his face as ugly as you can. I am a kind person to my enemy.”

“Hey, what are you doing here?” asked Zhou Wei. A big guy in front of him, who had a level of 38 or eighth Senior Realm, towered menacingly in front of him. He was a core disciple from the first division. “You are not the fighter!”

The big guy showed a token with the number 164 in his hand. “I am the pig that you are going to butcher!”

Zhou Wei face turned really pale. “I... I...”

The fight ended easily. Zhou Wei’s nose was broken. Rib bones, hands and feet were also broken into many pieces. He totally couldn’t fight anymore.

Jaime sighed in relieve. “Ahhh... really forgiveness makes me love myself more and more...”

Watching the fight, Elder Hu and Elder Fan didn’t understand what just happened.

“Did you pull a wrong string?” Elder Hu was asked by Elder Fan. “You let my disciple be wasted by the first division? Is this how you are going to repay my kindness?”

The big guy walked to Jaime.

Jaime quickly took out 2.500 spiritual stones and one [first dragon] pill. “Thanks for the help.”

The big guy laughed hard. Both of them had won two fights and Jaime proposed to exchange their numbers. As the big guy checked his fight and saw it would be with Zhou Wei, he made a large smile and agreed. Because he would get an easy win.

“You can pull the strings; don’t you think that I can too?” Jaime smiled and took out his new token number 671. He moved to his stage for the third fight.

“Brother,” said Jaime to his enemy on arena, which was on level 32, Senior Realm. Not someone Jaime could play with. “You know, I have long heard about your big name. Every one keeps talking about you. Your big name has soared into the sky and everyone in the continent is talking about you.”

“Really?”

“You are Liu Ou right? Third young master from Liu Clan.”

“Yes!”

“So I didn’t hear wrong then.”

“Yes, but I don’t think that I am that famous.” He scratched his head. “Am I that famous?”

“Yes, people keep talking about you, and girls are secretly throwing their hearts and love for you. Maybe brother is too busy with cultivation and didn’t hear about brother’s well-known name. Brother is truly a great martial artist, a big hero, and a dragon among men. Really, I salute.”

Liu Ou faced blushed. “Well maybe it is. I am too busy with cultivation.”

“But I heard something. That Brother Liu doesn’t have a great sword to keep up with his greatest name. A big hero must have a good sword and a grade one steed. Imagine that brother with a shining sword and riding a great golden hawk, while flying across the Kang Ow.”

Liu Ou scratched his head shyly. “It has always been my dream to have a great sword and good steed. But they are too expensive for me.”

Jaime took out one sword, a gift from the one of ten unknown guests at that night. It is a grade three sword which price is about 2.000 spiritual stones. “If brother is willing to let this lowly one advance, I am willing to pass to you my ancestor sword, since it will be better in the hands of a great hero and sure my ancestor will be happy. As for the steed, I am willing to give brother 1.000 spiritual stones. It might not be easy to buy an adult golden hawk, but it would be easy to buy a young golden hawk and raise it to an adult. What does brother think about it?”

Liu Ou eyes shone brightly. He joined this tournament just for fun. Even the prize for the top ten winners will not be this big. Losing one fight for him was not really a big matter. He quickly imagined himself riding a golden hawk with a great sword in hand. While thousands of beauties were calling out his name in awe!

“Thank you brother, I am more than willing to surrender!”

Some of the audience saw the abnormal behavior in Jaime’s fights. He never fought and people kept surrendering. That caused people to put more attention on him.

“Is he some legendary disciple? Who is he? Causing people to keep surrendering?”

“Don’t you know? He is the elder of eighth division?”

“No way, he is so young!”

“Young? I saw him waste the Patriarch Realm of Huo Clan with a single hand!”

“I heard that seven elders and a thousand disciples lost from his single hand!”

“His disciples said that he killed one thousand people in a single hand!”

“For real?”

“He captured Huo Clan Patriarch! It was real, I watched with my own eyes!”

“Truly a hero!”

Elder Hu felt disappointed but sent a sound transmission to the referee. “This time don’t make it wrong again. That Jaime, I want number 671, let him meet Elder Zhang disciples!”

Elder Hu looked at Elder Zhang. “This time you won’t be wronged anymore. He will meet your disciples in the fourth fight.”

“Good, I want to see how that cockroach lives after this.”

Forth fight.

“Number 221 and 671 please be prepared on arena 16!”

Cho Ming from the second division was waiting for Jaime. He already knew who would be his opponent, Jaime who was level 20. But suddenly, one big guy appeared and showed number 671. He didn’t know who was his enemy anymore, but one thing was for sure, he will be wasted by this level 38..... tragically.

Jaime took out the number 164. With a smirk he went to his fourth fight. When he sensed something wrong, he quickly changed the number. Sure he needed to pay, but he is quite rich. That Huo Clan Patriarch Realm old man had five hundred thousand spiritual stones in his storage ring, hundreds of pills, and some good weapons and armors. Now it was all in Jaime’s hand.

As he walked to the arena, hundreds of eyes locked on him. Jaime glanced at his opponent, a disciple of third division.

Bai Lixiong checked Jaime. Ten minutes ago one of the disciples met him and said. “Master wants you to kill that opponent. He was supposed to be killed by Cho Ming but luckily he fell into your hands. You must kill him to make Master happy.”

“I won’t kill a disciple that surrenders and I don’t like to kill easily.”

The disciples sneered. “You and your attitude have made master angry at you. Look at you, you are wasted by master. Now, Master gives you a chance but you ignore it. You are a stupid cow. If you don’t kill him, please resign yourself from third division. We don’t need people like you.”

Jaime also checked Bai Lixiong level. He was at level 29. A very strong man but he is the kind of human that walks a straight road. Honest and simple. Cannot be bribed and very upright.

A Really stupid one.

Jaime entered the arena. Bai Lixiong bowed to Jaime, ready for fight.

“Brother, you have already reached a very high level, half a step to senior realm, but no one took you seriously and willing to give you [First Dragon] pills for you to break through to Senior Realm. You are already one and half years stuck at that level, truly make me sad.”

“You are Bai Lixiong, I always admired you and kept my eyes on you. I know you have the biggest talent ever but your master never liked your honest and hardworking attitude. Your master only thinks about talented disciples and ignored you. That caused you to be unable to advance for a year. How about this, I will give you two [First Dragon] pills, one for you and one for your little brother. Usually only a chosen inner disciple can get it, but I think you are special.”

Bai Lixiong eyes seemed to be full of doubt. Suddenly his eyes looked resolute. “I am sorry, I can’t accept that kindness.”

“I also know that you will get married soon and have nothing to give to your future wife. I, as your brother, will always think about you. Let me give you 10.000 spiritual stones so you can buy a land, build a house and everything you need to make a big family of your own. You can use it to pay your family debts. I also will give you ten healing pills for your old sick mother.”

Jaime threw a storage pouch to him. “Please take it, I won’t ask anything from Brother Bai Lixiong. Your honest attitude and hard work, I truly admire them.”

“These things, I can’t accept it,” said Bai Lixiong again but this time his voice trembled a bit.

10.000 spiritual stones were equal to 10.000 kilo of gold or 1000.000 tael gold. It worth so much for mortal human, and Bai Lixiong was from the poor family. He reached his condition now by his hard work yet his honesty kept him poor. That really causes Jaime to admire him.

Admire that there is such a stupid person.

“If brother can’t accept it, so be it. I will give it to your mother so please keep it. Don't you remember how your mother wanted you to be a dragon among men and worked hard to pay your entering fee to this sect? Please accept it as my admiration for your mother. Let's stop talking about it, let us fight for now."

Bai Lixiong stood without moving. Suddenly his eyes became teary. "Humans walked the Kang Ow full of blood and tricks to reach the glory. Yet I luckily met a brother that understands me and have shown me and my family kindness. In this Kang Ow, glory I don't want, this kindness I will accept. I surrender to my brother."

Jaime smiled really wide. Human always have a weakness. "No brother, let us fight. I don't really want to use that thing to have this winning. Please don't look down on me. My moral is as high as you. That is why I admire you, because you and I have a same honest and upright attitude."

Bai Lixiong shook his head. "I know that you don't want to win by doing this, you really showed me your kindness. So please accept this little kindness of me, or I can't accept this kindness of you."

"If it is like this, then I will truly accept it. Thanks to you brother, my eyes has never wronged me. You are really an honest and upright man."

Some of the audience that had low levels couldn't hear what Jaime said to Bai Lixiong. They knew that Bai Lixiong is one of the elite inner disciples of third division.

"He surrendered so easily. I think Bai Lixiong couldn't hold his self in front of Jaime's aura."

“He is truly a dragon among men!”

As for the other high level cultivators, they listened from the beginning till the end.

Fifth fight.

Jaime walked to the arena and meets a girl. Her level was 28, before Jaime could say anything, “Stop the chit-chat what can you give me?” She already saw all of Jaime’s fights and didn’t bother with it anymore, because even if she could win this fight, it would be just a dream to win all the fights and get something. So for her, it was better to get something before losing with nothing.

“One cleaning meridian and bone pill. One [first dragon] pill and 1.500 spiritual stones.”

“Ten healing pills.”

“I surrender, just give me the things.”

The audiences give big applause. “One more to surrender, I can’t hold his aura! He really is a great man.”

As for the fighters they screamed in their heart. “I want to fight him! God, please let me meet him in the arena!”

Sixth fight.

“Two [Sun and Moon] pills, two [First Dragon] pills, 2500 spiritual stones.”

“I surrender!”

The audience was shocked in an uproar. “One more to surrender! He is unstoppable! He really has a Patriarch Realm Aura, I am sure no one can stand in front of him.”

Seventh fight.

“Two [Sun and Moon] pills, two [First Dragon] pills, 5.000 spiritual stones.”

“I surrender.”

More and more of the audience joined and shouted in unison. “One more to surrender!”

Eighth fight.

“Who do you think you are, a man can’t be bought by pills. I am a rich guy, why do I need pills that I can buy...”

“A storage pouch.”

“...” The guy was stunned. “Do you really have that legendary item?”

Jaime took out a storage pouch. “There are four [First Dragon] pills inside. Even if you have the money they are hard to buy.”

The audience stood and gave big applause, “Never in my life have I ever seen something like this! I watched 40 tournaments and this is the best one ever. Undefeatable! He may be the new patriarch of us all.”

“He won the fight with Hou Clan Patriarch Realm, of course he will be our Patriarch!”

“Patriarch! Patriarch! Patriarch Jaime!”

Elder Hu face turned ugly.

Ninth fight.

A very big guy stood on the area. “You are shameless. You make all of the disciples follow your corrupted heart. I, your daddy Feng, will give you a really painful lesson. I can’t be bought, I don’t need anything. All I want is to hit you, because I have had enough of you. My Master already tried so hard to catch you, now you will die in my hands!”

Elder Hu hit the table. “This time I really need him to die! Tell Feng Chu, whatever Jaime will offer him, I will double it!” He really didn’t understand how it could be so hard to kill this only level 20 disciple!

Elder Zhou laughed, “Before he stepped up I already promised to give him thrice! Take it easy. He can’t run away this time,”

Jaime prepared this guy’s information. Seem like this time won’t be easy like before.

[Feng Chu, top disciple of third division. Level 35, fifth senior realm. A talented disciple of Dragon’s division that had everything he wanted. His master, Elder Zhou, provided him with all the pills, weapons, and spiritual stones....]

Jaime was not ready when Feng Chu moved and kicked him hard. Jaime used his wind movement to avoid the kick and made a gap. This time it seems he will really need to fight. Blood will spread and a black and blue beating won’t be avoided.

Jaime clenched his fist. He was ready for the battle even if he was just level 20.

Chapter 20: Xiao Yun's Dungeon Heart

“A man can't always run from a fight, sometimes they need to fight! Sometimes the best way to win a fight is to never start one. But if you do come up against somebody you know you can't beat, be smart. Run the other way. It is not shameful... to run away and call for ten more people to gang up on him and beat him badly! Bully him then, bully him now. Maybe someday you can be a king of bully. It is not something to be ashamed about, look at the king who uses one millions soldiers to bully.”

Jaime moved himself away from Feng Chu, making a gap to avoid the sudden attack. “Feng Chu don't you have any desire? I can help you with your desire. What about beautiful girls?” Jaime tried not to fight because when he fights, the three realms will be shaken nonstop and mountains will erupt and its ashes will cover the whole universe.

Feng Chu laughed. “Brother, it isn't good to follow your desire, find your life's purpose in happiness, not desire. Wanting anything from you is a shameful desire. A martial artist should not want anything, nor have a desire, so you can cultivate smoothly. If the heart's desire is not calm, you will face a problem. So you must first control your own sight. Sight is the king of mental wandering; mental wandering through the sight enslaves the mind. Thus restraining the sight, one will be inclining towards the mind. I don't lay my eyes on beautiful girls.” Feng Chu gave his teaching to Jaime which caused him to be on the verge of vomiting blood.

“Good, good, I had never thought that I will be facing someone this good. When I raise my hand you will truly regret what you have done to me!”

“Try me!” Feng Chu started to move.

“Feng Chu, look!” Jaime raised his hand and pointed outside the arena. Li Xing and his friends were grabbing one young boy that looked feminine. “Is that not your lover Guan Gu?”

Feng Chu shocked. “Why you are talking rubbish. He is a man why must I love him? You are insisting me to take your lowly life!”

Jaime laughed, “If you surrender, your lover will be saved. Don’t you see that I already know your secret?”

“Nope,” said Jaime. “Look behind your lover, there are two young boys that fit your criteria. You can take those two with you too.”

Jaime grinned widely. Before going to the arena, he had learned everything about Feng Chu and his secret desires. Even if he had everything provided by his Master, clearly his Master won’t give him a guy! So he forced eight disciples to grab those three feminine guys for him.

“What the fu*k are you talking about!” Feng Chu became really angry but his eyeballs kept stealing a glance at the two boys. Suddenly he unconsciously started to drool with the saliva falling to the ground.

Jaime stopped moving and smiled.

“I won’t fall for your trap!” Feng Chu’s sword moved to Jaime’s neck and stop at his skin. “My master promised me, he will give me thrice what you can offer me.”

“Do you think he will give you guys to play with? He will kill you.”

Feng Chu eyes became red. “I said! You have to give me thrice what you offer me now!”

“Deal!” said Jaime. With the book of karma it is very easy to find people with the same hobby as Feng Chu.

“That guy whose grabbing my lover. I want that handsome guy too?” Feng Chu eyes filled with lust and his drool dropping.

Li Xing?

“He is yours!” Jaime looked at Li Xing and suddenly Li Xing sensed the danger and a chill ran down his spine.

“Patriarch Jaime caused his opponent to surrender again!”

“Long live Patriarch Jaime!”

“Why are you calling him a patriarch? He is just on the earlier Junior Realm. Couldn’t all of you see it?”

“Hmm... how do you think a Junior Realm defeated a Patriarch Realm! He hides his cultivation to fool stupid people like you!”

Elder Hu and Elder Zhou stood in disbelief. “Your disciple took the bribe! Did he think that we couldn’t give him thrice of what Jaime promised to him?”

“Master! You only need one more step to be the tournament winner.” All of the disciples of eighth division were already in celebration mode.

“Who will be your next opponent, Master?”

Jaime laughed, “No matter who will be my opponent, I am going to find his desire and bribe him! I am the king of bribes!”

In the arena for the last fight, Jaime suddenly knew what the meaning of having no desire was. No matter how many times he checked the book of Karma, the person in front of him really had no desires about anything. The real snow queen!

Xiao Yun eyes coldly locked on Jaime. Her killing intent rose. “To kill you!”

Damn how can I meet this girl at the final. Where are all the men! Her level was just 35. There are so many disciples that have a higher level than her!

What Jaime didn't know, the most powerful disciples had been killing each other since the start of tournament. Elder Meng let all the core disciples bellow 30 years old on his side to fight hard for the first position. Yet Elder Hu asked all the best disciples on his side to stop this movement. At the end, the two sides end up killing each other. Exhausted, losing chunks of meat and pouring blood, leaving only Xiao Yun at the final stage.

Elder Meng sent a transmission voice to Jaime. “I am sorry it is all now in your hands. If you lose, Elder Hu will be the leader of Double Moon Sect, please win!”

“Easy to say, why don't you win by yourself!”

Jaime bowed. “My wife Xiao Yun, long times no see. How were you doing without your husband? This one really misses you. I always pray for your wellbeing. Have you gotten my messages? I sent them to the moon, stars and wind every time I remember you. This heart is bleeding without you. You are the one who my heart is always longing. Don't you know, my breath always finds its way to you when it escapes from me. Xiao Yun my wife...”

Xiao Yun stepped forward. Her killing intent rose to a new level. It caused chills to run down Jaime's spine.

"Liar!" Xiao Yun said one word only and kept moving step by step.

"Wait, when have I ever lied to you? I really love you. It just Zhou Wei tried to kill me and forced us to separate. We are wife and husband, give me more time, we will make up again." As he saw Xiao Yun getting closer, Jaime started to sweat. "Wait, you can kill me. I won't fight back, just let me sing a song for you."

Without waiting for any agreement, Jaime started to sing a song.

Right from the start you were a thief, you stole my heart,

And I your willing victim.

I had let you see the parts of me that weren't all that pretty,

And with every touch you fixed them.

Now you've been talking in your sleep, oh, oh,

Things you never say to me, oh, oh,

Tell me that you've had enough

Of our love, our love.

Just give me a reason, just a little bit's enough,

Just a second, we're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again.

It's in the stars, it's been written in the scars on our hearts,

We're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again.

I'm sorry I don't understand where all of this is coming from.

I thought that we were fine (oh, we had everything)

Your head is running wild again, my dear we still have everythin',

And it's all in your mind (yeah, but this is happenin')

You've been havin' real bad dreams, oh, oh,

You used to lie so close to me, oh, oh,

There's nothing more than empty sheets,

Between our love, our love.

Oh, our love, our love!

Just give me a reason, just a little bit's enough,

Just a second, we're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again.

I never stopped, you're still written in the scars on my heart,

You're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again!

Oh, tear ducts and rust,

I'll fix it for us.

We're collecting dust,

But our love's enough.

You're holding it in,

You're pouring a drink!

No nothing is as bad as it seems.

We'll come clean!

Just give me a reason, just a little bit's enough,

Just a second, we're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again.

It's in the stars, it's been written in the scars on our hearts,

We're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again.

Oh, we can learn to love again,

Oh, we can learn to love again.

Oh, oh, that we're not broken just bent,

And we can learn to love again.

Suddenly Xiao Yun's cold heart was beating slowly with warmth and she stopped her movements. Her eyes looked uncertain for a second.

Book of Karma started to shine and a screen appeared in front of Jaime.

[Xiao Yun's heart opened a tiny crack and is ready to be conquered. Are you willing to enter Xiao Yun's Dungeon heart?]

Xiao Yun went back to her cold attitude and her killing intent.

"I surrender!" said Jaime to the referee quickly. "She is the winner!"

The referee smiled. "Sorry for the final stage there will be no surrendering. It is just kill or be killed!"

The referee was bribed by Elder Hu.

As Xiao Yun moved, Jaime shouted. "I am going to Xiao Yun's Dungeon Heart! Please take me to anywhere but here!"

A bright light covered Jaime's body making him disappear. As he reappeared, everything looks different.

"Where is this place?"

Jaime looked around. He only could see a snow field and a tree full of snow. It was night time, with the sky full of stars and the moon. After walking for a while through the thick snow, he met a little girl.

The little girl was about 7-8 years old. She cried and at the same times said, "My parents died, my brother left me here, no one needs me."

Jaime moved to the little girl, patted her head and said. "You know, life is harsh so be strong. No one will need you! So, good bye, take care of yourself." Jaime left that little girl and moved out; he was still busy trying to find a way out, no time to babysit some little girl. He is not into any kind of lolicon. The law protects them!

Moving towards the harsh snow field he searched all over. After an hour he met the little girl again.

"How can this be!"

The little girl was still crying. "I am alone and no one cares about me. Mommy, Daddy, big brother! Uncle said he will take care of me but all he wants is to sell me!"

Jaime sighed and patted her head again. "Yeah, life is harsh. Even when people say they love you, you must still be careful; maybe they only need your money, your body, or your kindness. Be alone and never believe in anyone. So no one will hurt you."

"But someone called me his wife, do you think he really likes me?" said the little girl.

“Bah... he is making things up! He is lying to you. Don't be a stupid girl and believe in his words.”

“But, he is kind to me!” protest the little girl with her big eyes. “I think I can believe him.”

“There is no kindness in this life girl. Life is harsh, general.* He is saying a few things and gives kindness because he needs something from you.”

Jaime left the girl and quickly moved out again. This time he made sure he recorded the surroundings so he won't go back to where he started. But even after everything he did, walking for hours, he still walked in a circle and met the little girl again.

This time the little girl didn't cry but was standing with a cold face.

“Little girl do you know a way out from here.”

The little girl showed cold eyes. “Yes!”

“Oh you should have told me a few hours ago, now please tell me where is it.”

“Find your own way out. There is no kindness in this world.”

Jaime looked absolutely dumbfounded. “Yes, there is kindness; life is good for a good spirited one. When you help people they will help you. This is the most important things for living.”

Jaime gave a chase and said, “Okay, okay, my mistake, please tell me a way out, I promise will do anything for you.”

“I don’t need you, humans are born alone and they die alone. Never ask anyone, cause no one will come for you!” The little girl yelled and her eyes burst in to tears.

“Little girl don’t be like that, we are the same lost wandering souls. Let’s work together to go out from this place.”

“I was born here and have stayed here for as long as I can remember, I don’t want to go out. Take care of yourself. Life is harsh, general.”

Translator’s Note: “Life is harsh, general.” It is a saying in Indonesian. When a general loses the war, his solider will shoot him, saying: Life is harsh, general.

Chapter 21: Prison of Hope and Dream

“How to win a girl’s heart? First, pursue without pressure. Second, be a gentlemen. Treat her kindly. Third, always give compliments. Forth, make her laugh. Fifth, always protect her. Sixth, be brave. If you are brave enough and make her pregnant, you can forget all of the next moves.”

“Seventh, pay attention to big or small stuff. Eighth be romantic. Ninth have money to share. Tenth, own a car, house or big motorcycle. Eleventh, be her slave and do whatever she asks. Twelfth, learn how to kill your ego, in loving women, they only need their ego. Let them be a drama queen and you are her knight, babysitter, walking ATM, or whatever they want.”

Jaime jumped in front of the little girl and knelt. “Little miss. I am a gentleman, a kind soul and your knight. You are my moon, my star and my everything. I am also your steed. I can be your horse. See...” Jaime put his hands on the snow. Cold, but for now, he must resist. Even the Book of Karma didn’t respond to his call in this place. His only hope was the little girl in front of him. “You can sit on my back. You point a way out and I’ll walk there while taking you up. What do you think? It is fun you know.”

The little girl eyes shone, but she resisted. “Need no one and you won’t be hurt. I don’t need you and you don’t need me. Go away. Leave me alone!”

“Oh little girl, you are the prettiest girl I ever saw in my life! You have a pretty face, starry eyes and a kind heart. Forget about the way out, let just sit on my back and I won't ask you to do anything for me. It's free. You won't lose anything neither will you be hurt."

"You won't ask me to do anything for you?"

Jaime crossed his heart. "No, just sit on my back and I will move."

"Okay!" The little girl happily jumped on Jaime's back.

"Where do you want to go?" said Jaime full of happiness. As long as he can make this little girl happy, soon she will let Jaime know a way out.

"There!" said the little girl pointed at a random place.

"Let's go!!!" Jaime moved. It took four hours of walking horse's style to make the little girl willing to talk.

"I will show you a way out but you must take me there!" said the little girl.

"Alright! How far will it be?"

"It is far from the eyes, but close to the heart."

"The meaning?" Jaime didn't understand.

"If you don't like me, it will be months of walking. If you like me and care about me, it may only need a day.”

“I like you more than you know, so it will only need an hour.”

The little girls hit Jaime head. “You don’t even like me. You treat me like a burden, thinking of me as a lowly girl that you could trick. You are not sincere and have no honesty in your heart. It will take years!”

“Then please tell me, how to make it a minute to reach the way out?”

“I do care about you!”

“Why?”

“Because you are pretty, you are smart and you are the only one to know a way out.”

The little girl hit Jaime head again. “Do you judge everything just by physical and goal? Have you ever really cared about someone?”

Jaime eyes sadden. He said nothing while moving, still there is only a snow field and the night never disappears. Both of them were silent for a very long time until Jaime collapsed in the snow. This made the little girl fall on the snow as well.

“What are you doing?”

“I am tired and taking rest from this life.”

“...” The little girl laid back down on the snow. “Do whatever you like!”

“You know... maybe I never really cared about someone.” Jaime closed his eyes. “One time there was a girl that really cared about me, yet I” Tears silently fell from his eyes to the snow. He was so stupid that time.

I need to get out from here!

Jaime woke up and kowtowed to the little girl. “Little girl, I admit that I didn’t really care about you. Give me one more chance. I will be a good man for you. I promise!”

“Hmmmph!” The little girl pouted, she remained supine. “Men always say the same things and never do what they promise. Make the same mistakes again and again. Say the same apologies and promises again and again. And women keep crying, wasting their tears and stupidly keep believing them again and again.”

Jaime put the snow on his hair to give it a slick back style then touched the little girl’s hand. “My princess, this world only has you and me, if I don’t care about you, who else can I care about? In this lonely world we are one, you die, I die. How can I live alone without you?”

The little girl’s face blushed. “Really?”

“Believe in me. Give me one last chance and you won’t regret it.”

“Hmmp! I gave you one and I regretted it! But I will try to believe you this time!”

Did you?

“GROOOOWWWL!!!!” Ten beasts, the size of bears, suddenly appeared from nowhere and charged at them angrily.

Jaime quickly hugged the little girl and launched [movement of wind].

Those beasts colored in black like a shadow, unexpectedly chased them madly. They screamed loudly. “Get the guy out! Don’t let him enter your heart! He will hurt you! Get away! Get out! You need no one here! You will get hurt again and again! Enough of all of this! Don’t believe in him, you will only get hurt again!”

The little girl hid her face in Jaime’s chest. “They are the guardians of my heart. When they knew I would let you into my heart’s dungeon, they appeared to kill you.”

“Because they are afraid, you will hurt me more.”

“I won’t hurt you!”

“I know, but I don’t really believe in you yet.” The little girl cried. “My father and mother promised to always be with me, yet they left me behind. My big brother left me alone. My uncle wanted to sell me, so I ran away. I am in the middle of the snow at night, alone without anyone. Cold and no one cared about me. Why must I believe in you? You were not there at the moment I really needed you. No one was there and I was all alone!”

Jaime stopped and hugged the little girl tightly, “I can’t change what already happened. I am sorry that I was not there when you really needed someone. But I promise you, from now on, whenever you need someone to hold, I will always be by your side. For good and bad, till death separates us. Nothing can change that! No one will ever separate us!”

Ten dark beasts charged them together. Jaime hugged the little girl tightly.

“I believe in you,” said the little girl whispering and smiled.

The beasts and night cracked at that. All of a sudden everything collapsed. The light of sunshine shone so brightly, the snow disappeared. It left a field of flowers and the wind of autumn. In front of Jaime there was a very big castle.

“Little girl what is this place?”

Yet there was no little girl. She was gone.

Jaime scratched his head and looked at the castle. He could only advance to the castle and ask for a way out. The castle was very big. It had 4 meter high double doors. Jaime touched a metal iron ring and knocked it.

“Is anybody home?”

The door opened and a young girl, 10-11 years old ran out to hug Jaime. “It is already two years since you have gone. But I knew you would come to me!”

Two years?

Jaime looked at the girl, she was the same little girl, just a little older. Her face started to look like Xiao Yun.

“Now I have a castle!” She happily announced. “Let me take you for a tour. You will like the garden of flowers, the pool, the reading room, kitchen...” She kept talking and dragging Jaime all over the castle.

Jaime let her do what she liked and followed her. Everything around the castle and the castle itself was very colorful and wonderful. Yet, Jaime felt something amiss.

Too beautiful.

“We will stay here till we grow old and have fun!” She stared at Jaime. “You have promised me, we will have each other forever, right!”

Jaime found hope, dreams and a little fear inside her eyes.

“Don’t worry.” Jaime hugged her. “I will always be with you and we will never be separated.”

Jaime stayed at the castle for months. Every day he looked at how pretty and happy the little girl was. She laughed yet at the same times Jaime felt his heart hurt.

Jaime approached her and hugged her. “Little Xiao Yun, I love you.”

“I love you too,” reply Xiao Yun. “Forever.”

“I wish we can stay here forever. Live happily ever after.”

“We can!” protest Xiao Yun. “And we will!”

Jaime shook his head. “This place is not real. This place is the prison of hope and dreams. You are too scared to face the truth and prisoned everything beautiful here. This place is beautiful, but it is not real. No matter how we wish it to be real it is not.” Jaime eyes were teary.

How much pain does someone have to bear so they choose to live in their dream than outside. How much fear was there that created this prison of heart.

Little Xiao Yun pushed Jaime out. “What do you really want! You don’t love me. If you love me you will stay with me here forever and after!”

“I do it because I love you. We must face reality even if it will not be as pretty as we hope and dream for. Sometimes it is bitter, but sometimes it is much better then what we ever hoped and dreamed about!”

“I don’t want it! Reality is cruel, when we get out you will leave me alone again. You won’t look for me. You will go out from my life. Forever!” Little Xiao Yun cried. “The world without you I don’t want. I want you to be here and forever after. I am happy here. I want to be with you here for eternity!”

“I will always be with you Xiao Yun. Now, after all we have been through together, I really love you. I can’t live without you anymore, like you can’t live without me. Together we will face reality, no matter how cruel it will be, it will only make our bond stronger. I will always hug you till the end of our time.”

“Really?”

Jaime stared at Xiao Yun, in her eyes there was hope, strength, and faith. She will grow up to become a really pretty girl. “I only have you and you will only have me. We will face everything together, never be separated.”

Xiao Yun smiled and tears fell. The castle and the blue sky finally cracked and broke into pieces.

Jaime suddenly faced the darkness in the empty void. There was only one girl there, the real Xiao Yun with a cold face looking at him. There were a lot of shadow beasts surrounding him. Each of them had a name anger, sadness, fear, hatred, fear, insecurity and so on.

“Before I send you out,” said Xiao Yun in cold attitude. “Before you hurt me more, I am going to kill you, so I will never be hurt anymore.”

Chapter 22: Traitor

“If we must separate, I will choose to keep this feeling. Even when you forget me, I will never forget you. This painful feeling of thinking about you, I won’t ever let go. Our meeting and these painful memories of you are the best things I’ve ever had in this life. I will never let it go, even if it will kill me! Because I really love you.”

Jaime stared at Xiao Yun and sighed.

The beasts charged at him and stabbed his body, yet he did nothing. Xiao Yun raised her sword and stabbed at Jaime’s chest. “Die!”

Jaime looked at her and smiled. He raised his hands to hugged Xiao Yun. “Anger, hatred, fear, insecurity, everything of you, I accept it. I have nothing to return to you except love. I love you now and forever. Everything you have I’ll take, but my love for you will never be changed, it will always be infinite and eternal. I will wait here till you feel secure and believe in me. From this time on, you are free to hurt me if it can cure you.”

“Only one thing I ask from you.” Jaime tears fell. “Xiao Yun, please stop hurting yourself. It hurts me a thousand times when I see you in pain. I am more than willing to die a thousand times to make you happy.”

Xiao Yun body trembled and her cold mask cracked and broke into pieces.

Behind the mask she appeared to be crying. Her tears fell and the crying kept getting louder. The beasts – anger, fear, heartless and so on, one by one started to shine brightly.

They became purified by the crying. The darkness was starting to glow with a soft and warm golden light. A sparkling dust filled every space and Xiao Yun hugged Jaime really tight.

The light got brighter and brighter, then everything disappeared.

[Congratulations, first heart’s dungeon is conquered, nine hundreds ninety nine more to go. You now can perform the secret of the heart.]

Jaime awoke and looked around, a familiar place, the arena where he fought with Xiao Yun and the thousands of audience were staring at him.

“Both fighters, what are you doing, keep standing there without moving?! Start the fight quickly! We are here not to watch both of you standing.”

Jaime stared at the referee. He couldn’t digest what just happened.

Jaime looked at Xiao Yun. There was still a cold face about her. But something told Jaime, there was a change in her heart. Jaime almost could feel the warmth of her heart.

Elder Meng quickly flew to the arena and shouted. “The winner of this tournament is Jaime, the new elder of eighth division!”

All of the audience stood, giving a big applause.

“Patriarch Jaime!”

“Long live Patriarch Jaime!”

“He never fought even once. The others fought to the death. Do you think he is fit to be the winner?” Elder Hu flew to the arena too. His voice spread to all of the audience “He won by giving a bribe. Don’t you think he is putting our Double Moon Sect name to shame?”

“What do you want!” Elder Meng blocked Elder Hu movements and was ready for fight. “He is the winner! No one can change it!”

“Really!?”

Jaime felt danger and at the same time, Elder Fan appeared behind him and launched a sneak attack with all his strength. If Jaime accepted it, surely he will die.

Jaime vomited blood and found Xiao Yun body was lying powerless beside him too.

“Xiao Yun!” Jaime quickly grabbed her body and checked her condition. “Why are you so stupid to take the attack for me!” Jaime felt angry, hopeless, and scared. “You are hurting yourself!”

Before Elder Fan attack touched Jaime’s body, Xiao Yun had thrown her own body to protect him.

Xiao Yun smiled and said slowly, “Never let me go!”

Jaime felt anger burst out from his body and looked at Elder Fan. “I swear I will kill you!”

Jaime took out a pill from his space storage ring and pushed it into Xiao Yun’s mouth. He quickly took her body and flew to eighth division’s direction in high speed. Anger can wait, revenge can wait for nine generations.

You may delay but time will not! Time and tide waits for no one. Xiao Yun life was more important than anything. He needed to cure Xiao Yun first. If he reached the eighth division and turned on the formation, no one could enter. No one could harm them.

Jaime flew high and left the tournament.

“Don’t think you can run!” Elder Fan flashed next to him ready to attack, yet Elder Jie appeared to stop him in advance.

Elder Hu was blocked by Elder Meng. “You dare to hurt the Elder of eighth division!”

Elder Guo also moved to stop Elder Zhang. “It is better for you not to make even one step forward.”

But no one stopped Elder Zhou from chasing Jaime. “Brat, no need to run, your granddaddy already has an eye on you. Put down your life and stop struggling.”

Jaime started to move first, but because of his injury and having Xiao Yun with him, his speed was a little bit slower than Elder Zhou’s on his flying sword. Before reaching the eighth division’s formation, Elder Zhou successfully closed the gap with Jaime. He was only two meters behind Jaime and attacked him with his fist.

Jaime channeled his inner energy into his back, ready to accept the attack. Elder Zhou’s fist hit Jaime’s back hard. This caused Jaime to shoot in to the distance.

“Dragon skin armor?” Elder Zhou eyes lit up looking at Jaime’s tattered clothes as the silver brown armor popped out. That armor was a fourth grades treasure, simply a rare treasure. “I want it!”

Jaime coughed blood and his head started spinning. Before the tournament, he put on the best armor he got from Patriarch Huo. This armor truly saved his life. Subsequently making the distance between him and Elder Zhou farther apart. He pushed all his energy and quickly flashed to the eighth division. There was only ten kilometers left before he could enter the formation.

Elder Zhou also raised his speed and in his hand was already a sword. “I want to know if your head also has armor.”

“I will make it! It is only a few kilometers left; he won’t be able to enter the formation! Only I and the disciples of eighth division which have been marked are allowed to enter.” Jaime glanced at Xiao Yun pale face. “Hang on you will be safe in no time.”

Elder Zhou got closer and closer. Fifty meters, forty meters, thirty meters.

Twenty meters.

Ten meters.

Five meters . Jaime could feel Elder Zhou charging his sword with his energy essence.

Jaime eyes were full of determination. “Two hundred meters left!”

Three meters.

Jaime knew, he wouldn’t make it with his speed. He put a mark on XiaoYun’s body.

Two meters!

Jaime threw Xiao Yun into the formation range and turned back with a sword in his hand.

Elder Zhou swung the sword and crashed with Jaime’s sword. A strong energy rushed to his body, making him vomit blood again. His ribs broke while his sword bent. He shot back and entered the formation range. Jaime quickly gathered his consciousness and flashed to catch Xiao Yun before she fell.

“Don’t fall on me!” Jaime pushed his limits and grabbed Xiao Yun just 3 meters left to the earth. Both of them crashed into the nearest tree and rolled on the ground.

“We are safe Xiao Yun!” Jaime laughed with blood spilling from his mouth, he quickly threw a few healing pills in his mouth. He took Xiao Yun and started to move again.

“Where do you think you wanted to go?”

Elder Zhou appeared five steps away in front of him.

“How can...” Jaime was shocked. It was impossible for Elder Zhou to enter the formation.

“You really don’t know anything huhhh?” Elder Zhou laughed. “All your formation has been broken from inside!”

“Who dare to...!”

“Me!” said one voice. When he appeared, Jaime never in his dream would have ever believed, that person would stab him in his back.

Elder Meng was locked with Elder Hu in their fight. Both couldn’t get the upper hand from another.

“Do you agree with Jaime as Elder?”

“Why not?” Elder Hu smiled. “Everyone stop the fight! I agree that Jaime is an elder of eighth division.”

All the elders fighting stopped immediately and both side stared at each other.

“But we as eighth disciples won’t agree with Jaime as our Elder!”

Elder Meng was shocked as he found there were almost five hundred of Rainbow Peak’s disciples standing there below the arena.

“Elder Huang was already dead; we have checked his cave and found his skeleton. Jaime stole our elder’s token. We will not have Jaime as our Master, neither will we acknowledge him as an Elder of Rainbow Peak. We want to assimilate ourselves to other divisions and let Rainbow Peak be under Elder Hu!” The entire disciples bowed to Elder Meng. “This is what all the disciples of Rainbow Peak really wish for. From five hundreds more brothers and sister, none of us like Jaime as our master! We hate him. He is using us for his own profit, never thinking about us nor thinking about the glory of Double Moon Sect. He even put us in danger!”

“I am called Fatty Chen, leader of eighth division entire disciples, and I want to be Elder Hu inner disciple. He will be my new master. As for Rainbow peak, all of the formation is already broken by us and it will be Elders Hu’s place.”

Chapter 23: Killing Double Moon Sect's Leader

“Why is it, that in this world there are good and bad? God and Devil? Man and woman? Are they created to fight each other or to collaborate? Man and woman create babies. Good and bad create wisdom. God and Devil creates human. Rivals give improvement for both sides. So, love your enemy. Make love with the one you hate the most, and kiss people that hit you. Steal from those who are kind to you, lie to people who care about you, and hurt the ones you love the most.”

Jaime saw Gong Na and smiled. “What are you waiting for? Not going to kill me? Or waiting for me to kill you?”

Gong Na still feared Jaime. He glanced at Elder Zhou. “This lowly disciple has finished his job here. I am going to join the other disciples with Elder Hu. Please excuse me.”

“Hmm!!!!” Elder Zhou sneered, not giving an eye to such a lowly disciple. Gong Na left quickly. “Elder Hu promised me one hundred thousand spiritual stones for your little life.”

Elder Zhou stepped forward. His eyes locked on Jaime. He could see how pitiful Jaime's condition was, pale face, and full of blood in his mouth. “Take off your armor. I don't want that armor to be stained with your blood. Really bad luck.”

Jaime smiled; he put down Xiao Yun and striped his armor. “Take this if you really want it.” The armor flew to Elder Zhou hand. His eyes glittering as he touched the armor.

Jaime turned around and took Xiao Yun with him. He started to move out.

“Stop there, where do you think you are going.” Elder Zhou didn’t believe Jaime would easily ignore him.

Jaime kept walking. “I don’t kill people from the same sect, you too better leave here before the poison causes your meridian to explode.”

“That armor, I took it from Huo Xie. He smeared poison there. When you hit me, your hand had poisoned once and now you touched it again. Killing time is killing you. If you rush back to find Elder Jie, maybe he will be kind enough to let Grandmaster Xhu under Violet division to cure you.”

Jaime sighed. “I gave you a big way to live and yet you insist on digging a tiny path to hell.” He put down Xiao Yun and took out a new sword.

Elder Zhou laughed but suddenly his face turned pale. He couldn’t channel his energy. The poison had attacked his meridians.

Jaime shouted again. “Go away! I don’t kill anyone from Double Moon Sect!”

Elder Zhou turned around and ran away. Now he was just a normal person, without any spiritual energy he could channel, Jaime could kill him easily. Seeing Elder Zhou’s back, Jaime’s eyes filled with tears. Not his tears but, Fu Gu Chai’s tears. This sect he built so hard will face tragedy soon.

Jaime checked the stone formation, when his hand touched the formation, he could sense which stone was removed. “That Elder Hu asked to break this formation, but appears he really wanted to study this formation so he removed only a few of them.” He smiled and quickly advanced to repair the stone formation as fast as he could.

Even if the formation won’t be as strong as in its prime. Still, it will be enough to block someone from Elder realm.

Jaime brought Xiao Yun to the Patriarch Cave, the cave only he could open. Inside the cave, Jaime put Xiao Yun in the middle of the formation. It was the core formation of all formations in Rainbow Peak. The concentration of energy inside was almost hundred times normal.

Jaime took out healing pills and [Sun and Moon] pills, crushed them into dust and let them flow around the cave. The powder was slowly entering in Xiao Yun body. Jaime sat and cultivated the highest level cultivation of Dragon and Phoenix. He sucked up all of the heaven and earth energy, letting it cycle through his body seven times before pouring it inside Xiao Yun body. The energy inside Xiao Yun slowly cleared the broken meridians and cured the injuries. It also helped the medicine process inside Xiao Yun’s body.

Using the Book of Karma, Jaime checked Xiao Yun's condition.

[Xiao Yun, 14 years old, in bad condition but not harming her life. Her meridian energy was destroyed and it is not possible to be repaired again. As for her life as martial artist, it is impossible to continue anymore.]

At the end of the tournament, Elder Hu was announced to be the new leader of Double Moon Sect. There was no eighth division any more. As for the five hundred or more disciples from eighth division, they were dissolved into and spread among the seven divisions. Each elder took about thirty to forty disciples and the rest were kicked out to the outer sect.

"I never thought eighth division's disciples would have a lot of good talents to enter as inner disciples of seven divisions." Someone from the audience didn't believe in what he saw. Usually it was hard to enter as an inner disciple of the seven divisions.

"Something wrong with them. Since the Patriarch Jaime came, in a few months almost all of them raised their talent and level."

"Yeah, have you checked Fatty Chen? He is on senior realm now!"

"Yeah, nothing normal since the Patriarch Jaime came. Where is he now?"

“I saw Elder Zhou chased him but the elder came back in terrible condition!”

“Right, did you see Huo Xie the Patriarch Realm from Huo Clan? Fatty Chen brought him together. His condition is also really bad. Black and blue all over his face.”

“I saw him! His hair was messy, seems like he just got out from prison!”

“I heard Elder Hu will move to kill Jaime.”

“Why does Elder Hu want to kill him?”

“No one knows.”

“How about Elder Meng?”

“He is not willing to fight with Elder Hu and cause trouble for the sect. So he chose to accept Elder Hu as leader and protect Double Moon Sect from the Demon Sect.”

“Yeah, demon sect is really active lately, have you heard how many villages they massacred? No one was left alive in every village they passed.”

“I hope they won’t choose Double Moon Sect as their next target.”

Elder Hu shouted. “From now on, Ex-rainbow peak will be called, Golden Crow peak. Let us move to our new place! All elders you must follow us too. The entire audience is allowed to come, we will make a party to celebrate the new Golden Crow peak.”

“Party!!”

“We must follow them!”

Three thousand people moved from the tournament to Rainbow Peak. Elder Hu lead the way full with pride. As all of them reached Rainbow Peak, they saw something they would never forget.

Jaime sat on the chair in front of them. Alone.

Jaime stared at them and shouted. “Eighth division will never disappear. Rainbow peak will continue to live as long as Double Moon Sect stands. Today I will kill the traitor of this sect. His blood will clean this Double Moon Sect.”

“I will announce, Elder Hu is expelled from Double Moon Sect, because he secretly wanted to kill Elder Meng using Hou Xie hand. And he will die today! As for any elder that wants to help him, he will also die today. Any questions?”

Jaime’s eyes were red with anger, no one knew if he was crazy or speaking for real.

“How dare you!” Elder Hu shouted. “Everyone kill him!”

Hundreds of disciples moved to attack but were stopped by the invisible wall. “The formation! He turned on the formation!”

“No matter, keep attacking! The formation will crumble itself.”

Jaime looked at them and suddenly he felt tired. He was not supposed to be here. This is not the war he wanted to join. He never liked to fight neither did he liked to see blood. Fu Gu Chai’s experience forced him to do it.

Finish it quickly and get out from this mess.

“Elder Fan, kidnapped a lot of people. Used them as slaves and let his disciples to kill them. One of them was my brother Hu Hai. Elder Fan didn’t follow ‘the justice’ that Double Moon Sect always protected. Therefore his punishment is death!”

“The one that will be dead is you!” Elder Fan forced all of his disciples to launch an attack at the invisible wall.

“Elder Meng, do you think we need to help them?” Elder Jie didn’t know what to do, too many things he doesn’t understand.

“We should just stay here and see what will happen.”

Elder Zhang was close to Elder Hu. “Elder Hu we need Hua Xie to break this formation. Only Patriarch Realm can do damage to it. Please do something. If he doesn't die today, we won't be able to sleep in peace."

"Keep attacking, I will find a solution." Elder Hu scanned his disciples.

Fatty Chen saw Jaime angry face and quickly moved back. He was really scared of Jaime. Yet, he must follow his master's command. Quickly he searched for Huo Xie, that guy looked so terrible.

"Patriarch Huo Xie, my master wishes you to help him in clearing unfinished business. He gave you this pill to help you restore your power. Please quickly help him. After this he will help you to cure any injure you have. Now he is the leader of Double Moon Sect. He can pay you everything you ask."

Huo Xie raised his head. "I want my things back! Can your master do it?"

"Sure he can, he already told me, anything you wish he will prepare. Just help him this time!"

"Who do I need to kill?"

"My Ex-master."

Huo Xie moved in front of the formation wall. He attacked with all his power and caused the formation to crack.

Elder Hu smiled. “All of you must breakthrough when the formation breaks down. The Twelve Moons Capturing Dragon formation in this little place only can be used to capture one person, as for whoever can kill him, he or she will get one hundred thousand spiritual stones!”

Huo Xie launched his second attack and the whole formation broke down. Thousands of people rushed to Jaime wanting to try their luck at obtaining one hundred thousand spiritual stones by killing Jaime.

Yet Jaime didn't move, neither did he escape, he just smiled in front of everyone.

Suddenly, there were two miserable screams that caused everyone to stopped their movement and look at the source of the sound. As they saw what just happened all of them were shocked and stopped their movement.

Even Elder Meng couldn't help to say. “Impossible!”

“He did it!”

“He really did it!”

Chapter 24: Building Harem

“We can’t change the past as much as we wish we could. But tomorrow is a new day and different story. Tomorrow is a different thing. We can change it to make things better. Or... worse. You know, sometimes we do too much for nothing and everything around us is getting worse and worse. If that happens, do nothing, feel grateful with every little thing you have and pray, may God be with you.”

I have a story or two from the prayer of the frog.

A plane with hundreds of passengers had an accident in the sky, and the pilot announced to the passengers. “Our first and fourth engine just blew up and the second and third engine had a failure. For now only God can help us. Pray.”

One skeptic didn’t understand the announcement and asked a priest beside him. “Father, please tell me what the pilot’s announcement means?”

The priest sighed. “My child, that means we have no more hope.”

Or

A parachutist jumped out of a plane on a windy day and was blown a hundred miles off course by a powerful gale. Then his parachute caught on a tree, so he hung there for hours in the middle of nowhere, shouting for help.

Finally someone passed by. “How did you get up on that tree?” he asked.

The parachutist told him. Then he asked, “Where am I?”

“On a tree,” was the reply.

“Hey! You must be a cleric!”

The stranger was stunned. “Yes I am. How did you know?”

“Because what you said is certainly true and certainly just as useless.”

‘Double Moon Sect needs to change. Even if I don’t like to kill, but this is the best method for the future of this sect.’

Jaime faced thousands of people and shouted, “Move back if you don’t want to be killed! Like Elder Hu and Elder Fan!”

They saw Elder Hu and Elder Fan lying on the ground without knowing how Jaime did it. Both of them had their blood pour all over the earth. There was no way for either of them to be still alive.

“Patriarch Jaime! It is really patriarch Jaime. Quickly move back!”

As the people moved back, the layer formation turned on and left the body of Elder Hu and Elder Fan inside the formation. Their disciples, who wanted to take their bodies, were pushed back by the formation wall.

‘But you, humans, forget, I can see the future huahahaha.... Past, present, future, what the heck is that! The most important thing is money. When you have money, wherever you are, whenever you are, you will be the king of time. When you have no money, you won’t want to be in the past, present or future. Money is the future!’

Jaime walked to their dead bodies and took their storage pouches. After checking them carefully, Jaime smiled. Elder Hu even had one space storage ring hidden on his body. “This Elder Hu really knew how to get money, there are two million spiritual stones inside the ring.”

He casted fire to burn their bodies and said. “Traitors need no grave.” After saying that, he promptly went back to the cave and didn’t bother with the thousands of people who didn’t really understand what just happened.

“Will he get away, just like this?”

“Even your master got killed like a dog in front of all of us, what can a little boy like you do to Patriarch Jaime?”

“What do we do? He killed our leader.”

“But you heard that Elder Hu was a traitor! He deserved to die! He is not our leader.”

“Fk you, who do you think you are.”

The fight between disciples suddenly made the situation become worse.

Elder Zhou’s body laid on the ground and all his belongings were already gone.

“Who killed him? Don’t say Patriarch Jaime?”

This caused fear to all of the people there. Disciples of Elder Hu and Elder Fan knew, things would go bad if they kept protecting their dead masters. Anyway, their masters didn’t even treat them well when they lived. They started cursing at their dead masters, scared that they would die like them too.

A guy sneered. “You dare to take your daddy belongings, you deserved to die!”

“Don’t wake up yet. You are injured.”

Xiao Yun’s eyes stared at Jaime deeply.

Jaime touched her hand. “Thanks for helping me, without you I would have already been dead.”

Xiao Yun pulled back her hand and didn’t let Jaime touch her. “Stay away from me.”

“Don’t you remember what we had in the past together?”

“What?”

Jaime scratched his head. “We were chatting together, hugging each other, loving each other, making love and had hundreds of babies?”

“Keep dreaming.” Xiao Yun threw his face away, while her face turned really red. “We only met again in the arena. Nothing happened between us.”

“ ... ”

“ ... ”

“I don’t know...”

Maybe she really didn’t have memories about the dungeon of heart.

“Well, it is okay. I still owe you and I want to tell you that you have a big problem here. Your injuries are already much better and won’t harm you. But your cultivation has been damaged badly. You have to throw away your cultivation and cultivate a new one from the beginning. I am sorry.”

“ ... ”

Both of them sat outside the cave. It was midnight. Jaime lit up a fire in the middle of them to chase away the cold.

Xiao Yun eyes looked hypnotized by the fire. Jaime put out new clothes to cover Xiao Yun. She stared at Jaime inquisitively.

“I don’t know why.” Xiao Yun hesitated for a while. “I have a cozy feeling beside you.”

Jaime showed a big smile. “I am handsome, caring, and have a very gentle heart. No one in this world won’t fall into my charm, you are lucky to be with me. If you feel gratitude being with me, you can pay me. Usually I am paid per hour.”

Xiao Yun giggled, “What are you talking about?”

“I am saying, thanks for saving my life. I owe you big this time.”

Xiao Yun glanced at the moon. “Have you ever talked to the moon?”

“Nope.” There is no one there that would listen though.

“I usually talk to the moon.” Xiao Yun locked her eyes on the night sky. She had bright ivory skin and a slender figure; an absolute goddess-like beauty at a catastrophic level. Her eyes sparkled like the starry night with curved, moon-shaped eyebrows. Thick midnight dark hair, combined with her graceful face, her daintiest tiny nose and her soft pink lips like forbidden fruit. She is an ineffable beauty. She is really pretty. Jaime’s heart began to beat faster.

“Before the tournament, Elder Fan was going to forcefully marry me to Zhou Wei after it ends. I don’t like Zhou Wei, so I was thinking about killing myself after the tournament. Maybe that is why I saved you. I wanted to die.”

Jaime hugged Xiao Yun shoulder warmly. “Stupid girl, never say things like killing yourself, there is still a lot of happiness you will experience in the future. You will meet a better guy, have a better life, and something better, than you will ever dream. Stay alive and good thing will happen.”

“What if happiness never comes to me?”

“People are craving for happiness, sometimes they try to fight so hard for happiness and have nothing. Sometimes they wait for so long and nothing changes. Then, starting to give happiness is the only thing you can do. So someday the happiness will put its eyes on you. But, if everything failed, just stay alive and wait for me. Wherever you are, whenever you are, I will come to you and give you all the happiness in this world. Just stay alive. I will be there soon.”

Xiao Yun closed her eyes, feeling the warmth of Jaime’s body. “I don’t know why I talk too much today. I feel warm with you, like we already knew each other for a long time. It seems, as if my heart has known you for a long time.”

Jaime smiled and let Xiao Yun be in peace. What he really cared about now, were the mosquitos. Now they were targeting both of them, really a romance crusher.

In the morning, Xiao Yun searched for Jaime and said, “I want to be strong and I will keep learning martial arts. It is already my life, I can’t live without them.”

“Alright then, but the cultivation you have now will be gone.” Even if Xiao Yun got injured at her meridians, she was still on level 35. She just couldn’t channel all the spiritual energy again after her meridians broke.

Xiao Yun nodded. “I got the cultivation from Elder Fan and I can’t fulfill his wishes, it is normal to return all of it back to him.”

“Okay, come here and touch my hand.”

Jaime grabbed her hands, making Xiao Yun blush.

When Xiao Yun was injured, she was unconscious for five days and for that long Jaime tried everything he could do to cure Xiao Yun broken meridians. He found out that Xiao Yun couldn’t cultivate because of her bad karma, if Jaime didn’t intervene with her life. Xiao Yun fate would have been finished right now. She would die because of rejecting the marriage with Zhou Wei and be killed by Elder Fan. As fate kept forcing her to stay on its path, Xiao Yun was still attacked by Elder Fan, but she didn’t die.

Bad karma is like a debt, that needs to be paid.

“Book of Karma, Xiao Yun and I will exchange our levels to pay the bad karma of Xiao Yun!”

[To payback the bad karma of Xiao Yun. 15 levels will be taken from Jaime and all Xiao Yun levels will be taken.]

“Do it!”

Bright light covered Jaime and Xiao Yun, the light keep purifying Xiao Yun for a long time. When it finished, Jaime quickly checked Xiao Yun status.

[Xiao Yun, level 1. No injury found. Her bad karma had been cleared; her fate has changed and won't follow the original written fate. She can start cultivation.]

“Wait.” Jaime put his finger in the middle of Xiao Yun eyebrows. “I will imprint the cultivation of the Phoenix. It is ten times better than Double Moon Sect’s cultivation.” The process ended quickly.

Jaime stared at Xiao Yun big eyes. “Xiao Yun, you will be the elder of eighth division, this whole place will be yours. I hope you can cultivate for five years. This space storage pouch is for you, inside there are pills which are enough for you to breakthrough to Patriarch Realm and even King Realm. There will be money and patriarch Realm Demonic Beast’s meat. It will help you quickly gain your cultivation back.”

“Do you want to leave me?” Xiao Yun eyes shone with sadness. “Again...”

“Stupid girl.” Jaime hugged Xiao Yun. “I can’t always be with you. I am a man and a man has a lot of things to do. I need to conquer three realms in 100 years. So many things must be done.”

Jaime definitely doesn’t dared to say, that he needed to conquer 999 more female hearts and wanted to build a harem.

“Now if you insist on following me, I will only harm you. My journey will be full of danger and ...”

Suddenly there was a voice ringing throughout the eight divisions. “Elders of Double Moon Sect want to meet Jaime. Please grant an audience.”

Jaime’s eyes rolled.

Another romance crusher.

Jaime shouted back. “Wait there, I am in the middle of a romantic conversation with my wife! It will be your fault if she won’t get convinced.”

“Where were we? Oh yes.” Jaime reply. “Now if you insist on following me, I will only harm you. My journey will be full of danger and beautiful girls...”

Shit.

Xiao Yun eyes coldly stabbed at Jaime.

Xiao Yun forcefully grabbed the storage pouch and turned around to the cave. “When I have a high cultivation, wherever you are, I will find you. After that if you dare to leave me again. I will kill you.”

Before the cave closed, Jaime looked at Xiao Yun for the last time.

“I will wait for you...”

Jaime glanced at Elder Meng, Elder Jie, Elder Guo, Elder Zhang and one person called Grandmaster Xhu.

“It is good all of you came. I was just thinking to find all of you to give you insight before I leave this sect!”

“Wait, first tell us how you killed Elder Hu, Elder Fan and Elder Zhou.”

Jaime laughed. “Seems you really want to know? Then if you have money please give a little, so we can move to the next part. Hahaha.”

Chapter 25: End of Double Moon Sect

“Well, it is difficult for me to admit when I am doing wrong, especially in front of people who I hurt. But, it is the best to admit, when you are doing wrong. So I want to make a confession. I stole candy when I was small. I made my mother cry. I hit my classmate. I hit on every girl I thought was pretty. I caused my girlfriends to burst in tears. When a guy loved me, I rejected him. When I had money I said no to people wanting to borrow and I went to church only to look for a pretty girl and the priest kicked me out. Damn, what I want to admit is, I feel regret because I really made a mistake, regret that I was not doing worse that time. I wish I could turn back time and steal more candies, hit on more pretty girls and love more classmates. And that guy who loved me, maybe I should have accepted him and opened a door of a whole new world.... maybe not.”

“I admit that I did wrong, when killing those elders, but I can’t say I wasn’t happy when they died. As for how they died, I won’t open my secrets so easily,” Jaime smiled lightly. “So what makes you people come here?”

“I heard that you have the complete Double Moon Cultivation.” Elder Meng was shaken. “I have been long stuck at Eldest Realm and can’t get through to the Patriarch Realm, neither could my master nor great grand master. Please for the sake of Double Moon Sect!”

“Easy to say! What can you give me if I were to give you what you want?”

Elder Meng glanced at the others, as if they already had an agreement between them. “If you really have the complete Double Moon Cultivation, we are willing to take you as Patriarch of Double Moon Sect.”

“Why?” asked Jaime in confusion.

“For the glory of Double Moon Sect and for my Master wish, before he died. He wished that Double Moon Sect could reach its golden age again. I had promised him that we will do it. But none of us have the ability to do it. Our only hope is with you.”

Jaime smiled “If it’s like this, all of you can follow me.” He took all of the elders to the peak of Rainbow Peak. “What do you think about this place?”

Elder Jie quickly said. “This formation truly is a masterpiece, besides having a defense wall, and being able to capture an enemy, it also has a function to gather heaven and earth energy, truly an incredible formation.”

Jaime nodded. “This formation was created by the twelve mini-core formations. I want to make this formation for the entire Double Moon Mountain range, like a thousand years ago when Double Moon Sect was in the peak of its golden age. We must revive the 12 divisions and call back all disciples of Double Moon. We are going to have a five years closed cultivation for all disciples of Double Moon Sect.”

“Why?” Elder Meng confused. “Calling all disciples of the sect has never happened in two hundred years.”

“In the next 5 years, there will be a tragedy. If we don’t get ready for it, maybe Double Moon Sect will be wiped out clean from this continent.”

“What tragedy?” Elder Guo asked.

“A king of the three realms will conquer this continent with his troops. If we don’t have a King Realm or an Emperor Realm at that time, we will most likely be killed.”

‘I am the king of three realms, if all of you can’t reach Emperor Realm in five years and be my troops to conquer this continent, what use do all of you have for me.’

“But no one had reached emperor realm in the last two thousand years?”

“When the formation occupies all of Double Moon Mountain Range and collects heaven and earth energy from the continent, in three years, the place at the core of formation will have enough energy to nurture one emperor realm, three in four years and twelve in five years. Even ancestor realm will be possible.”

All of the elders were shocked. “Is it true?”

Grandmaster Xhu spoke for the first time. “Even in the history, when this sect was at its peak, there was no record of having someone in the King Realm, let alone someone in the Emperor Realm. We need the right cultivation and right pills for breakthroughs of each realm. We don’t have any of them.”

“Seeing is believing. Elder Meng, I will give you the cultivation of Double Moon Sect which I already modified a little.” Jaime took out a green jade disk and recorded some information with the help of spiritual stones. His level was simple too low for now. “Take this jade and this pill, go find a cave and cultivate. I will give you five hours.” Jaime threw two items to Elder Meng.

“Elder Jie, elder Guo, and elder Zhang this is the record of how to create the formation of the twelve moons capturing dragon.” Jaime threw a green jade to them. “While waiting for Elder Meng, the three of you can study the formation and check this Rainbow Peak formation, so you can create it for each division and for all of Double Moon Range.”

“As for Grandmaster Xhu, I will teach you how to extract this item.” Jaime threw a small stone to Grandmaster Xhu and caused his face to turn pale.

“What is it?” asked Elder Jie.

“A Dragon fruit seed.”

“With one of that seed, you can create 100 low [First Dragon] pills and 10 [First Dragon] pills. For your knowledge, the so-called [First Dragon] pill, that you create here, is just a low-grade pill. Total garbage!”

Every elder stared at Jaime with an opened mouth.

“What? You don’t believe me? There is another saying, ‘paying is believing'. Give me your money, so you will believe it. People never believe and be grateful for a free things."

"No need," say Elder Guo quickly. "I believe in you already. I have seen your disciples become lions amongst men. That is why all of us agree of you being Patriarch. They were disciples with the lowest talent in here but you changed them in month. This is truly a great thing for the sect"

Jaime felt proud and raised his head. "Then start doing your job. Except for those who want to study how to make pills for King and Emperor Realm breakthroughs, please go away."

All of the Elders eyes were becoming red. Grandmaster Xhu already wanted to kneel in front of Jaime and call him master!

When Elder Zhang, Elder Jie and Elder Guo walked away to do their job, Elder Jie sighed. "This little boy is truly amazing, every time he opened his mouth; it was like lighting in the noon. Never ceases to amaze me."

"His cultivation is just like a normal human, but he killed Elder Hu easily."

"Sigh... his cultivation is already so deep, so we can't understand. He really is a dragon amongst man."

"Do you know what his ex-disciple called him?" asked Elder Guo.

"What?"

“A king of three realms.”

“Self-proclaimed one?”

“Yeah, it got me really confused when he said in 5 years a king of three realms will conquer this continent. I am lost at that part just now.”

“Yeah me too.”

“Maybe, he just a crazy kid with a short-circuited brains after that village massacre.”

After five hours, Elder Jie, Elder Zhang and Elder Guo got surprised when they found Elder Meng and Grandmaster Xhu kowtowing to Jaime while calling him, “The greatest man alive. A king of three realms. A master of impossible. Our lovely Master. The most handsome guy under heaven.”

Jaime stood on the large boulder with two hands on his hip and laughed very hard. “Good disciples, kiss my ass again! When I am happy, I will give you more huahahaha....”

They didn’t understand what was happening at all.

“I am here to take what you have promised me!” A sudden roar can be heard and an image suddenly flashed beside Jaime.

“Huo Xie!” Elder Jie got surprised again. He thought this guy was gone in the chaos of that time.

“Good time coming, good time coming. Huo Xie I want you to fight with Elder Meng, before I return your stuff.” Jaime smiled. “Elder Meng go!”

Huo Xie looked at Elder Meng and laughed. “Elder Meng? I will kill him in a second.”

Elder Meng said nothing and rushed to attack Huo Xie. Huo Xie smiled and accepted one hit. It caused his smile to disappear and then Elder Meng smiled. Both furiously exchanging twenty hits, their attacks' aftershocks destroyed stones and trees in the surroundings.

Huo Xie face turned pale. “You are already in the Patriarch realm!”

This news left Elder Jie, Elder Zhang and Elder Guo dumbfounded.

“Enough,” said Jaime while throwing a space storage ring. “Huo Xie, take your things back and thank you for taking care about Elder Hu and Elder Fan with a sneak attack. As for Elder Zhou, why did you kill him?”

“Hmm... he took my armor and smeared poison on it! Causing this daddy to hide for a five days to push out the poison! Really, he is an annoying bastard! I should have killed him hundreds more times.”

Jaime was the culprit who smeared the poison on the armor and let Elder Zhou and Huo Xie blame each other.

Now all of the elders knew, that those three elders were killed by Huo Xie, so they looked at Jaime for some explanations.

“When Huo Xie was my guest, I gave him two poison pills at that time, black and blue. The blue one was used for locking his energy and the black one was poison which would kill him in a month. I asked him to kill Elder Hu and Elder Zhou when I returned his power back. For killing them, I would have rewarded him with an antidote for his poison, returned his belongings and pay for killing Elder Hu and Elder Fan.”

Huo Xie checked his storage ring, after finding that nothing was missing and that it also had an addition of a few hundred thousand spiritual stones and antidote pill. He glanced at Jaime. “This won’t be over just like this. There will be a time when I will come and take your head.”

Jaime smiled. “Come anytime you want, Double moon Sect already has a new Patriarch and will build a new formation for you to try out. Just come when you like and ask for more people from your clan, the more the merrier.”

Huo Xie sneered and flew out.

Suddenly a group of five hundred people rushed to the peak mountain, when they looked at Jaime, they knelt together and cried. “Master never let us do a thing like this again!” Some of them cried loudly, for they felt deeply wronged.

Fatty Chen cried really loud. “Master, even if it was just a trick, you asked us to defect to other divisions and conquer the divisions from the inside, we didn’t like the feeling of betraying our real master. Huaah..hu..hu.. Master. You are my only master in this life, don’t force us to separate from you again hu...hu...”

“It was just a trick, that they betrayed you?” asked Elder Meng.

“Well, the plan changed a little.” Jaime scratched his head. “The previous plan was for all of the disciples of the eighth division betray me and defect to all of the other divisions. Then become an elder of each division in 5 years. You know I don’t like blood, neither fighting, I think it was the better way to take over Double Moon Sect in peace.”

“But after knowing, that Elder Hu was willing to kill his own sect’s brother and would do harm for the future of Double Moon, as a leader, I chose to take him out. Since, I don’t kill anyone from the same sect, I used Huo Xie hands.”

“Master.” Fatty Chen burst in tears. “Let us back as eighth division’s disciples. We missed that wonderful time.”

Jaime laughed. “You can’t come back here anymore. Because the elder of eighth divisions is Xiao Yun, as who will be her disciples will be her decision.”

“So Master will be a patriarch of our Double Moon Sect!” asked Fatty

Chen in high spirit.

“Our master is patriarch!”

“Patriarch Jaime!” said some disciples happily.

“I am not your patriarch!” Jaime shouted angrily. “Elder Meng is your patriarch. He is already on Patriarch realm. As for me! Have you forgotten who am I? Tell me what is your Master’s name?”

“Jaime The Great!” shouted all disciple in unison.

“What is my title!” Jaime shouted!

“The King of Three Realms!”

“What will I do?!”

“Killing the gods, trampling the demons, be the emperor of the universe!”

“Good, this sect is just too small for me. 5 years from now, I will come back to find all of you! At that time, you better already be strong enough to follow my steps! So we can walk together across heaven and hell!” Suddenly Jaime disappeared from everyone’s sight, leaving only his sound behind.

Five hundred disciples looked at the blue sky and some sisters started crying.

“Master! We will be strong enough after five years!”

“Master, I will be ready at that time!”

“We will follow you without fail at that time!”

“Master!”

Some girls disciples cried loudly. “Master, I love you!”

“Master, please give me your baby first before you go!”

One month later.

In a big city where more than a million people lived.

Jaime was sitting on the side of the road with dirty clothes. “Please give me some money. I am so hungry and haven’t eaten for three days... please... have a little kindness for me.... I have no family, friend, or loan shark to borrow food or money.... hungryyyy..... ”
